Norton-Davidson Wedding Ceremony in Knox Church

White snapdragons decorated Knox Presbyterian Church on July 12 when Rev. Norman Young officiated at the marriage of Elizabeth Ann Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Davidson, 5 Parkview Blvd. and Peter Ivan Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Norton of Glen Williams.

Mrs. Bernice Gowland was organist and Mrs. Harry Greig sang O Perfect Love, Wedding Prayer and No Man is an Island.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony, wore a full length A-line gown of sheer silk organdie, the hem finished with a border of French silk eyelet. The gown had full sleeves with deep eyelet cuffs and rolled eyelet collar, the dress forming a train. She wore a bouffant veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath with trailing ivy.

Mrs. James Blair was matron of honour. Mrs. David Shrubsole, Virginia Terry and Pamela Norton were bridesmaids and Yvette Carey was flower girl. They wore full length gowns of georgette over taffeta, full skirted with empire waists and puff sleeves. Completing their ensembles they wore white picture hats and carried baskets of harmonizing carnations and white pinocchio mums. Mrs. Blair and Miss Carey were in lavender, Mrs. Shrubsole in yellow, Miss Terry in green and Miss Norton in peach. Timothy Haines was groom-man; Laddie Haines, Garnet (Bud) Haines and William Terry were ushers.

Receiving afterwards at the Georgetown Golf & Country Club, Mrs. Davidson wore an aqua ensemble of imported cotton lace with matching hat of sheer tulle, white accessories and a corsage of white shasta daisies. The groom's mother also received and wore a petal pink crepe ensemble with white ribbon lace and white accessories and a corsage of blue and pink pinocchio mums.

Guests attended from Switzerland, Chicago, Detroit, Calgary, Noranda, Ridgeway, Wallaceburg, Glencoe, London, Galt, Thorold, Port Credit, Cookville, Toronto, Georgetown and Glen Williams.

Following a honeymoon trip to Jamaica Mr. and Mrs. Norton have taken up residence in Brampton where the groom is employed with Consumers Gas Company. The bride is a public school teacher with Peel County Board of Education.

On July 6th, Mrs. Davidson was hostess at a trousseau tea for her daughter. Fellow staff members of Forest Glen public school, Cookville, had a shower as did Mrs. Jack Runham and Mrs. Dennis Brown of Parkview Blvd. Mrs. M. Terry and Miss Virginia Terry entertained at a shower; Mrs. Thomas Haines had a shower at her home in Glen Williams. Mrs. James Blair, Mrs. David Shrubsole, Miss Virginia Terry and Miss Pamela Norton combined for another shower. In Glencoe, Mrs. Kenneth Davidson had a shower for her niece.

Markham, Brampton Outings On Branch Pipe Band Agenda

by Ralph Hawes

Doug Weir, as far as the members of the branch are concerned, is a piper in the branch Pipe Band, but from where we stand, Doug seems to be a very devoted member with a keen interest in every aspect of the branch. This is the reason he will be assisting cartoonist and layout man Chuck Hennessey and yours truly with the bulletin which will be issued at the end of this month.

Doug was giving us a run down of the pipe band activities. The Branch has a band to be proud of, not only do they play at every function they are invited to, but they also attend many parades as spectators seeking experience, and the style and posture of more experienced bands.

The pipe band members were at the Markham highland games on July 19, and were impressed by the number of juvenets in the bands. Kitchener Legion who won the third class contest, had boys and girls in the band around twelve years of age, as did the winners of the second class, Wilmington, Delaware, USA.

The fellows from Georgetown were most impressed by these games, especially with the massed bands. Clan MacFarlane, St. Catharines won the 1st class, as they did at Port Credit, the following week, Knightswood, Scotland Juvenile Pipe Band won the second class, with the Kitchener Legion winning the 3rd class once again. At these games Doug was again greatly impressed by the fine performance of the piping and drumming of three youngsters of Knightswood, Scotland.

The next event for the local pipe band will be at Brampton on Saturday, August 9. While Doug Weir is being kept busy cellent charcoal sketches, so maybe the artistry runs in the family.

Being independently constructive, rather than relying on commercial ideas, appears to be Bert's artistic philosophy. He even shunned the idea of buying his tools, preferring to make his own mallet and chisel.

He also prefers to leave his wood sculptures in their natural states, without any varnishes or lacquers that may spoil the true grain of the wood.

"The only piece that I've stained is the Biafran woman. I used permanganate potash, which is commonly used as a dye, on her."

He has spent almost all of his adult years in Ontario's primary school education system, having taught in Hespeler, St. Catharines, Ottawa and Grimsby.

"I taught school for 35 years, and I decided it was time to get out" Bert sighed. "I'm not retirement age, and I could still be teaching, but this is much easier," he said, referring to his casual relaxing days.

"There were many changes coming in the educational field which I wasn't completely in agreement with."

"There's a little too much pushing in the education business."

With all of his leisure time, perhaps we can expect some conventional, but prize-winning cherrywood sculptures at the 102 Festival of Art from the man who lives on Cherrywood Avenue.

with the Branch band, he intends to find time to help produce the branch bulletin each month. There were very few suggestions placed in the box for a name for the branch bulletin, it was found the names that were suggested were not suitable, consequently the committee will name the bulletin.

With the national commodity becoming available at the branch last Saturday, David Bowman is to be a very busy man this week purchasing an ice making machine and dispensers for liquor and the many types of mixes. Incidentally, we were wrong again last week, it's a private club license, 4th time lucky, and right we hope!

Last Friday night was a well organized night. Joe had his dart shoot set up and on schedule. The prizes were all roosters and these poor birds ended up in the homes of yours truly, J. Valentine, A. Bulmer, two to R. Timpson, two to M. Russell, G. Telford, S. Park, B. Lantz.

That bad, Harold Bagham, the would be Englishman from Wales, was at the Branch Friday with guest from Wales Betty Gaspell, sister and wife of Jack Gaspell of Luton, England. Harold's sister and brother-in-law are in Canada for a month's vacation and feel a desire to stay in Georgetown, which is easy to understand.

Russ Stephens and Ormie Carter ran their five draw bill with Nora Tuck, L. Bailey, H. Russell, and B. Fife being the lucky ones.

Once again, Pat, Ways and Means Chamberlain, chewed his nails at the early part of the evening on Saturday, but finished the evening feeling quite happy with the big crowd at the dance, with the daylight saving, people seem reluctant to arrive early.

Andy Mandarino won the big one while the door prizes went to Steve Patterson and Bill McMurdie.

Chiropractor Attends American Convention

Gerald W. Corbett, D.C., Georgetown chiropractor will attend a convention of the International Pain Control Institute in Kansas City, Missouri, Aug. 8 to 10.

Delegates to the meeting will correlate their own clinical research with recently published medical findings in the orthopedic, coronary, and respiratory fields, said Mr. Corbett. "The study will focus on nerve root compression and the manner in which the resulting pain and other symptoms can simulate such disorders as heart, lung, and bronchial diseases; abdominal distress and so-called sciatica."

Mr. Corbett also remarked that computers and other space age electronic devices now pre-empt accurate, scientific control and checking to a degree never before possible in research.
