GLEN MEN GO AHEAD IN ROUND ROBIN

Glen Williams is the only team of three involved in an Inter-Country Fastball League round robin playoff which has yet to taste defeat.

The Glen won their second game in two starts Tuesday night on their home diamond when they pounded Hillsburgh 14-4 in front of another large crowd.

Friday they took Norval 4-3 in their first test in the round robin which became necessary when the Glen, Norval and Hillsburgh finished the schedule deadlocked for the last playoff spots behind Guelph and Rockwood.

Norval has one victory, a 7-5 decision over Hillsburgh Sunday. Hillsburgh had thrashed Norval 25-4 in the series opener last Wednesday.

Each team will play two games with each of the other two clubs.

THIRD YEAR STRAIGHT GLEN SQUIRT CHAMPS

Glen Williams Squirts the host team in a weekend Squirts softball tournament emerged the champions when the dust settled Sunday. They thumped Hornby 'A' 9-2 in the tourney final Sunday after whipping Kilbride by the same score earlier in the day.

The dust was actually turned to mud Saturday pushing the tourney into Sunday but not before two first round games were completed. In them Kilbride took Drumquin 12-3, and Hornby A clobbered Omagh 31-0.

In another first round game, played Sunday, Hornby B trimmed Lowville, 17-6.

Glen Williams was given a bye into the semi-finals on the strength of their first place finish in league play.

Hornby A reached the final by beating Hornby B 9-5 in their semi-final match.

This marks the third year in a row that Glen Williams has won the championship. They are coached by John Haines, Don Hancock and Bob Heaton.

League play finished with Glen Williams first, Kilbride second, Hornby A third, Hornby B fourth, Drumquin fifth, Omagh sixth and Lowville 7th.

Umpiring the championship tourney were Jim Stamp, Bernie Dore, Fred Pichl, and Paul Barber.

VACATION ENDING
Less than two weeks and summer vacation is over for students and teachers. Schools open on Tuesday, September 2.

BALL MINORS SET FOR OBA FIRST ROUND

Georgetown Minor Baseball Club, unsuccessful in their bids for league honours, go chasing Ontario Baseball Association glory now.

The Juniors open their OBA series Saturday here against Ocella and play there the following Sunday.

Midgets go to St. Thomas Sunday and host their opposition the following Saturday.

Bantams, PeeWees and Tykes had not been notified of their OBA schedule at press time.

INDUSTRIAL SEMI FINALS UNDER WAY

Erin and Benson & Hedges have jumped in front in two of three Georgetown Industrial Fastball series which got underway this week.

Erin outslugged Standard Products 10-8, Wally Brennan the winning pitcher while on another diamond Benson & Hedges edged Georgetown Cycle & Sports 4-3. Ferguson took the latter victory.

General Fireproofing and Exchange House start their series later this week. They'll play a best of seven series while the other clubs complete their three out of five sets.

LIFETIME PRODUCTION
SPRUCE AVENUE CAROM MAID, owned by D.H. McCaig & Son, Norval, and bred by R.T. Sayles, Paris, Ontario, has just been issued a Lifetime Production certificate by the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club.

NEW LOCATION FOR LOCAL LAW OFFICE

Ron Dodokin and Walter Sopinka, who opened a law office in the Sidmac building on James Street three years ago, moved this week to a new location on Young St.

The former home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison has been completely remodelled to create offices on the main floor for the firm and an apartment upstairs.

Their former office has been taken over by Georgetown Water Commission which has had temporary quarters in the municipal building since the commission was created earlier this year.

The partners graduated in 1963. Mr. Sopinka from University of Toronto law school and Mr. Dodokin from Osgoode Hall and they were called to the bar in 1965. Before attending university, Mr. Dodokin graduated from Bathurst Heights Collegiate in Toronto and Mr. Sopinka from Saltfleet High School, Stoney Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodokin and their children Robin Ann and Tracey Elizabeth live at 15 Park Ave. The Sopinkas, with children Jennifer Kim, Anastasia and Alexander, live at 20 Princess Anne Drive.
