

Rally Day, Church School Classes Start New Season

It was Rally Day for the Sunday Schools in the village on Sunday, Sept. 14th. At Norval United Church-Rally Day was observed by the Sunday school pupils attending the morning service and assisting in the service.

Sam Lagerquist gave the opening prayer, Doug Enman read the scripture lesson from the Old Testament and Kathy Hyatt and Helen Dunlop read responsively the scripture lesson from the New Testament. Shelly Laidlaw read a story "The Little Gray House" and Joy Harrison read a prayer. All the children read together the hymn "We would See Jesus" and later in the service the children sang "Jesus Bids Us Shine." Kathy Hyatt, Helen Dunlop, Shelly Laidlaw and Joy Harrison assisted by Mrs. Garet Laidlaw and Gordon Laidlaw sang a couple of songs - "Where Has My Model Class" and "The New Church School." The Sunday School superintendent, Gordon Laidlaw, gave a short talk. Barrie Dunlop and Elgin Hyatt took up the collection. And the Junior choir sang during the service. Following the service the pupils registered for their classes.

At the morning service of Norval Presbyterian Church attendance diplomas were presented by Clerk of Session Albert Hunter to the Sunday school pupils. A Sunday school attendance diploma was presented to Cathy Little, Billy Archdekin, Karen Cunningham and Marilou Davis. Robert Hakes Diplomas were presented to Kevin Donaldson, Luanne Reid, Mark Cunningham, Douglas McClure, Billy Davis and Jamie Reid. 2nd year seals were presented to Douglas Donaldson and Carol Little; 3rd year seals to Roy McClure, Barry Little and Sam McClure. Fourth year seals to Laurie Robinson, Lynn Lee, Lemmer McClure, and Diane Robins.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mrs. Wm. Hamilton and son Drew, 66 Prince Charles Drive were in Britain this summer where they visited with Mrs. Hamilton's mother Mrs. H. Green in Dartford, Kent and other relatives in England and Scotland, including Mrs. Hamilton's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. Culver of Abbey Wood, London. The Culvers are former Georgetown residents. During their stay they had a trip across the channel to France on the new hovercraft.

Mrs. Katherine Cortaro, 11 Ewing Street, was guest of honour at a family reunion at Bayside Marine, Trenton. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Smith, Marilyn and Richard and Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, all from London, and Mr. and Mrs. James Preston, Hornby, with their family. Mrs. E. Segar and daughters provided the bounteous repast and it was a perfect setting beside the waters of the Bay of Quinte.

The president, Mrs. C. Anderson was in the chair and opened the meeting with a poem "A Good Creed." The roll call was answered with a verse of service. Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie gave the dedicatory prayer. Mrs. Leslie Young read the scripture lesson and Mrs. R. Duncanson led in prayer. Mrs. Art VonZurben gave the chapter from the study book - on New Acts of Missions in the 20th century. Some of the new acts are coffee parties, movies, modern hymns and swinging music. Mrs. Roy Thompson closed the meeting with prayer.

During the business plans were made for the fall Thanksgiving meeting to be held in the church on Wednesday, October 1st with the special speaker being Rev. Alex Zeldman, director of Scott Mission, Toronto. He has recently returned home from a trip to Biafra.

Members were reminded of the Brampton Presbyterian Fall Rally to be held in Georgetown Presbyterian Church on September 21st.

A pleasant evening was spent in Limehouse Memorial hall on Friday when a vacuum cleaner was presented to Mr. and Mrs. James Ruddell (nee Susan Smith) by Bert Benton. Mrs. Jack Lawson read an address on behalf of the community, after Mrs. Bert Benton had called the couple to the platform. Both expressed their thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piel and Mr. Harold Karn provided music for dancing and Mrs. Jack Crichton was floor manager. Lunch was served late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Karn visited in London on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benton and Mr. T.H. Price visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Grunlees at Campbellville on Sunday and attended the service at St. David's Presbyterian Church, when Rev. Dr. E. H. Jackson, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada spoke on the Nigeria-Biafra conflict. He assisted in the rededication of the newly decorated church sanctuary and the opening and dedication of the new manse.

At St. Paul's Anglican church, Norval, two babies were baptized on Sunday, September 14th by Rev. R. Bugle. The babies were George Donald Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey of Norval, and Janet Lynn Strathee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strathee of Georgetown.

Following the service the Sunday School pupils registered for their classes which will begin next Sunday.

On Saturday evening, September 13th, the annual corn roast of St. Paul's Anglican congregation was held on the church grounds with an excellent attendance. Those in charge of the evening were Orville Carter, Ron Sparkes and Jim Lindley.

Sunday School pupils assisted at a special rally day service at Home United Church on Sunday, September 14. Those taking part were Gail Beardmore, Lois Beardmore, Nancy Faulkner, Pamela Williamson, Lynn Penon, and Lori Crowe. Four girls, Karen Burdick, Darlene Williamson, Dianne Beardmore and Karen Penon, sang "The New Church School" and boys, Ion Moddison, Tommy Nelson, Doug Beardmore, Bill Crowe and Kelly Henry, sang "Where Has My Model Class".

Norval Women's Institute held a family corn roast at Webb's on Saturday evening, September 13th with about 38 enjoying the friendly get together. Corn, marshmallows, donuts, pop and coffee was enjoyed around a big bonfire. The weatherman cooperated and the weather was ideal for outdoors fun.

The latest word received from Janice Carter by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ormie Carter, is that she enjoyed a visit to Morocco during the month of August, then flew back to England where she is teaching high school in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilson have returned from an enjoyable 3 weeks trip out west visiting relatives and friends. They visited Kenora, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Jasper Park, Calgary, High River, Banff, and then back to Regina and home.

Congratulations to Paul Fendley of Georgetown, formerly of Norval, now 17 years old, who has been drafted by the Peterborough A hockey team. Paul left last week to try out for the team. We wish him a successful hockey career.

A speedy recovery is extended to little 7 year old Norma Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson, who underwent an operation in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston New-Toronto visited with Mrs. man and year old Robbie of Newman's parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. Duncanson for a week recently.
