

GIANT BATS

Here are three reasons pitchers around the Halton Intermediate Baseball circuit don't laugh at Georgetown Giants anymore. Rick Maloney, left, Danny Arbic, centre, and Jim James are among the league's top 15 hitters according to the last statistics report. Arbic, in fact, is the league's leading hitter. Giants, who are enjoying their best hitting season, play their home games in Georgetown park Wednesday nights.

FLYING SHOES

Tony Suchan watches as Bill Collier launches a 'sure ringer' at the Georgetown Horseshoe Club pits. The Horseshoe Club sessions are held every Wednesday evening at the pits near the armory in Georgetown Park. Their season lasts until September. Gord Lane is the club's president. Tony Suchan is vice president, Al Prouse is secretary treasurer and Bill Collier is executive member.

Bob Brown follows through on a good toss.

Cycles, Hotel Vie As League Leaders

Georgetown Cycle & Sports can feel the hot breath of Exchange House on their neck this week. Cycle & Sports entered last week leading the Georgetown Industrial Baseball League by a comfortable margin spread but watched their margin shrink to a single point as Exchange House came on with a rush.

Cycle & Sports took it on the chin 17-7 from lowly Erin Monday while Exchange House gained ground by thumping Combines 9-1. General Fireproofing got two easy points when Benson & Hedges failed to a field a team Friday.

After Monday night's games, the standings looked like this:

Team	W	L	T	Pts
Cycle & Sports	5	3	2	12
Exchange House	5	2	1	11
Combines	4	5	1	9
General Fire	4	3	1	9
Benson & Hedges	3	3	1	7
Standard	2	6	0	4

SENIOR LEAGUE
Thursday, June 26
Young's Pharmacy 19
Barrager's Cleaners 6

A 7 run first inning was all Young's needed to withstand the short lived rally attempted by Barragers. Strongest batter for the Pharmacists was 2nd baseman Sue Stamp, who had 2 home runs and a double for 4 times at bat. Pitcher Jan Inglis hit the only other homer of the game.

Roxanna Sweezy was picked 1st game star for some strong defensive moves as catcher for Barragers. The 2nd game star was Shirley Martin for the winners.

Leone's Hairstyles 15
Sunnucks Real Estate 14

A last inning rally by Sunnucks almost blew the game for Leone's, who had it in the bag at 15-6. The flurry was hit off by Deb Caruso and her teammates continued to round the bases for 8 runs before Leone's tagged 3 out.

Sunnucks can be credited with a good team effort. Real Estate Toni Servos tagged the lone homer for the losers.

The win was also classed as an all out team showing, led by pitcher Laraine Godden, thus 12 stars for Leone's and an extra for Shelley Bond who ran a single into a home run.

Magnuson's Insurance 21
Blue Giant 16

The Insurance gals came from a 1st inning deficit to dwarf the Giants. The lone home run came off the bat of Magnuson's Diane Hennessey, pushing 3 across the plate ahead of her. The winning pitchers were Wendy Sher and Jennifer Linton.

The Giant's Patti Styles was chosen game star for some solid defensive playing and enthusiasm in the face of defeat.

JUNIOR LEAGUE
Tuesday, June 24
Beaver Lumber 27
Mardell's Hairstyling 8

Fourteen out of fifteen strikeouts meant another excellent night on the mound for Carolyn Barber. She proved to be unbeatable at the plate also. Carolyn belted 3 home runs for 4 at bat, and naturally was star of the game again. Teammates Margo Butler and Bev Roberts assisted in the drive to stay well ahead of Mardell's by each tagging one long ball.

Georgetown Upholstery 16
Shoprite 5-$100 Store 11

The Upholterers grabbed a 6-0 lead in the opening round and then just piled on the runs as these 2 undefeated teams met for the first time. Winning pitcher was Kathy Oprica, who also shared game star with fielder Sharlene Mahaffy. Pounding out homers for the winners were Kathy Oprica, Theresa Callaghan, and Lori Ann Sherk. The lone homer for Shoprite came off the bat of catcher Kerri Hegstrom.

Both teams entered the match looking for their first win, with the Cyclists barely squeaking through to the win column. While Murray's trailed all the way, they did manage a flurry of runs at one point to tie up the game, only to allow Cyclists 2 runs in the 5th again giving them the lead. Murrays could only put one more across the plate while holding Cycle and Sports hitless for the balance of the game.

The winning pitcher and game star was Vickie Marshall, also hurling a very credible game was losing pitcher Pam Little. All the home runs fell to the losers. Pam Little and Patti Holotuk each tagged one.

Zenith Tool & Die 8
Kinette Krusers 6

Zeniths continued on their undefeated streak, putting them in a 3 way tie with Georgetown Upholstery and Beaver Lumber for the league lead. Lyn McCristall was on the mound for the winners and Barb Curry for the Krusers. The game star was Judy Mack, 3rd base for Zeniths.

Superior Foods 24
Dairy Queen 3

10 runs in the 3rd. Once in the lead, they never looked back. Game star Pam Bryan lagged 2 balls for home runs for Superiors, while teammate Sharon Baralay was the winning pitcher.

A homer by Queens Pam Barrager counted for a large share of the Queens early lead and was the only homer they recorded.

Delwilton Tourney Draws 100 Golfers

Doug Vivian of Brampton shot a two-under-par 34 on the front nine to win low gross championship honours in the seventh annual Delwilton Golf Day at Georgetown Golf & Country Club last Monday.

Over 100 golfers competed in the tournament which was reduced to nine holes because of poor weather conditions. Second place low gross honours went to Mac Fancy with a 37. Pete Sinclair finished third with a 38 and Orville Blower was 4th with a 40.

Also sharing in the low gross prizes were John Donaldson, Yank Dale, Ron Turner, Des Bowell, J. Muirhead, R. Harwood, Ray Angus and Lorne Cunningham.

Mike Pullen's 70 took the top low net honours. Gord Robinson, Dwayne Hay, and John Fenn followed with low net 71s.

Jim Timleck, Rich Vivian;

Glen Girls Sail Win Six Games

Glen Williams' junior girls' softball team, coached by Joy Haines and managed by Joann Arnold, are riding along on top of the Tri-County Rural Softball junior girls league.

Matt Gowland, H. Dellow, Bob Skinner, D. Reid, J. Culber and E. McKinney split the other prizes.

A total of 24 prizes valued at $400 were shared by the golfers.

CONSERVATION WEEK PLANNED

The Credit-Valley Conservation Authority will join with 11 other conservation authorities in Ontario participating in Conservation Week from July 5 to 13.

Formed in 1954, the Credit Valley Conservation Authority is composed of 16 municipalities in the Credit River Valley from Orangeville in the north and Acton-Hillsburgh in the west to Lake Ontario at Port Credit. Total population in the Valley is 130,000 and a levy of about 90 cents per capita plus grants from the Department of Energy and Resources Management make up the working capital of the Authority.
