GYM BECOMES "GEM"

STUDENTS PLAN PRODUCE THEIR OWN MOVIES

It's over 12 years since flames wrote a tragic ending to the Romy Theatre on Mill Street. Since then, various local organizations, most prominently Legion Branch 120 and Holy Cross Church have from time to time kept the Saturday afternoon celluloid rolling for children. But for adults without transportation to out of town movie houses it has been a dozen years of flickers famine.

A group of Georgetown high school students, however, are doing something about it.

TO MAKE MOVIES

The school's recently-organized Film Club is showing current run movies in the school auditorium every second Saturday in a double barrelled project that is providing cinema entertainment here, and at the same time helping the club toward their goal which is to produce their own films.

Money raised through the movie nights will be used to buy film-making equipment.

To date, the film club has offered two shows, 'The Odd Couple' with Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau, and 'Barbarella' with Jane Fonda. The schedule will resume after Christmas holidays.

GOOD CROWDS

Crowds have numbered between 150 and 200, most of them high school students.

Principal Mike Furlong told The Herald if enough interest is shown the school will offer a cinema arts program here next term. He said about 30 applicants would be needed to operate the course. The film has an active membership of about 20.

Combined Choirs' Concert Raises Funds for Biafra

Choirs from Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church and St. John's United Church along with a trio from St. Paul's Baptist Church and soloists from both First Baptist and St. John's United Churches provided inspirational music of the season at the Christmas Choral Concert held in St. John's United Church on Wednesday evening, December 10.

The junior choir and descendants of St. John's United, directed by Mrs. Kathleen Schuldt opened the concert with the selections 'Hosanna! Now Through Advent', 'Snowy Flakes are Falling Softly' and 'Waken, O Shepherds'.

Martin Veltman of First Baptist sang 'O Holy Night' followed by 'Inkeepers Carol' by Mrs. Pat Grady of St. John's United and 'Sweet Little Jesus Boy' by Tom Darcie, also of St. John's.

A trio from St. Paul's Baptist sang 'The Coventry Carol' and also Mrs. Joyce Ramsden of St. Paul's joyiced the selection 'Omar's Search for the King'. Anthems sung by the senior choir of St. John's, under the direction of Mrs. Kathleen Schuldt, were 'Hark, a thrilling voice is sounding', 'Carol of the Birds', 'Wait! Carol' and 'God Rest you Merry Gentlemen.'

The senior choir of Holy Cross, directed by Mrs. G. Hewson, then rendered the Anthems 'Song of the Crib' and 'Adeste Fideles', with J. Redmond at the organ.

The offertory organ solo played by Mrs. Kathleen Schuldt, organist and choir director of St. John's, was a 'Medieval Carol'.

Portions of scripture, fitting to the Christmas season were read throughout the concert by Rev. Robert O. Scrivens, minister of St. John's.

The offering of over $108. is being sent to the Canairrelief Fund to help pay for shipments of food being flown into Biafra.

CLERGY COMMENT

The World Needs Us

by Rev. Canon J. E. Maxwell
St. John's, Stewarttown; St. Stephen's Hornby

Thou shalt love God . . . and thy neighbour as thyself. Luke 10:27

These words are central to the Christian faith and they mean that Christianity is a matter of loving concern. We must be concerned about God, the needs of our fellow-man, even as we are concerned about our own lives.

It isn't easy for us to be concerned about the plight of our fellow man because we have so many personal problems, anxieties, and worries. To the world we appear to be affluent, carefree, untroubled - and they cry to us for help in their hunger and their need. We fail to respond because we worry about our own concerns, our jobs, our health, our families, etc., etc.

Our situation has been illustrated by a recent song about a yellow submarine. It is, perhaps, a twentieth century parable, because people can live like submarines; it isn't as difficult as it might seem. All you have to do is clang shut the hatch on the outside world and submerge into your own little sea. Once in a while run up the periscope to see what is happening outside, but always be sure to pull it right back down again because you won't want to become involved in all of that. There will be a lot for you to do in your small world, you can tinker with the machinery, worry over it, plot a course, work out a daily routine. But eventually the air will get stale, too stale to support life, and you will cease to function as a human being. And that will be the end of it.

The world needs us, and we have much to give. We cannot ignore the plight of our brethren in the troubled parts of the world, in Biafra, in Viet Nam, or wherever. Because we are among those who believe in the worth of the individual, in the brotherhood of men - and these are but empty words, pious phrases, unless we are prepared to give of our time, of our money, our concern to help those whose problems, whose need, whose hunger is so much greater than our own.
