phoning 877-2201. Buying or The Herald is where you will find the results you

GEORGETOWN HERALD

The Home Newspaper for Georgetown and District

by council.

a few weeks ago.

Roberts to study the problem.

$5.00 per year; Single Copy Price: Ten Cents

Printing - Publishing

The Georgetown Herald has served Georgetown and District as Printers and Publishers for over a century offering the best in fine printing and new

Second Class Mail Registered Number -0943

Return Postage Guaranteed

Georgetown, Ontario, Thursday, August 28th, 1969

Set New Record, Now Make Indianapolis Bid A wild orange Cougar driven The previous record in the strong, of Armstrong's Garage. Not content, the intrepid

meet in Winnipeg, August 3. great mechanic" Dave Arm-them all.

Canadian - American National share of the credit to "a Quinte. So far this one topped Frank and Dave, but the fifth by Walt Dixon of North Halton H/Stock automatic drag racing It's been a busy summer for threesome are heading for In-Motor Sales, and owned by mile. The Valk - Dixon com- scoring wins at the New York if they can bring home the Frank Valk also of town, est-bination cut it to 13.15 seconds. State Spring National meet, National Championship. ablished a new record at the Driver Dixon gives a big and again at Cayuga and the first year of racing for Walt Dixon with Cougar in which he established new class stock dragging record.

$25,000 Parking Project First Step in Downtown Improvement

Property owners and merchants The committee considers im- $25,000, this could be hard sur-, three other downtown locat in the downtown commercial proved parking as first priority. faced, marked and lighted, he ions. area will be polled and asked to share in a plan which would improve the present free parking area behind one business gested improvements to Main Street and its store fronts.

Approval of a plan presented at a Chamber of Commerce meeting last Wednesday, was expressed by a majority of about 25 downtown businesses represented at the meeting held at North Halton Golf & Country Club.

They heard Toronto architect Paul Martel suggest street and building improvements, illustrated with slides. Tree planting in the Main Street islands, banners and harmonizing colour schemes for store fronts, elimination of numerous hanging ments.

meeting this year, at which a visible for several miles. committee was chosen to prepare a report.

Tracey Barrager composed the approaching Georgetown Fire committee, spoke of the need Department trucks.

Mr. Mackenzie outlined an said, if property owners who improvemnt plan for the pres- will benefit will agree to pay include legal fees and a fee to been sent to Rud Whiting, MP ent large municipal parking the cost. This would be on a Mr. Martel for providing a mas- for Halton. area which runs behind the five year basis, added to the ter plan of development. block, plan future parking in block bounded by Halton & tax bill and based on assessother downtown locations, and Peel Trust Co. and the McGibprivately owned, is under long on a building's assessment.

provide a master plan of sug-bon Hotel. The land, though from $50 upwards, depending interview merchants and prop-

Later phases to be decided ed council will be approached to off again, leaving only the 28 Concession 2, be closed and surroundings and frequent Park this weekend, but their At a cost of no more than would be parking facilities in tackle the project.

Line Bessey Barn

the 7th Line of Esquesing just red. late Tuesday night. The red Bessey. He had spoken at an earlier glow in the midnight sky was The barn and most of the came of it.

Chairman Ernie Sykes, who were asleep when it started dicate which purchased it with Charlie Crimes, Bud Buck- and weren't aware of the from Mr. Bessey last December. farmhouse during the blaze so wald, Sandy Mackenzie and flames until awakened by the for improvments to meet com- Mr. Bessey told The Herald petition from district shopping he looked out the window when he heard the sirens to discover

Council Unhappy, Dispute Apartment Veto by OMB

44-suite apartments at Moun- use perhaps row housing at the shed and away from the tainview Road South has been less density than the apart- heat. vetoed by the Ontario Munici- ments. However, in view of Firemen stayed at the scene pal Board.

And according to comment at it was refusing the application. puts the town's new official Hyde termed the decision. "The plan in jeopardy. The plan, OMB has washed out two years just approved by the Dept of of work by our planning board, TOT Municipal Affairs, designates and the decision is exactly opthis as a high density resident- posite to that of the Dept. of QO/ ial area. Until now, the land, Municipal Affairs." L. abutting Mountainview has been Aler Investments, owner of mented Cr. Harry Levy. the two acre site, was opposed "You see the power of the in its apartment plan by a OMB" said Mayor Emmerson. Georgetown debenture issue of number of residents who wish "We look to the DMA for guid- $206,000 for road improveed the land to remain in its ance. Now I wonder who's run- ments. commercial designation. A ma- ning who." jority of council and planning board members supported the Aler plan.

that it believes the area would official plan is now in jeopardy. at 9%.

former Harry Bessey farm on had turned his yard a bright mer, Sam Mileham happened to number seven in the steadily tained only a small quant- the Bessey barn. growing list of barn razings ity of hay and straw and a A north wind carried sparks when they sought permission to when it burned to the ground small tractor belonging to Mr. over the Mileham barn present-rest of the farm is owned by a The Bessey barn was built in summer tourist camp. Origin of the fire is unknown Mr. Codispotti of Italy. He the 1870's Mr. Bessey said. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bessey bought it in March from a syn-

the farm including the farmhouse and a shed. Mr. Bessey told The Heral the shed, perilously close to the barn, would have gone up as well had Georgetown firefighters been not so prompt. It contained some lumber and other pieces of farm equipment. Some of the first to arrive on the scene pushed Mr. Bessey's Planned construction of two be suitable for multiple family car and another tractor out of strong opposition by residents, until 3 a.m. almost a full four

Monday's council meeting, this "An assinine ruling" Cr. Ern Would Pay $96.

