

Apple Products Tour For Senior Citizens

A group of senior citizens from Maple visited the Glen last week. They toured the Apple Products plant and saw the processing of the apples. Conducting the tour was an employee, Mr. Alf Allen who is president of the local senior citizens club.

They were treated to coffee and donuts, and needless to say, big red, rosy apples to munch on their way home. This was a first for the Apple Products and it proved quite successful.

Rev. Ridley presented Explorer "E" pins to Brenda Inglis and Frances Engley. In the CGIT service, Joanne Crawford presented two officer Maple Leaves to Cindy Hancock, president. Mary Engley presented one to Bev Brenner, secretary. Betty Campbell presented one to Beverley Campbell, treasurer. The leader, Mrs. Ash presented Beverley Staddon with white lanyard which denotes a senior.

Cindy Stafford, for the CGIT and Carol Carney for the Explorers presented the mission donations to the United Church and were accepted by Diane Gies, Mary Engley gave the mission prayer.

The worship service was led by Mrs. Ash. The call to worship and all sang "All things bright and beautiful," followed by scripture reading by Brenda Inglis, Proverbs 19:22-29. Diane Spicer read the meditation. Wendy Stafford gave the closing prayer and Beverley Campbell announced the closing hymn "The Day Thou gavest, Lord is ended" and then she invited all the mothers for lunch. Carla Rattenbury led in a sing song and games and the CGIT girls served the lunch. It was then announced that they go around the village carolling on Dec. 10 and any donations will go to the mission fund. — Mrs. C. Barth
