

Liberals Pleased With Whiting's Performance

Halton M.P. Rud Whiting received a unanimous vote of confidence from the executive of the Halton and Halton East Liberal Association earlier this week.

Whiting this week celebrates the first anniversary of his election to parliament.

"It was no platitude," said David Butler, Association president. "In our opinion and the opinion of many voters in this riding Rud is one of the most dedicated and hardest-working members of any of the representatives from anywhere in Canada."

"He works long hours in Ottawa during the week and then comes home on weekends to put in more long and hard hours. You couldn't ask for more dedication and effort from anyone," Butler said.

Butler said Whiting will be honoured at a dinner-dance which the Association is planning for the fall.

At the same meeting, the Association executive also passed resolutions:

● To write Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau requesting the allocation of funds for research facilities for backbenchers.

● To write the prime minister requesting tax deduction benefits for persons who financially support political parties.

Lounge Permit or Not Make Decision Tonight

by Ralph Hawes

This month's Ladies Auxiliary general meeting was well attended. When the meeting was called to order at 8:05 p.m. by president Jean Reid, there were 77 members present which is over half the total membership of the Auxiliary. Ironically, at the Men's meetings where the membership has the power and authority to make decisions of great significance and consequence, it is difficult to have 10% of the membership on hand. The indifference and lack of concern in the men's section of the Branch is appalling and must give the powers that be many uneasy and anxious moments.

However, the ladies appear to be becoming stronger at each meeting. Four applications for membership were accepted. Florence Carswell, Allee Bulmer, Norma Head, and Ruby Mack are new members of the Auxiliary. President Reid recognized Mrs. Goldsmith a member of long standing who has been away to Orillia for some time but has retained her membership in Branch 120.

After the general meeting on September 18, there is to be a fun night. Saturday, October 25 the ladies are holding a bake and rummage sale and bazaar. The two lucky ladies to win the draw made during the intermission were Comrades Finley and Nicholson. Comrade Wilson received her 25 year pin. After much discussion, the Auxiliary are reluctantly forced to raise the price of their catering services. This is because of the continual rise to the cost of supplies.

WINED AND DINED

President Hale explained the lounge permit situation to the ladies stating that if the membership decided to apply for the permit, there would be no problem as far as the ladies were concerned and that they would continue to enjoy the use of the rooms. He also forewarned the ladies of the hectic week they could expect when the Provincial Curling comes to Branch 120 at the end of February. Breakfast and evening dinner will be served in the auditorium. He told them of the dinner meeting of the Little NHL Hall of Fame committee and board of directors and the many VIP of the hockey world who will be guests. This is to take place on Monday, September 8.

After the meeting, the ladies were wined and dined by the men's executive committee. The highlight of the evening which delighted the ladies was a dramatic vividly exciting play entitled "Little Nell" produced, directed and played by members of the Branch Imperial Section. Jack Ferguson portrayed the father, Bill Rannachan was outstanding as the disillusioned Nell, Wright Smith played the debonnaire villain, the police officer was George Hughes. We thought the prompter and property manager did a terrific job with such promptings as "Hey, you blithering idiot! You open the door and walk in, you don't walk round it!" The ladies were almost overcome with laughter from beginning to the end of the very brief play.

NEW CHAIRMEN

At the Men's executive meeting Tuesday, new chairmen were appointed. Dave Bowman, can be seen at Roberts, House; Pat

Russ Stephens, entertainment; Bruce Collins, poppy and chairman for Ontario Provincial Curling; Norm Ward, membership; Ralph Hawes, P.R.O.

The executive decided there would be no change in the open hours of the Branch and will continue opening from midday to 6:30 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to midnight.

The Branch golfers did well at Streetsville Glen Golf Club on Saturday when Port Credit Branch was host to Zone B7 golfers. Port Credit won the first spot with John Lemay, Harvey Chappel, Andy St. Laurent and Jack Timpon securing the second spot for Branch 120 with Oakville third.

We understand the Port Credit ladies had an excellent meal for the men when they returned from golf but were very disappointed with the small number of players who returned for they had catered for many more.

The Branch Pipe Band held a very successful dance on Friday and received much applause when they demonstrated their skill during the intermission. This Saturday, the Band hopes to travel to Uxbridge Legion. All Pipe Bands in the Toronto area have received invitations to attend. The day will officially open with a parade in the morning which will be followed by the games. During the games, the Branch Band will compete with some of the finest when they do their best in the Pipe Band contest.

ALWAYS A SELLOUT

Friday night dart shoot was, as always, a sellout. B. Lorusso, H. Atkinson, J. Dickenson, A. Bulmer, N. Ward, A. Porter, M. Norrie, N. Ward, R. Williams, B. Ritchie were the lucky ones this week. Car Club winners — B. Parsons, Mrs. F. Tost, I. Mallabon, R. Wilson, J. Fallow.

The Peel County Gents were again outstanding in their versatility and entertaining ability. While the hall was not overcrowded, the dancing area was full at all times. This group are great entertainers.

Prize winners were B. Lantz, F. Garbutt and J. Poirier. Members should make an extra effort to attend the General Meeting which will be held tonight, Thursday, June 26. You will be asked to decide whether or not you wish a lounge permit. This subject will require much thought by the members for it will affect every member and therefore deserves each member's careful consideration.

Don McClure Represents Halton At Seminar

Don McClure, B. R. 3, Georgetown has been chosen Halton County's delegate to O.A.C. Alumni 4-H Science Seminar at the University of Guelph. Don has completed 11 4-H projects and has held the offices of president in the Halton Holstein Calf Club, and vice president of the Halton 4-H Strawberry club. About 75 outstanding 4-H agricultural club members from across the province will attend.

The program of the 3-day conference, which begins on July 2, is an insight and orientation to the purpose and content of the B. Sc. (Agriculture) degree program at the Ontario Agricultural College. The full scope of the agricultural industry will be outlined during the program.

Seminar delegates have been chosen by local leaders and Agricultural Representatives from each of the 54 counties and districts of Ontario. In previous years selection was limited to one delegate per county. This year, however, each county having more than 150 members will send two representatives.

Europe, Africa, Expo Vagabond Tour Plan

A vagabond jaunt through Europe, Asia and parts of Africa is in the cards for Ray Olivier, Jr., 44 Prince Charles Drive.

Ray flies to London today to join a party of six — three Canadians and three Englishmen who have planned an extensive tour which will take them a year and a half to complete.

Travelling by Bedford van which they will pick up in London, they will tour through European countries towards a planned two weeks of sunbathing in Greece. Then on to Turkey and the Khyber pass into Afghanistan to India.

They will travel by boat to Kenya where they hope to spend Christmas day. From here, Ray hopes to go down the east African coast by boat to South Africa. And then (he hopes) he will go on to Viet Nam, and to Japan for Expo 70. Returning home via Hawaii, he will land in the States, travel north to Vancouver and after seeing a good part of the world, he feels it only right to return home through our own Canadian west and end his tour with a trip through his own country.

"It's no luxury tour," he told The Herald. "We'll be camping out most of the time, with maybe a hotel once a week to get a decent bath and freshen up." He has offered to write some letters to The Herald, to keep his friends informed of items of interest along the way.
