

Deer Stunned, Escapes

On the way home from work last week Mr. Dave Burton had an encounter with a deer. He was driving along all of a sudden a deer crossed the road and ran into the station wagon Burton was driving.

There was an added feature to the Red Cross Home nursing course which is taking place every week at the community centre. This week, besides the regular class other ladies in the district were invited to see a special film on Cancer.

was being held in the church. Close to 400 people were served. The old and the young were helping in every way they could. With everyone's co-operation the supper was quite a success. Many came from near and far for the well prepared meal with the home baked pies.

girls of the 4H Home-coming club are getting well on their way with the course. The Menu. Both clubs for the sixth time on Saturday morning. They discussed preparing ground and ever meals. Plans were made for their final meeting before achievement day. On day they hope to try out recipes and serve a meal perhaps with an outdoor picnic.

There was a special meeting of the Ballinafad WI this month. It was an evening meeting which took place at the community centre on Thursday November 8. Three neighbouring institutes had been invited. Members were present from Silverwood, Bannockburn and Greenock. President of the Ballinafad branch Mrs. Jesse McEnery opened with an inspiring poem and welcomed the guests.

The community centre board were well pleased with the success of the first dance of the season which was on Saturday November 8. Every one enjoyed dancing to the music supplied by the Al Dermott Orchestra. Many will be looking forward to the next one which will be later this month.

Tables were set in the basement where Mrs. Slesoraites and Mrs. J. McEnery had charge of refreshments. The three visiting branches each in turn thanked Ballinafad for the opportunity to share this safety meeting with them.

Mr. MacDonald completely captivated the members with his charm and wit. He sat on the floor of the living room in front of the fireplace and asked each member to introduce herself. He then entertained them with reminiscences of his early life and career.

think we had a better education system in Esquimaux, the Halton County board "declared Cr. Russell, a former school member. "I'll admit we have the special services children with problems, but from that it was better."

Ballinafad was a lively village on Saturday night when the annual fall turkey supper was held.

He was born in Toronto, but later moved to Hamilton and then Brantford where he received his earlier education. He

John Barnes, Lee Ferguson, Marty Power, Ronald Timson, John Colter, Jimmy Fraser, Marc Williams, Melville Leonard and Glen and Larry Mercer received their Tenderpad badges signifying their first step along the road to Scouting.

Once invested Cubs can take part in the pack's grand howl and begin earning proficiency badges and stars.

A car driven by Wilbert Glocking of 8 Chipper Court hit a parked car on a curve in Rexway Drive just before midnight Friday for another $800 in property damage.
