The Old Year in Pictures — AUGUST

Top left — Local Two-wheelers start sporting license plates as a bicycle license by-law is passed by council. Top right — The staid old brick walls of the downtown business section rock to the sound of hard rock when a street dance concludes a sidewalk sale. Bottom left — Glenmont Knitting of Glen Williams is the new occupant at the former Smith and Stone bakelite plant on King Street as they expand operations and add new equipment. At the spinning mule which was turned out to pasture after 25 years of service is Bill Dodds. Middle right — Georgetown's candy factory, the H. B. Balmer Co. on Armstrong Avenue plunges into the retail market after 50 years of selling in bulk to retail chains. Bottom right — Georgetown Cable TV customers find familiar faces in their scenes as the firm steps up local closed circuit service, including nightly newscasts.

BALLINAFAD

Student Engineer in Cornwall for Training

Mrs. Idyllis Logan of Glen Williams and Mrs. Hazel Robinson of Georgetown spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Logan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Polo, Rick and Vicki Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Miller and Debbie spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swann, Bev and Kevin of St. Catharines Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Burt and family of Hillsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Connor and Susan were at Tattingsstone Farm to spend Christmas with the Smiths.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jackson and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jackson spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Les Drysdale and family.

Al Dermott's Orchestra provided music for a very successful dance, held in the community Centre on Saturday night.

Little Chris Sales is recovering nicely from the severe burns he received at his home shortly before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEnery had their family home for Christmas, also Mrs. McEnery's parents Mr. and Mrs. Early spent the holiday with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson had his mother from Georgetown for Christmas day.

Mr. Harding Price, and Mr. Edwin Perryman are still patients in the Gualph General Hospital. Hope they will soon be able to return home much improved in health.

Mr. George Harris left last week for his new home near Dundalk. He will be missed in the neighbourhood and we wish him well in his new endeavour.

BRIDGE CLUB

Members of the UCW and Home Helpers along with their husbands met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEnery on Sunday night. Mrs. McEnery played the piano for a good old fashioned sing song. Rev. Kelvin Johnston also played and sang in his usual entertaining manner. Games and contests were held. Refreshments were served and a happy social time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Allan Jamieson, who has had a position with Domtar in Georgetown during his work period, has been transferred to Cornwall for advanced experience in his Chemistry Engineering Course. Allan will be missed in the community as Sunday School superintendent. He is also active in young people's groups. However, he will be returning to the University of Waterloo in the Spring and will be able to return more often to his home here.

The local store and post office has changed hands. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith the popular store owners for the past several years have sold their business to Mr. Harry Shortill.

Mr. Shortill is well known here the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill and was born and grew up in Ballinafad. He owned and operated a successful tinsmithing business in Acton. We wish him every success in the grocery business. Happily, the Shortills and the Smiths are exchanging homes so Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family will still be part of the community.
