convener Mrs. Jessie Dick, Mrs. Gladys Robinson, Mrs. Violet Ainsworth, and Mrs. Edna Renwick. On the prize committee are Mrs. Lena Pond, Mrs. Hilda Pearce, and Mrs. Susan Penny. The lunch-committee includes Mrs. Elizabeth Bjork, Mrs. Freda Hunter, Mrs. Aileen Douglas, Mrs. Lillian Lawrence, Mrs. Eva Muckart. Auditor is Miss Sara Edwards.

Juniors Alive But Still Looking For Player Help

Despite the problems plaguing the Georgetown Junior C Hockey Club they'll be alive and kicking when the curtain goes up on the 1969-70 hockey season. And they may even be contenders depending on what some of their potential personnel decide to do with their energy during the winter.

Their early try-out sessions didn't attract enough bodies for one shift plus a line change, but that part of the picture is brightening. Attendance of late while still way short of what it should be, is encouraging. Most are solid enough performers that the Junior C brass claim they need only a few key people to become competitive.

Among the small band frequenting practices have been defenseman Glen Chapman and Bruce Lewis — and forwards Frank King, Dwayne Hay, Jerry Nash, and Bob Monckton from last year's team.

Doug Unsworth, who looked so good in his trout whirl with St. Catharines juniors, has been working out with Junior Raiders as well as two other netminders. An Oakville juvenile, Carter, has been one of the sharper hopefuls.

The club also hopes to pick up some of the late cuts from the Brampton juniors.

With their opening game a little over a week away, Georgetown, will likely get in only two more practices before getting down to brass tacks. They will practice at 11:30 Sunday morning and possibly next Wednesday night.

Bowling Green Closes Re-Seed for Next Season

The Georgetown Bowling greens closed October 4th after a most successful season, both the ladies and men showing a substantial increase in membership over last year. Closing took place early this year in order to seed and top dress the greens for next season.

The junior club had 7 entries in a junior tournament held at Brampton Sunday, Oct. 5 under ideal weather conditions. Brampton also had 7 entries and Kew Beach, Toronto, 8 entries.

The juniors played three 10-end games and Brampton doubles skipped by Glen Patten won the tournament. Brampton also second 3 game winner and Georgetown doubles Barry James and Leslie Burns were third 3 game winner. Georgetown also won the two game high.

Jimmie Robertson and Glenda Scarrow won the two game high and Brian James and Bonnie Henderson one game high. Glen Patten and his partner were presented with trophies and all winners received beautiful shirts or sweaters. Kew Beach juniors were just organized this year and although they didn't win any prizes made a creditable showing.

Now that a Toronto club has organized a junior club several other clubs are showing an interest and next year the juniors will have several inter-club tournaments. Georgetown juniors were well supported with 30 parents and members of the club on hand to encourage them and the bowling of all juniors was well worth watching.