That the inflationary spiral "We might as well have no reserved for commercial pur-planning board if this sort of is still going upwards was inthing is going to happen" com- dicated Monday when council received a letter from a bond firm, indicating it would be interested in handling a possible

Bell, Gouinlock, which has Council voted to write both purchased several previous degovernment agencies, asking benture issues, offered $96 per that the ruling be reconsidered hundred dollars face value for In its decision, the OMB said and pointing out that the town's a ten year issue with interest

A large empty barn on the the reflection from the flames hours after a neighbouring farglance out his window to see but when you've worked in and ship. around a place that long you The reeve retorted, "That still hate to see it going up in camp was there long before the Council vetoed the road clos-are under the jurisdiction the federal government.

field continues to operate.

be sent to Dr. Brown. An emphatic "No" was the answer given Mr. and Mrs. John south of Stewarttown became The big, 80' x 50' barn con- flames licking from one end of Wood, owners of "The Breezes" camping area near Fairy Lake, operate a year round trailer ing a second threat but nothing camp in Esquesing Township. At present they operate

Mrs. Bessey stayed in the when Mrs. Wood asked how the sure there is access to the Tramping the site gave the er grades in the school trailer camp in Norval operated lake. The Besseys kept 2.5 acres of she wouldn't have to watch. if there was a by-law prohibit-> smoke," said her husband who bylaw, in fact before we were ing with only Cr. Ken Marshall themselves the campers roundhas farmed there for 42 years. born."

last week added to almost fifty to avoid future flooding.

spoke at Monday's meeting, re- fects three areas - Weber-Del- dominal injuries. presenting a number of area rex, John Street E., and Shelresidents, and said she was ley Street.

damage to a number of east residents are concerned, wheth on the weekend. end residences is being sought er they suffered damage or not, and will appreciate any action which can be taken. Monday they engaged engineering consultants Philips &

HWY CRASHES

REDIR

past month flooded basements years occurrence and another per hour. in several homes, resulting in a once in 25 years. It's a sad coina number of damage claims cidence that they came so close which have been submitted to together." the town's insurance firm. Nine He assured Mrs. Smith that

Complains Rosslake Flying School Noisy, Dangerous at $1,000.

Brown read at Esquesing coun- round camp without a license" cil Monday night, Rosslake fly- stated the reeve. ing field was termed both noisy and dangerous. He claimed seasoned pilots considered that from the Department of Tourfield dangerous, and insisted ism and Information. it was impossible to carry on a "They can't issue licenses in conversation in normal tones when the planes were in the our township" commented the reeve. "This is for a summer tourist camp," he stated after Dr. Brown stated he and looking at it, "but no-one can a 1965 Plymouth and '961 Olds Crescent, owned by Georgetown some neighbours had spoken to give you a license for a perm-collided on the same street at Water Commission, collided in Darcy McKeough, Minister of apent year round camp in our the plaza entrance doing $850 front of the high school on Municipal Affairs, who told township because there's a in property damage and send- Guelph Street resulting in $275 them it was the responsibility by-law prohibiting them." of the local council. He also

"These people have no place promised action to have his assessment reduced if the flying to go," said Mrs. Wood. "How would you like it if you had no place to go. "I'd have a place In conclusion he pointed out to go," replied the reeve amid The $25,000 maximum would that a copy of the letter had the laughter of the council.

"Sorry, no" was the official answer ending the discussion, Reeve George Currie said neighbour of Dr. Brown's, Al-

port stating that all flying fields the reeve. "Somebody wants one closed every meeting, and it's always for straight gain." He Copies of these letters will pointed out this was a town. gether and came up with Fireship road running to Fairy Lake subdivision hinged on annexa- roast. tion by Acton, reeve George Curric retorted, "The town of thing, we represent the people of Esquesing." The argument became heated Conservation Authority to make ment on adjacent land.

ey they spent dredging it."

in favour.

Three Serious Accidents Within 33 Hours After Speed Limit Upped

and $5,000 in property damage Erwin, both of Toronto, suffer-An answer to flooding prob happy to see that council is tak- crashes on Guelph Street in and faces and were taken to lems which have twice caused ing action. She said all area the C orgetown Market area hospital in a police cruiser.

gineers have told us that one had been raised early Friday plaza at about 11.25 p.m. Two heavy downpours in the storm would be a once in fifty afternoon from 30 to 40 miles

Most spectacular of the three was one in which two 1966 Pontiacs came together at the Guelph - Sinclair corner send more letters were forwarded everything possible will be done ing the driver of one, Wilfred lightly lightly and a 1958 Chev driven by Mile R. Bradbury of Fort Erie Cr. Sandy Mackenzie termed hospital with fractured ribs, Mrs. M. Smith, 32 Weber Dr., it a complex problem which af-pelvis and right knee and ab-

> The Bradbury car was a total wreck. Police placed its damage at $1800 and damage to other car driven by Howard F. Martel of 4 Byron St.

