

Nolan - Cuthbert Wedding in Holy Cross Church

Wearing a sheath gown of chantilly lace over taffeta, Diane Marie Cuthbert became the bride of Patrick Joseph Nolan in a wedding ceremony in Holy Cross R.C. Church on September 30. Her bridal costume had a full length coat of silk illusion trimmed with matching lace, and a shoulder length veil held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of bridal pink roses and stephanotis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cuthbert, 4 Bennett Place, Glen Williams and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nolan, Sr., of Limehouse.

Father Gerald M. Craig officiated, Mrs. H. Inglis was organist and Mrs. Reita Price, Campbellford, sang wedding prayer and Ave Maria. It was a double ring ceremony and Mr. Cuthbert gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's sister Darlene was maid of honour and Mrs. Marie Wright was bridesmaid. They wore floor length empire gowns of French blue chantilly lace over taffeta, with white puffs. In their hair and carried crescents of white poms accented with pink puffs. They wore pearl pendants, gifts of the bride. Robin Switzer as flower girl wore a white lace over taffeta street length dress accented by a French blue chiffon bow at the neck. She wore white poms in her hair, a silver locket, the bride's gift, and carried a basket of pink and white poms.

John Wright, 52 Byron Street was groomsmen and Robert Cuthbert and Thomas Nolan, brothers of the bride and groom were ushers. Don Nolan, the groom's nephew, was ring bearer.

A reception followed in Ballinad United Church Hall where the bride's mother received wearing a coat and dress ensemble of pale pink shantung, black accessories and a white carnation corsage. Also receiving was the groom's mother, who chose a coat and dress ensemble of turquoise silk poplin, silver accessories, a corsage of pink carnations and pink poms in her hair.

Leaving for an eastern honeymoon, the bride wore a turquoise wool suit, black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan are living in Limehouse. He is employed with American Sterilizer Company of Canada in Brampton and she is a member of the office staff of E.W. Bliss Company (Canada) Ltd.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was a guest at showers hosted by Mrs. Bonnie Nolan, Limehouse, Mrs. Mariene Switzer, Georgetown, and Mrs. Janet Schandelmeyer, the latter attended by fellow employees of the Bliss firm.

BALLINAFAD

Tots to Grandparents Dress for Ballinad Costume Party

The Halloween party at the community centre on Friday night was quite successful. There was a good crowd there and most everyone came dressed up. There were tiny tots right up to the grandparents who were in all sorts of disguises. The winners were for 8 years and under, clown, Steven Smith; animal, Nancy Cornfield; hard time, Darlene McEnery; fancy dress, Judy Cornfield; representing a 'mummy' David La Rose.

Nine years up to fourteen: National Indian, Ron McLean; best Halloween disguise, Peter Snow as a bat; hard time, Bonnie Kirkwood; fancy costume, Penny Shortill; representative, Ken Thompson (as a soldier) best couple, Carol Buchanan and Ross Soyka.

In the adults: Andrea Cislak, disguised as a 'Hindi' got the prize for the national Best couple, Lola Marshall and Winnie Smith as bride and groom. Dan and Linda O'Connor as the best fairy tale when they represented the King and Queen of Hearts.

Five ladies from the Ballinad W.I. attended the reception and tea in honour of Dr. Ethel Chapman in St. David's Presbyterian Church at Campbellville on October 28.

The committee in charge of the euchre for the community centre were very pleased to see so many present. There were 20 tables in play so, as they are "Share the Wealth" euchres the more there the larger the cash prize. The lucky ones Tuesday, Oct. 28th were ladies, Marion Farnell, Mrs. George Roszell; gents D. McMillan, W. E. Gibson.

The two groups of 4-H Homemaking girls met again for the fifth time on Saturday morning. The 'Chuck Wagons' met in the basement of the church and the Ballinad Burgers met at the home of their leader Mrs. Plouffe.

The discussions for both groups was the buying and serving of pork. Frances McLean, Linda Gales and Doris Burt prepared a pork shoulder and cabbage for their group. Nancy Swindlehurst and Sheila Jamieson of the Chuck Wagons gave a demonstration on the making of beef stew and dumplings. A tasty serving was passed around for all to sample.

Visiting with the Eddy Smiths over the weekend were Mrs. Smith's two sisters and their husbands Mr. and Mrs. Art Bymoer and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taylor. Both couples are from Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Griff Jones left for their home at Garson, near Sudbury, on Monday after visiting with the Frank Smiths and other friends in the community for the past several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitt have moved into their new home on the

SILVERWOOD

Scholarship Honours Dr. Ethel Chapman

Mrs. Marchington, Mrs. Beene, Mrs. Norton and Mrs. Henderson attended the reception at St. David's Church, Campbellville, on Tuesday, Oct. 28 for Dr. Ethel Chapman. She was presented with a painting and a Halton County W. I. scholarship was named in her honour in recognition of her service in public life, especially Women's Institute work.

Mrs. D. Williamson and Mrs. G. Henderson attended the Institute short course on quilts on Oct. 23-24 in Milton. Both women will act as leaders for the Silverwood group.

Good wishes to Mrs. N. Bomholt and Mrs. C. Wilson who have returned home from Georgetown hospital. Mrs. Bomholt has since been taken to Guelph General hospital.

The Pro Teens met at Mrs. Ruddle's for their fourth cooking lesson on Oct. 8 where they learned how to prepare beef stew and dumplings and studied different beef cuts and how to prepare them for cooking. The next Saturday at Mrs. Anderson's, they studied the pork chart and made a dish of pork hocks and cabbage, spiced and savoury.

Mr. Henry Whitfield and Miss Lena Whitfield were Sunday guests with Mr. and Harry Scott.

Cubs Make Promise Then are Invested

At the last regular meeting of First Georgetown Cubs at St. John's United Church, six Cubs made their solemn promise to the Akela Mrs. Jean Layman then were invested.

Those taking the first step in Cub Scouts were Brian Edgar, Daryl Strudwick, Dean Brinklow, Mark Perego, Randy Arthurton, Michael Pollard. Assisting in the ceremony was John Edgar and David Strudwick.

Rev. R. O. Scrivens outlined some of the necessary requirements for the Religion and Life Badge for the boys attending United Churches. Mr. Strudwick told a short story about the compass and then ran a compass game.

The meeting closed with the newly invested Cubs taking part in the Grand Howl for the first time.
