Investigation into the 14 traffic accidents reported this week led to charges being laid against 8 persons, of the 14, only 4 were injured. The predominant cause of these mishaps was careless driving, other causes were improper turns and improper passing. Total property damage was estimated to be approximately $11,380.

This driving tip comes to us from the Ontario Motor League. If your car should suddenly slide onto the shoulder, keep a firm grip on the steering wheel and steer straight ahead. The Ontario Motor League warns you to gradually slow down without any attempt to brake quickly. Never try to get back onto the pavement at a high speed.
