

Extra Hole Birdie Gives Hay Junior Tourney Title

A birdie on the first extra hole of sudden death play gave Dwayne Hay of Georgetown the junior championship at the 1st annual Junior Golf Tournament, held in conjunction with National Golf Week, at Acton Meadows.

Both Dwayne and Paul Presswood, also of Georgetown, fired brilliant rounds of 70, but Dwayne wrapped up first place by carding a three on the par-4 first hole, while Paul recorded it was not the first championship for Dwayne. For the last three years, he has been junior champion at Georgetown Golf and Country Club, and two years ago he played on the junior team, which represented Ontario against Quebec.

In the juvenile division Bob Predovich of Erin shot an 85 to win low gross. Low net honours went to Gary Saul, with a 70.

SOCCER NEWS

Five Weeks Rest Then Soccer Again

The season's first half closed this week leaving closely contested leagues, particularly in the Pee-Wee division, which could be won by any one of the seven teams.

Players can now have a five week rest from soccer and come back from the holidays ready for the fight for league cup honours.

The Bantam and Junior 'B' teams still have fixtures during this period, however, so soccer fans can still see a couple of games a week.

The association wishes to thank Mr. Eric Hooten for the gift of a refrigerator for the Cedarvale dressing rooms.

ATOMS
WEDNESDAY — Dynamos pulled the upset of the season when they defeated the league leading Flyers by 1-0 to start the final week of the season with a bang. Hero in the Dynamo win was goal scorer Donald Thompson. For Flyers, Tim Turner and Tony Kraus tried hard, but the overall team display of the Dynamos was the deciding factor.

FRIDAY — Lindsay Kennedy certainly ended the first half in great style. He scored the Astros to a convincing 3-1 win over Bobcats in a game highlighted by fine goalkeeping. Gary Thompson for Astros and Glen Albert for Bobcats both made numerous excellent saves. Paul Stephan scored the Bobcats goal and played a fine game.

MOSQUITOES
TUESDAY — Rangers and Tigers brought their game forward from Saturday and Rangers started out in a hurry, going in at half time with a 2-0 lead. At this point Tigers were outplayed, but in the second half they came back strongly with two goals by Colin Donaldson and pressed hard for a winner. Rangers, however, sewed up the points and undisputed possession of first place with a rather fortunate 3-2 win. Goals for Rangers came from C. Dawson, P. Watt and R. Clelland. Scott Beckett and Alfred Van Dyke were standouts for Tigers.

THURSDAY — Thursday saw two Mosquito games; the first featuring a 2-0 win by Rovers over a luckless Raiders team. Play was very even throughout but whereas Rovers took their opportunities, Raiders missed many clear-cut chances for goals, a fault they have had all season. Ray McMahon scored the Rovers goals and played a sound, constructive game along with Steven Henderson in goal. For Raiders, Kevin Harrison gave a much improved performance, while Scott Laughnan at left back played his best game of the season.

The second game of the evening featured a fantastic individual effort by Jim Bishop of Owls. He scored all of his sides goals in a 6-0 win over the unfortunate Torpedoes. Jim pounced on every small opportunity to record the highest individual score in one game in the association's history. Torpedoes tried very hard, but also have trouble finding the net. J. Sutherland and B. Wodhams gave good performances for them in this game.

SATURDAY — The final game was an exciting end to end affair as Cougars outscored Jaguars 5-2. Cougars took all their chances in the first half to build a commanding lead. Jaguars goals came from Kenny Flynn who scored two of the best goals seen this season. Starting in his own half each time, he left the Cougars defenceless well beaten in tremendous rushes. For Cougars Kent Kennedy scored a hat-trick and Dave Paterson and Sammy Watt singles.

PEE-WEES
WEDNESDAY — Carretal and Wolves played to an exciting 2-2 tie in their fight to get away from the league cellar. Both teams showed good ball control and the passing was excellent. There were many good performances but the coaches chose Terry Moffat and Mike Osborne for Wolves and Grant Pattullo and Martin Handcastle for Carretal as the outstanding players of the game.

FRIDAY — The 4-2 win by Beavers over Celtic featured another hat-trick by Dick Popiel and a goal by the tireless Beavers captain Paul Thompson who gives everything he has in every game. Celtic had fine performances from Al Gilmer with two goals, Steve Savage on defence and Chris Milne in goal. This win moves Beavers to within one point of the league leaders in a very tight Pee-Wee league.

BANTAM
The 'B' team played two games this week and finished on the winning side both times. On Tuesday night they entertained Streetsville and won 2-1 in a game where they had the majority of the plays but were guilty of missing many excellent chances.

Glen Girls Capture Softball Tournament

A team of Glen Williams junior girls coached by Joy Haines has won the Kinsmen Girls' Softball League tournament. The tourney was held Saturday in Georgetown Park.

The Glen girls' kicked Dairy Queen in the final thriller to chalk up their four straight victories without a defeat and earn the crown.

The eliminations went like this: Glen beat Georgetown Cycle and Sports 4-2. Moffat handled Hornby 6-2, and Georgetown Dairy Queens lashed Limehouse 25-4 in the first round.

In round two, Hornby downed Limehouse 11-6, Cycle & Sports dumped Dairy Queens 4-1, and Glen mauled Moffat 9-1.

The Glen had a bye in the next round which saw Cycle & Sports thrash Hornby 29-1, and Dairy Queen come back to beat Moffat 13-5.

It was Glen 6 and Cycle and Sports 4 in the semi final. The championship team is composed of Brenda Inglis, Frances Engleby, Marian Hancock, Maxine Kemshead, Kelly Duncan, Carol Kemshead, Kathy Klassen, Cindy Stafford, Wendy Stafford, Mary Jo Brenner, Sherry Fendley, and Bev Campbell.

All received individual trophies at the tourney's conclusion from tournament chairman Art Ellis of the Georgetown Kinsmen Club.

KART RACE RESULTS
Reid Walker, Jim Wallace, Gord Thompson and Bill MacCormack were each two-time winners at the regular Wednesday night North Halton Kart Club races last week.

Strangely, each of them won the heat and feature in their respective classes but couldn't earn a checkered flag in the semi-finals.

The kart races are held every Wednesday night at the club track on the Fifth Line of Esqueping near Limehouse.

Winners:
Junior Boys — Heat, Reid Walker; semi, Peter Haynes; feature, Reid Walker.
Class Three — Heat, Gord Thompson; semi, Will Hambrook; feature, Gord Thompson.
Class Four — Heat, Bill MacCormack; semi, Keith Hunter; feature, Bill MacCormack.
Class Five — Heat, Jim Wallace; semi, Bill Wilson; feature, Jim Wallace.
Powder Puff Derby — First, Sandra Cash; second, Diane Baxter; third, Goldie Coe.

HARRIS 5 HOLE WINNER

North Halton men members counted odd holes only at their regular men's nine tourney Thursday which accounted for such low scores as 19 which won low gross honours for Bob Harris. Jim Kennedy took the low net prize with a nine (9).

Other low gross prizes went to Jim Timpon, Ted Cutting, Don Curry, Harv Chappe, Jim Linton and Jim Jones.

Net prize winners included Tom Burgess, Gob Collier, John Monteth, Gord Campbell, Peter Oprica and John Stapleton.

Only net scores were counted in a Throw Out tourney the week before when golfers were allowed to discard their worst three holes. Ron Burton won with 12 1/2.

Also in the top ten were Bert Archer, Ken Ronald, Ken Allan, Archie Pollock, Bill McNally, John Monteth and Del Wallace.
