

Over Thousand Throng Riviera for Crafts Show

Over a thousand people thronged the Riviera Saturday for the annual Arts and Crafts Show. The autumn colors the Riviera setting and delicate hand-crafted items made it a delightful occasion. Sales were brisk and many flowers and hand-made rugs, to a new and unusual one known as brass rubbings. These were done by Mrs. Pat Beer and are made of paper black-oval relief carvings in old churches in England, rubbed with ink. Some on display were from panels dating back to the 14th century. Enamelling on copper was shown by Nancy Mitchell, ceramic gifts by Eva Woodcroft, leather jewellery by Dorothy Bradford, pottery by Lucy and Betty Chamberlain.

Guest artists this year were Bob Cawood, demonstrating creative weaving, Mrs. Robert Foster, mosaic work, Mrs. W. Newcome, bird sculpture and Jim Forbes with his whimsical steel structures.

It will take 6 million CARE food packages, at a dollar per package, to complete program that will help feed 28 million hungry people in 33 countries during 1969.

There's no generation gap at HFC

There never was. We started out by helping other people starting out. Three generations later, we're still at it. We advise everyone to "Never borrow money needlessly." But when you're young you need things like furniture, appliances, maybe a better or bigger car, and we'll help you get them... just like we help over a million people in their twenties every year. We're 91... but we don't act our age.

Friends, neighbours and relatives gathered at the Boyne Community Centre on Thursday evening, October 23, to pay honour and bid farewell to very good neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peacock and son, David, who have left the local community and moved to their new abode on Barton St. in Milton. Mrs. Bob Brownridge then called Frank and Marie to their chairs of honour where she read a farewell address and extended the very best wishes to them all in their new home for many years to come. She also read a poem called Year by Year. The presentation of a beautiful end table and recliner chair was made to Frank and Marie by Bob Brownridge, Howard Winch and Bill Rayner. Rick Rowan presented a reading lamp, wallet and key case to Frank and Marie for David who was unable to be present due to other arrangements. Both Frank and Marie extended their sincere thanks to all for the beautiful gifts and social evening and invited everyone to visit with them in their new home. A delicious lunch followed and a social hour was enjoyed visiting.
