

FATHER DIES AT COLLINGWOOD

Gordon A. Borland died on June 14 at the General Marine Hospital in Collingwood. His son Robert lives in Georgetown at 6 Cleaveland Drive and he also leaves a son and daughter, Donald and Marjorie of Collingwood; a sister, Mrs. B. Sobie, Collingwood and brother Lew of Wasaga Beach. Funeral services and interment took place in Collingwood.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Katherine Cordaro, 11 Ewing Street, visited with relatives in Toronto last week end while there attended an Open House at St. Crispin's church with friends and relatives of Rev. Douglas Dittich, who is on furlough from his mission at Inuvik, Northwest Territories. He is the son of Mrs. Laura Dittich of Acton, Georgetown's Hi Neighbour Hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken McMillan, 8 Emery Street, have had their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reynolds and grandchildren Jamie and Brooke visiting with them from California. Jamie played this year for the Monarchs in the greater Los Angeles hockey league and although his team reached the finals they were beaten out for the championship. Jamie who plays right wing, scored two goals in the final game.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitney arrived at Toronto airport by plane on Saturday with sons David, Albert and Bill Jr., from their home in St. Peterburg, Florida where they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kay from Kitchener, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Jennings and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jennings, Brampton, Mrs. Verna Whitney and his uncle Mr. George Tracy from town. They are vacationing in the Parry Sound district at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jennings and later will visit in town with his mother and brothers John and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whitney. Bill is employed with Pittsburgh Paints in Tampa as sales representative for the Tampa-St. Petersburg area.

Four Run Inning Gives Glen Win

Glen Williams came up with a four run inning to wrestle the lead away from Norval and went on to beat the youngest Intercounty Fastball League team 8-7 in a game in Glen Park, Sunday night.

Nell Best went the route to gain the win for the Glen. Greg Moody, in the absence of ogle two hurlers John Holby and Bob Robson tossed all of the game for Norval with the exception of part of an inning when he switched places with second sacker Brian Peavoy.

Norval led early in the game but never recovered from Glen's four run outburst which put them in front 8-4.

Norval got a no hitter from John Holby Friday when they blanked Hillsburgh, and Glen Williams added their second win in a row Tuesday in Belwood.

Norval has a five wins-five losses record, while the Glen is four and four.

Co-Pilots Plane in Transcontinent Race

Mrs. Barbara Brotherton, of Limehouse will co-pilot for Mrs. Ruth C. Bliss when she pilots TAR No. 50 in the All Women Transcontinental Air Race set for take off July 4 from Lindbergh Field, San Diego, California. The race will end at Dulles International, Washington, D.C., July 7.

Mrs. Brotherton and Mrs. Bliss will be in a Piper Cherokee, PA28, 180 h.p.

Mrs. Brotherton has a private license, and an instrument rating. Her husband, Tom, also a pilot, is vice-president of Economy Forms in Georgetown. They have two children.

BEST CUB '6' HAS CAMP-OUT

A traditional outing with the 5th Georgetown B Pack is a reward to the best Six and this year it took the form of a camp out at Terra Cotta Conservation Area where leaders Mr. and Mrs. Ross Colter joined the Green Six for the weekend.

The Green Six includes Sixer Brad Kruger; Darrell Stone; Don Greig; Tom Diamond and Delbert Duchin.

The Cubs enjoyed swimming fishing and hiking and capped Saturday night with a campfire when they enjoyed toasted marshmallows and hot chocolate.

Unsworth Joins Midget Pitching Staff, Wins

Georgetown Midget baseballers got back on the win path Sunday by defeating Brampton 3-2. Four days earlier they took a drubbing from Waterdown.

Georgetown outhit Brampton nine to six and committed just one error while Brampton bobbled three times.

Doug Unsworth made his first appearance on the mound for Georgetown and pitched well enough to show he'll strengthen the club's pitching staff. He was relieved by Walker and combined they fanned 10-Brampton batters. Georgetown struck out five times.

Georgetown scored the game's first run in the fourth inning and came through again in the seventh. The Brampton runs both crossed the plate in the ninth inning.
