

Three Charter Members Guests At Auxiliary Anniversary

Branch 120's Ladies Auxiliary of which was donated, to youth celebrated their forty first anniversary last Friday. Three charter members sat at the head table, Mrs. Clifford Stacey who had her 90th birthday last week and Mrs. Henry Shepherd and Mrs. Fred McCartney. The special guests were Rose Manning, President Provincial Command and Ruth Findlay, Zone Commander. Others at the head table were Jean Reid, president; Rhona Timpson, Virtle Collins, Ann Collins, Bernice Emms, Provincial President Manning told the ladies that they could not relax but must continue to work for humanity. Last year, the Auxiliary Ladies throughout Canada raised more than one million dollars, most of which was donated, to youth in bursaries and other educational donations. This year the sum of money raised would be even larger than last.

At the dance that followed dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Arnold won a spot dance prize, the door prize, while Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harley won the lucky draw. While all of this was taking place in the auditorium, Joe was going great guns downstairs with his dart shoot which continues to be popular. Last Friday, the lucky ones were D. Bowman, J. Valentine, F. Boyd, W. Ritchie, F. Tracey, R. Pack, E. Anthony, J. Gilchrist, L. Bryant and A. Grieve.

McCartney - Neilson Wedding in Hillcrest United Church

Hillcrest United Church was the setting for the July 12 wedding of Carol Jean Neilson and Raymond Gordon McCartney. Rev. Keith Hawkes officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Marshall F. Neilson, wore a satin gown featuring long pointed sleeves, a fitted waistline and appliques on the skirt and bodice. A single rose held her three-tier nylon bouffant veil. She carried orange miniature carnations. For the wedding the bride wore a sterling cross, a gift from the groom.

The bride's sister Mrs. Ralda Waters was matron of honour. She wore a street length dress of aqua crepe featuring a scoop neckline and a floating panel fell from the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of pink mums and wore a sterling charm bracelet, a gift from the bride.

Leslie Norton was best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride, Mrs. Marion Sherk, the bride's sister, received wearing a beige crepe and lace dress, beige accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Eleda McCartney received for her son, wearing a gold brocade dress, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Harold Gimer extended well wishes to the young couple.

For the honeymoon trip the bride chose a blue and white stripe French silk dress with a matching white sleeveless jacket. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honoured at showers given by Mrs. Ralda Waters, Mrs. Barb Norton and the girls of the Ford Motor Company. A party was given for the groom by his fellow workers at the Abitibi Provincial Paper Mill.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Neilson and the groom is the son of Mrs. Aleda McCartney and the late Mr. Fred McCartney.
