

SIXTY TRAINING TO BE BATON BELLES

Wesley Rutledge, 83, was Lifelong District Farmer

A district farmer all his life until his retirement, John Wesley Rutledge died in Georgetown hospital on December 1st. He was 83.

Mr. Rutledge who was the son of John Miller Rutledge and Anna Stull farmed on the Town Line and after his retirement moved to Terra Cotta village. He was particularly fond of horses.

A member of Union Presbyterian Church, he attended school at S. S. 3, Chingacousy. He married Winnifred Marlan Cutts, 52 years ago in St. George's Anglican Church here.

He leaves his wife, a son John Edward (Ted) of Orangeville and daughters: Mrs. Eric Leslie (Francis) of R.R. 4, Georgetown and Mrs. David Andrews (Emma) of Terra Cotta; and 19 grandchildren.

He was predeceased by a sister Anna-Mabel and a brother Lewis T. Rutledge, who was a professor at Queen's University Kingston.

Rev. Wayne Maddock, Hillsburgh, conducted the funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home and interment was in Glen Williams cemetery. Six grandsons were pallbearers, Terry and Kenneth Leslie, Bob and David Andrews Ambrose and Charles Rutledge.

Plan Christmas Cheer for Residents of Halton Manor

The Georgetown Women's Institute enjoyed a pot luck supper for their Christmas meeting in Knox hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 3. A table with Christmas decorations, arranged by Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Robin and Mrs. Thompson, greeted the members. Following the meal, an exchange of gifts took place.

A short business period made plans for remembering the 28 residents of Halton County Manor, at this season of the year. Mrs. F. Petch read two Christmas readings, and a period of carol singing brought the evening to a close.

BUILDS THEM BEST

Let's face it.
There are two reasons to buy stereo. One of them is because it matches your Chesterfield.
But the important thing about a stereo isn't its cabinet. It's the sound of reproduction.
And that's what makes Noresco great. Sure there are other component stereo systems. But do they have Dual precision turntables? Every Noresco does. And you know Dual's reputation for quality and precision.

NORESCO SYSTEM 3421
This is our best selling system, an excellent example of our ingenious sound styling. It includes the Noresco Consolelet NC-341 with Dual Ceramic Cartridge, Two Noresco NE-511 speakers, High compliance 6" twin cone for smooth natural sound. Noresco NT-121 Solid State AM/FM Tuner, FET Front and ensures high sensitivity and extremely low noise level and freedom from cross modulation. Compare Methods for Wrapping Holiday Gifts

Mrs. Jesse McEnery was hostess to the Women's Institute meeting on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3. It was the Christmas meeting and the roll call was each one to bring a wrapped parcel to show different ways of Christmas gift wrapping. There were many varied and artistic ways displayed. During the business part of the meeting it was decided to hold a penny sale and euchre some time in March.

Final arrangements were made for the 4-H homemaking club achievement day on Saturday, Dec. 13 which will be held in the community centre.

The two members who are giving the lessons on quilt making reported on the first meeting and said that 15 were present and it was decided to make a quilt, the WI to buy the material early in the new year. The current events were given by Mrs. Given. Mrs. Smith gave the motto which was on the Christmas theme.

Mrs. Jamieson gave two humorous readings, followed by two interesting contests. The program ended with several games of Bingo. We then had an exchange of gifts. With the singing of carols and the delicious lunch served by Mrs. Given and Mrs. McEnery all agreed it was one of the special meetings of the year.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leitch and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall in the sudden death of their cousin Mrs. Stan Leitch of Erin.

Several from this area attended anniversary services at St. Andrew's Church in Georgetown. Rev. Russell Horsburg was the guest speaker.

Earl and Francis McLean were placed first and second respectively in the all year round work of the 4H clubs of Erin Township.

Heather and Bonnie Kirkwood also received good marks. Congratulations to our young folk.

Universal Bible Sunday was observed in the Church on Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. R.

M. Matthews presented their 3 children for Holy Baptism. They were Robert Anthony, Yvonne Marie and William Albert. Next Sunday, Dec. 14 will be white gift Sunday.

Miss Beatrice Hills visited with relatives in Toronto one day last week.

The Red Cross Nursing course is almost finished. The group were all successful in their examinations last week. They have the final meeting next week when plans will be made for a banquet.

A group of friends of Mr. Don Brown, surprised him on Saturday night by calling at his home, the occasion being his birthday. All reported a happy time.

A group of eager sewers met again in the community centre on Monday night when they received more instructions on quilt making. Next meeting will be the 1st Monday in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster had a family gathering at their home on Sunday.