The accident happened just shortly after Saturday midnight. In a letter from Dr. E. W., "You can't operate a year

"But I have a license," rep car crossed to the opposite side ning doing $650 damage. lied Mrs. Wood showing one of the highway after impact, coming to rest on the north shoulder.

> Constable Charlie Harrison investigated.

ing two women to hospital. in property damage.

Four persons were injured; Bonnie Turcott, and Helen resulted from three violent ed severe bruises to their legs

They were passengers in The collisions, at the Mount- car driven by Stephen Turcoft, ainview and Sinclair intersec- of Toronto which collided with tions and at the plaza entrance a car driven by Elizabeth Lied-"It's no consolation, I know" were all within a stretch of er of 57 Raylawn Cres., as it said Mayor Emmerson. "But en- road on which the speed limit started a left turn into the

A 12 day old infant, John Pierre Dumont, was taken to hospital with unknown injuries Friday afternoon when a 1968 Olds driven by David R. Reynolds of R. R. 1, Georgetown Lisette Dumont of Acton met at the Guelph-Mountainview

Constable Earl Andress placed damage at $1200 to the Reynolds car and $100 to the Dum-

Other accidents during the week brought the property damage total up to the $6,000

Cars driven by John Henry Dafoe of Orangeville and Mal-The Bradbury car overturn colm Clark of Delrax Blvd. coled and came to rest on a lawn lided on Maple Ave. East near at 257 Guelph St. The Martel Deltacraft Mfg. Co. Friday mor-

And Tuesday morning a transport truck driven by Jack Jardine of Kitchener and owned by Kingsway Transport, and a 1969 Chev van driven by Ray-A little over an hour earlier mond Mills of 92 McIntyre anent year round camp in our the plaza entrance doing $850 front of the high school on

Campers Roast Corn

Campers by tradition love to ing campfire songs A request from solicitor Al. sit around an evening campfire. John Booth. ton Breckon, claimed a plane do Braida representing Cecil They are also nomadic createrty owners, and if the neces- had landed 25 feet within Nellis, that an unopened road ures tending to flit from park well represented at the CFCF sary majority approval is secur- his fence line, but had taken allowance between lots 27 and to park, their appetite for new National Convention at Innisfil conveyed to Mr. Nellis was re- changes of scenery forever season won't end there. A club road for places unknown.

bers of the local Canadian Fa- Cotta. mily Campers Federation affiliate, put those two traits to Staggered Classes flies' for their club moniker This Month Saturday when they gathered When the lawyer pointed out at the home of member Bob For Centennial that approval of this proposed Crawford, Norval, for a corn

The corn roast, the first official outing for the club since Acton wants to annex every it came into being earlier this Grade seven students will at-Cr. Ken Marshall contended Campsite, Mr. Crawford's camp dents from 12.45 until 5 p.m. it was up to the Credit Valley park project under develop- Since Centennial is a senior 11 families, including 33 child-"They sure should" comment- ren, a sufficient appetite to held up the large addition "The barn wasn't ours any more ing trailer camps in the town- ed deputy reeve Tom Hill, consume 15 doz. cobs of corn. which is currently being built, "Especially after all the mon- The cups of cold drinks and cof- but principal, Howard Allan fee went down uncounted.

ed out the evening by by sing-

The deputy clerk, Delmar jected by Esquesing council. putting them back on the campout has been planned for the weekend of September 13 French, then read two letters "We're getting a bit canny from the Department of Trans- about road closings" remarked bers of the local Canadian Fa- Cotta.

Centennial school will operate on shifts, when school op-summer, gave the campers a tend classes from 8 a.m. till chance to inspect Pine Valley 12.15 p.m, and Grade eight stupublic school, there are no oth-Delays in construction have hopes the staggered classes can After picking a name for be dropped after a month. The increased enrolment, from 313 in June to 415 registered at the moment, makes the shifts necessary. As a rule, some unexpected students show up every registration day. The number of teachers has increased also from 11 to 20.

81.4% Pass in Summer School

The overall passing rate at Halton County summer school this year was 81.4 per cent, 0. A Gilmore, superintendent of instduction for the Halton County Board of Education toldboard of trustees last week.

He said the total number of subject registrations was 681. which reflected approximately 460 students.

Analysis of the exact number of students and other aspects of summer school has not yet been completed and will be presented at the next board meeting, he said:

Results were mailed to this 1966 Pontiac was wrecked in one of three violent students' schools on The driver was taken to hospital with serious injuries when motor accidents on Guelph Street on the week-end.