

Animal, Bird Paintings In Show by New Artist

The opening of a new art gallery in town, the Gordon Price Gallery, has brought a public debut with the Gordon Price gallery. Alan Warren, 94 Moore Park, saw a photograph in The Herald of the new art gallery owner, and decided to approach him with one of his paintings. The result will be a show for Alan Warren in the fall.

While he has been painting for his own enjoyment for years, workmanship, he feels prints should be made, rather than the original sold.

The Canadian Magazine of the Star Weekly is interested in this idea.

Mr. Warren is a technical illustrator with De Havilland Aircraft and came to Georgetown in December 1967. His son Daniel won the Fire Prevention poster contest held recently throughout the county.

Factory Wedding Unique Event in Owen Sound

What was to have been a quiet wedding turned into a full scale one in Owen Sound for a former Georgetown man.

Susan Patricia Byers, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mirvin Byers of Owen Sound and Albert William Taylor, 23, son of Mrs. Evelyn Peddle, 32 Charles Street, Georgetown, were married in June in the Whitaker Cable of Canada Ltd. plant there. They had planned to leave work that afternoon to be married in the Grey County courthouse.

Company officials heard of the plans and jokingly said they couldn't spare the time off. The manager and foreman closed the plant at three, set up a chapel, bought a wedding cake and arranged for the minister.

Rev. P. A. Scott of St. Thomas Anglican Church performed the ceremony. Susan had been working at the plant for over a year and Albert for the past four months.

The groom attended Wrigglesworth public school and a year of high school here, then attended school in Brampton and took his final high school years in Owen Sound.

Four Recent Weddings In St. John's Church

St. John's Anglican Church has been the scene of four weddings recently with Canon J. E. Maxwell officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Maxwell were married on June 20. She is the former Judy Williams, daughter of Jim and the late Mrs. Williams and Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell, Georgetown. They are living in Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rodgers were married on July 4 with a reception at the church followed by a dance in Limehouse Memorial hall. Mrs. Rodgers is the former Donna Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and Wayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rodgers, all of Stewarttown. They are living at Victoria.

July 19 was the wedding day for David Smith, a former resident here and a member of the church choir for several years, and his bride, Tricia McBain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McBain, Georgetown. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Georgetown. A reception was held at North Halton Golf and Country Club. David and Tricia will make their home in Montreal.

Last Saturday, July 26, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Grieve were the happy couple. The former Judy Walker, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Walker of Stewarttown and the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Grieve of Bramford, had a reception afterwards in Esquimes Community hall. They will be living in Bramford.

On behalf of the village folks we wish each couple the very best for the future.

The 'store' in part of the Master Feeds mill has recently been demolished, and at the present time they are in process of building a new, larger store on the same site. The recent heavy rain has caused some delay in the progress of the new building.

The old store building was part of Stewarttown's historic past. Walter Lawson moved it from across the road a number of years ago. It was the kitchen part of the house on the site where now stands the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lawson. The main part of the house was moved across the pond and is now owned by D. G. Lawson.

STEWARTTOWN

Mrs. H. P. Lawson, at present is a patient in Georgetown hospital has many friends and neighbours wishing her a speedy recovery. Among her visitors this week were two grandsons, Paul Lawson from Milwaukee and Peter Lawson from Kingston.

The heavy rainfall on Monday caused a number of road washouts — a bad spot at the south end of the 7th Line bridge is quite dangerous. County workmen reported a foot of water on the 7th Line below Mileham's during the height of the storm. This gradually disappeared from the face of the road but formed small lakes in the fields towards Ashgrove.

Some reserves are worthless, mere slum areas. Some are extremely valuable as potential resort areas. How does everybody get a fair share if these lands are handed back to the Indians themselves, for disposal as they see fit?

You're not going to settle that one in five years, Pierre Elliott.

The Black Plague. So do the Indians.

For the latter, the Canadian government's new policy is the smoke screen to cover failure. For the young Indians, dissolution of the reserves is the burning your boats behind you. For the middle-aged and elderly, it is terrifying.

Indian leader Wilmer Nadjwon of Croke, put it succinctly if over-simply, when he said the new legislation would allow an Indian to sell his property for two bottles of wine. That doesn't solve a problem. It creates one.

The term B'nai B'rith means Sons of the Covenant.

he will be responsible for ensuring that every property is assessed at market value and that assessment is uniformly applied. He will make necessary audits and inspections of the five regional assessment offices.

"These appointments mark the first time a provincial department has appointed so many senior officers to work with such autonomy outside of Queen's Park," McKeough said.
