

Mixed Field Day has Variety for Golfers

Crazy handicaps and weird Pete Mininch. Mininch and Ron golf tests marked a mixed field and Bev Breen' arranged the day at Georgetown Golf & Country Club Saturday.

First low gross in the mixed two ball was counted by Iris Bowell and Gord Robinson, and first low net belonged to Marilyn Merritt and Pete McNair. Ilene Cunningham and Fred Dalziel had second low gross and Don White and Lyn McNair second low net.

Betty Turner and Pete Mininch had the best putting record while Doug Berbyshire and Mary Lou Robinson registered the high figure. Low on the hidden hole were Ollie Wheeler and Alice Zarn, with Ann Korzack and Ed Ames carding the high on the hidden hole.

The Korzack-Ames two also won the prize for playing the most sand trap shots. Ron Breen was closest to the flag on the par three fifth hole with his tee shot, and Dot Dalziel and Lorne Cunningham qualified as the day's most honest golfers.

Prizes were presented at a dinner following the competition by men's section captain
