

COVERING FIRE

Private Doug Major and Private Rick Hiddlestone, both Militia soldiers training with regular force troops in Germany, lay down covering fire with their 50-cal. machine gun during Exercise Tomahawk, held in Northeastern Germany. The Canadian planned manoeuvres featured the 4th Canadian Mechanized Brigade Group battling an enemy force of British and Belgium troops. Private Major's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Major, live at Winnipeg, while Private Hiddlestone's parents Mr. and Mrs. James Hiddlestone live in Georgetown.

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE

BY BILL COATS

Most bridge players know of the advantage of leading towards an Ace - Queen in a suit. You hope that your left hand opponent has the king and he must play before you commit yourself to the ace or queen. That's the idea behind a simple finesse. However, many bridge players do not realize the advantage of generally leading towards high cards. It's always a good idea to make one opponent play before you put on one of your honor cards.

Here is an example from last week's action at the Acton Bridge Club. Two declarers went astray - how would you have done?

North dealt with East - West vulnerable.

NORTH
S-A 10 7 3
H-A Q 6
D-K Q J 4
C-A 2

EAST
S-8 2
H-10 7 5 4
D-A 10 6 2 D 8 3
C-K Q J 4 C-10 8 6

SOUTH
S-K 5 4
H-K J 3
D-9 7 5
C-9 7 5 3

The bidding:
NORTH EAST SOUTH WEST
1 D Pass 1 N.T. Pass
3 N.T. All Pass

Opening Lead: King of Clubs.

In spite of his 20 points, North can only open to make it easy for his partner to bid. South keeps the bidding open on seven points with one no trump. North goes straight to three no trump since he knows that the partnership has at least 26 high card points.

After West opens the club king, declarer should take stock and make his plan. It's too bad that there is duplication in hearts for declarer can count on only three heart tricks plus two in spades, two for sure in diamonds and one in clubs. The best line of play is to try for the extra trick in diamonds.

Declarer should win the first club lead in case he can block the club suit (try five clubs in West's hand and a doubleton 10 in East's to see what I mean.) A low heart is led to the jack and a diamond led. If West plays low, the jack can win. The heart queen is led and overtaken with the king. Another diamond is led and again if West plays low, the queen can win. A low spade to the king and a third diamond is led. West cannot stop declarer from making three diamond tricks.

There is no reasonable way to make the hand if a high diamond is led from dummy at any time. But if declarer leads towards his honors every time, three diamond tricks are his and so is three no trumps.

Last week's winners at the Acton Bridge Club were: first, Dick Prust and Tom Warren; second, Jack and Kate Coats; third, Gloria Coats and Ivan Harris.

I would like to extend an invitation to anyone in Acton or vicinity who enjoys the game of bridge to join us at one of our weekly duplicate games. Be our guests the first night and enjoy yourself even if you have never played duplicate before. The Acton Bridge Club meets every Monday night at 8:15 at Young St. in Acton - game time is 8 sharp. The evening is usually over by 11 o'clock so it's not too late an evening to try this fall!

Milton Candlelight Ceremony for Weston-Tomlinson Wedding Vows

In a double ring candlelight ceremony in Grace Anglican Church, Milton, Janice Elaine Tomlinson, and William John Weston, were married. The Rev. Foster officiated for the wedding on August 2 at 5 o'clock with Mrs. Ledwith playing the organ. Yellow and white mums and candles decorated the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Tomlinson, 7155 Ontario St., Milton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weston, 379 Ontario St., Milton.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown of beau de soie, its long train gathered at the shoulder with a bow. The lace-pannelled front bodice was covered with tiny seed pearls. She wore a fingertip three-tiered veil, and the ruby necklace worn by her mother at her marriage. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses with pink velvet ribbons to the floor.

Her maid of honour was a cousin, Mrs. Heather Koreinski, Pickering, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Harriet Stroud Milton, and Miss Brenda Easton, Georgetown, a cousin of the groom.

The groom's niece, Miss Corinne Mauro was flower girl.

The attendants wore floor length apple green silk with sculptured chiffon, rose and pearl headresses holding their shoulder length veils.

The flower girl carried a white basket of yellow mums and the others bouquets of yellow mums with yellow velvet ribbons.

Groomsman was Dave Kaufman and the ushers were John Turner, cousin of the groom, and Roy Tomlinson brother of the bride.

St. Clair Masonic Hall was the setting for the evening reception, with guests including the bride's aunt Miss Muirhead from London, England, and grandparents of the groom. Other guests were from Toronto, Ottawa, North Bay, Oakville, Pickering, Scarborough, Hornby, Streetsville, Burlington, Georgetown and Milton.

Special gifts came from England for the wedding - silver horseshoes from aunts and uncles, silver wedding shoes which played the traditional "Here Comes the Bride" and a sign "Just Married".

Before the wedding a personal shower for the bride was given by Mrs. Kathy Scott and Mrs. Harriet Stroud, and a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Donna Mauro.
