

Kulfam Automotive Centre Is Strictly Family Affair

A new engine rebuilding shop opened on the highway, July 1st, on the former Mayflower Movers site.

Kulfam Automotive Centre is the name with Kulfam meaning the Kulakowsky family. And quite a family it is. George the father, and owner of the business, has seven sons, three of whom are helping him in the business right now.

He is not new to this business, having operated the Rexdale Automotive Centre for 8 years, and been trained in every facet in his trade since he was a sixteen year old boy in the Ukraine. He came to Canada in 1952.

They hope to move into town soon. "But we need a big house", commented Mr. Kulkowsky, "and they're not that easy to find."

NORVAL

Bible School is Summer Activity of Norval Youth

The Norval Interdenominational Church Vacation School started on Wednesday, August 6, for all children 4 - 12 years of age, with Rev. Walter Ridley as supervisor.

The younger children meet at the Presbyterian Church and the junior and primary groups meet at the United Church. The Vacation School will be held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, ending on Wednesday, August 27, with a parent's night where work will be displayed and a short program put on by the children. The theme is 'The Life of Jesus.' Each day will be divided into 3 parts of film strips, Bible stories and hymns, craft periods and games.

There will be nature hikes with each pupil making a scrap book of plants etc., and Peter Pomeroy will be in charge of some ball games.

Mrs. Peter Pomeroy and Mrs. Ron Moffat are in charge of the beginners at the Presbyterian Church. They are assisted by Betty June, Laidlaw, Karen Robinson, Sheri Pomeroy and Nadeen Lefebvre.

In the Primary group Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mrs. Downey are in charge assisted by Linda Ridley, Diane Whaley, Helen Dunlop and Mary Pettingill.

Mrs. I. Reynolds and Miss Susan Finnamore assisted by Beth Laidlaw, Donna Reynolds and Mrs. T. Pettingill, are in charge of the junior group. Barrie Dunlop and Paul Laidlaw will assist in sports.

Children may attend the vacation school at any time. It is not necessary to be enrolled right from the start so children away on holidays for part of the time may attend when they return home. Perfect attendance is not required. The aim is to provide a Christian fellowship with study, fun, crafts and sports for children who find it hard to know what to do during the holidays.

Says Thanks for Neighbourly Act

56 Duncan Drive

Dear Sir:
A big 'thank you' to the neighbour, who, on his own accord and hearing of our flooded basement—same to my home around supper time.

He piped the water out of the basement with his own hose and all he would accept from my husband was a 'thank you.' He resides at 72 Duncan Drive and all I can say is it's awfully nice to know there's still people like this man around.

—Mrs. J. C. C. Orvan

This was the first camp ever held at Cedar Glen and was sponsored by Dufferin & Peel Presbytery. Rev. R. Walter Ridley was responsible for getting the leaders for the junior camp. All 3 camps for the summer are booked full with over 50 children for each camp.

Planning to attend the intermediate girls camp from Norval are Janet Johnson and Bonnie Crawford. Kathy Johnson will again be a counsellor.

A speedy recovery is extended to little 6 year old David Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson, RR 4, Georgetown.

David underwent an operation in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, following a serious injury suffered when he fell while riding a bicycle.

—Mrs. Ed McLean
