Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McMillan, 8 Guelph St., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Clark at Wyoming.

Mrs. Annie Vannatter with her sister, Mrs. Comfort Roszel, spent the weekend in Hamilton, with their sister-in-law, Mrs. Leslie Waddell.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Gaskin and sons, Mark, Howard and Patrick were in Hamilton recently attending the funeral of Mrs. Gaskin's father, Rev. T. G. Marshall.

BALLINAFAD

Gillian Dymott at Prince's Head Table

Many were thrilled last Wednesday afternoon when they saw and heard on a TV station Prince Philip, who was guest of honour at a luncheon of the Canadian Empire and Rotary Club in the Royal York Hotel. Seated at the head table also was Miss Gillian Dymott, a young woman from the Ballinafad district.

Miss Dymott is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haynes who recently moved here from Toronto. Gillian was there to receive her Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award. It was personally presented to her by Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh. There were 7 other young folk present who also had achieved this award through very hard work as before they are presented with the gold award they have to earn the silver and bronze.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith joined the other members of Mrs. Smith's family at a gathering in Belwood on Saturday night. The ladies of St. John's church in Belwood catered to a turkey dinner. Besides the family near by, two sisters and their husbands and families attended from Saskatchewan. They were Mr. and Mrs. Art Bymoen, from Simmie, Sask. and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taylor from Webb, Sask. Mrs. Smith's brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson from Winchester, Ontario were also present for the happy occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McKim have returned home from a visit to Los Angeles, California and report a wonderful holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roden will be leaving for their new home in Eugeneia in the near future. The Rodens have made many friends in the Ballinafad all good wishes go with them to their new place of residence. Mr. Roden will continue to work at his present position at Smith & Stone Georgetown.

The Chuck Wagons met at the basement of the church on Saturday morning. Beryl McEnery read the minutes of previous meeting. The discussion this week was choosing meat and how to buy to suit one's family. For this meetings group work Carol Buchanan and Rose Sayka prepared a picnic shouder.

The crowd was not large at the Scout Mother's auxiliary euchre on Thursday night at the Community Centre. Those present report a good time. Eight tables were in play. Prize winners were ladies first: E. Huren (playing as a lady), 2nd Mrs. W. Britton, Gents, 1st Robert McEnery, 2nd Ross Budgul. Door prizes went to Mrs. S. Snow and Mr. Willard Britton.

OVER HUNDRED ART WORKS IN SHOW

After a long career as an artist Anna Storr, of Brampton, will hold her first exhibition November 8 and 9, at the Regency Room of the Thunderbird Motel, in Brampton.

Over a hundred paintings ranging from landscapes painted all over Canada, the Bahamas, Florida and Scotland, to portraits and abstracts, will be on display from noon till ten o'clock both days.

She has been painting since she was nine and now is a middle-aged woman. She is well known as a teacher of art in Brampton and founded the Northern Electric Art Club, which meets in her home, every week.

CROWS MIGRATING

Rick Louth informed me a few days ago, that the crows are heading south by the thousands.

He and the Rovers from Norval are having fair luck with the ducks near Warton.

Doug Richardson, Bud Varney, Charlie Hoare, Jud Hoare, Jack Presswood Jr. have had fair luck with the ducks this year.

This year Canada Geese are seen everywhere.

That's all for this week so safe journey, good shooting and tight lines until next time.
