

Find Premium
On Peel School
Insurance Low

MISSISSAUGA — Peel County Board of Education has found something cheap in education. This is the cost of fire insurance premiums.

For fire coverage on over $80-million dollars' worth of public and secondary schools, the board only pays $58,325 annually.

With some of the high schools worth over $3-million without even considering the contents, Peel's fire insurance bill is considered the bargain of the year.

Serve Warning On Snow Cars

BRAMPTON—Provincial Constable G.I.B. Ramm yesterday issued a warning to snow vehicle owners and operators, regarding regulations concerned.

With winter bearing Mr. Ramm anticipated a heavy turn-out on snow vehicles.

He suggested that owners or operators of snow vehicles must know all laws and regulations governing the registration, driving rules, equipment and insurance of all motorized snow vehicles.

For complete information and assistance, Mr. Ramm suggested motorists contact the nearest department of transport office.

Weston Man Hurt
In Car Accident

MALTON — A 46-year-old Weston man was in satisfactory condition at Peel Memorial Hospital today, following an accident about midnight Tuesday at a Malton intersection.

Jack Nicoford suffered a fractured right wrist and ankle when he was in collision with a car driven by Frederick Harman, 35, of Malton, who was not hurt. The accident occurred on Goreway Dr. at Etude Dr.

Mississauga police constable Gary Badger investigated.

Hindus Believe
Monkey Is Sacred

BOMBAY — A rogue monkey has sparked a major controversy in the state city of Durgapur in India's West Bengal province.

One section of the population wants Chikko, a simian delinquent, shot. But another group, which seems to be more numerous, would like him "parked."

So far, Chikko has injured 50 persons. Ten of them are in hospital.

Orthodox Hindus consider monkeys to be sacred animals. The belief stems from the worship of Hanuman, the mythological monkey-god.

There are Hanuman temples all over India. Durgapur alone has three of them.

Hindu groups here have been campaigning against police plans to shoot the monkey, which is free to roam the city.

One aged Hindu monk has threatened to go on a hunger strike if Chikko is killed.

Man Fined $50
For Fraud Try

BRAMPTON — An unemployed Brampton man who wrote a worthless cheque because he needed money for groceries was fined $50 yesterday in Brampton provincial court.

Edwin Charland, 40, of 17 Craig St. pleaded guilty in Brampton provincial court to writing a $10 cheque on a non-existent account.

"There are welfare agencies," Judge John D. Ord reminded him. He allowed Charland 30 days to pay, with alternative 10 days in jail.

Shoplifter, 16
Meted $35 Fine

BRAMPTON — "Don't come back charged with anything of this kind, son, or you'll go to jail," Judge John D. Ord warned a 16-year-old admitted shoplifter yesterday in Brampton provincial court.

Ronald Brooks of 58 Steven's Cr., Georgetown, was fined $35 after he pleaded guilty to taking spark plugs, tire and anti-freeze testers from a Brampton store.

Police Probing
$2,000 Break-In

BRAMPTON — Police continued investigation today of a weekend break-in at Guild Imports Ltd. that netted thieves $2,000 worth of panasonic sound equipment.

A glass door at the rear of the premises, 71 Kennedy Rd. E., was smashed. All the offices in the building were ransacked. The break-in occurred overnight last weekend.
