

RETURNED SHEARING TITLE TO CANADA

Bill Wilson of Georgetown, left, accepts the Sunbeam Trophy and the congratulations of the Sunbeam Electric Company representative at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in Toronto where he recaptured the international sheep shearing championship for Canada. The title had been won by American shearers for the previous eight years.

HORNBY

MOVING TO NORWOOD INGRAMS ARE FETED

Friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Featherston on Thursday evening, November 27, to honour Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ingram who are moving to Norwood. The Ingrams have lived on the 8th Line for several years and will be greatly missed by everyone in the Hornby district. Mrs. Joe Saliba, Mrs. Frank Falbo and Mrs. Tony Saliba were in charge of the evening which started off with euchre. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ralph Featherston, Mrs. Fred Tuck, Ralph Featherston and Dick Course. Following the entertainment the host for the evening called on Mr. and Mrs. Ingram who were presented with a lovely card table and chairs. On behalf of the 31 guests attending Ralph expressed the best of luck and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Ingram in their new abode. A vote of thanks was extended to all by the Ingrams for the pleasant surprise and farewell party. A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge and a social hour enjoyed recalling the good times they had in the past years.

Anniversary greetings are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tallyn who will celebrate their wedding anniversary on December 1.

The ladies of the St. Stephen's Anglican Church Guild catered to the Agricultural Society Banquet which was held on Saturday night, November 29, at St. Stephen's Anglican Church hall.

Friends in this district were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mike Shortell who

The Eden United Church ladies met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson May of Streetsville on Tuesday evening November 25 when the Gloom group who were the losers of the project 'Sunshine and Gloom' had to treat the winners to a social evening. Mrs. Paul May was in charge of the program which consisted of several games and interesting contests, which were enjoyed by the 15 guests attending. The Sunshine group enjoyed the delicious lunch which was prepared by the Gloom group.

Dance Success, Auxiliary Lays Spring Program Plans

Georgetown Auxiliary for the Mentally Retarded held their last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Muriel Cotter, 31 Weber Drive, which drew a good attendance.

After the reading of the minutes, Mrs. Karen Harrison, treasurer, reported on the successful dance held recently at the Riviera.

BRIDGE CLUB

There was keen competition last week at Georgetown duplicate bridge club with 13 pairs competing in each of the divisions for the evening's honours. In North-South, Mike Lorusso and Dick Prust led, with Richard Raymond and John Zahara 2nd; Mr. and Mrs. F. Hampshire 3rd and Mrs. Muriel Allen and Mrs. Pat Williams 4th.

Duke Wilson and Bob Dickson led in East West: George Killerton and Mrs. Bob Dickson
