Concerts, Parties Mark Christmastime at Norval

Norval Guides, Brownies and Cubs each enjoyed a Christmas party previous to Christmas. The Guides held their party at the home of their captain, Mrs. D. Jarvis, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 27 with a Christmas tree exchange of gifts, games and lunch.

At the Brownie party on the same evening held in the Presbyterian Church, gifts were exchanged and carol singing enjoyed. Eleven Tweenies were enrolled into Brownies. They were Lori Guppy, Catherine Wright, Camie McCormick, Cathy Holbrough, Linda Holbrough, Lenore Newman, Vicki McArthur, Christine Hetherington, Judy Rentenaar, Veronica White and Teena Edwards. The party was well attended by parents of the girls and ended with lunch and a social time.

The Cubs held their party in the Parish Hall on Thursday evening December 18. Julian Reed led in a sing song and carols after which gifts were exchanged and lunch enjoyed.

A Scout Group has started again in the village with Rob Murray as Scout Master. They meet in the parish hall on Tuesday evenings.

Norval Presbyterian Church Sunday School Christmas concert was held in the church on Monday evening, December 22 with Rev. Douglas as master of ceremonies.

An excellent program was presented by pupils. The primary class was first on the program with singing of Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer and 'Away in a Manger'. Miss Barbara Davis is their teacher. The nursery class with Mrs. Wilmer Little as teacher followed and sang the same two numbers and also 'We wish you a Merry Christmas'.

Douglas McClure gave a recitation 'Mr. Rabbit'. The junior class presented a skit 'Christmas Fantasy', teachers are Mrs. Ross Cunningham and Mrs. Bill Donaldson. Teacher Miss Laurene Archdekin wrote an original play 'Christmas Giving' which was put on by her intermediate class. Ross McClure

Clure gave a recitation 'My Land' after which a play written by Miss Mable McClure 'First Christmas On the Moon' was presented by her intermediate class. Sam McClure recited 'It's His Birthday' and the junior class put on a play 'Christmas Errands', teacher is Miss Margaret Duff.

Carol singing was enjoyed and Santa Claus arrived to hand out the gifts. Each pupil received a bag of candy.

The annual Christmas Candle light service by the choir of Norval United Church was well attended on Sunday evening, December 21. The junior, teen and senior choirs presented excellent musical selections with several readings and poems during the service.

The junior choir sang 'O Come Little Children', 'Away in a Manger', 'Go Tell it on the Mountain', 'Little Donkey' and 'Once in a Lowly Manger'. The teen choir sang 'A Cry in the Night' and 'Sing We Now of Christmas'. The senior choir sang 'Ding-Dong Merrily on High', 'March of the Kings' and 'Wind Through the Olive Trees'. All three choirs joined in singing 'The Little Drummer Boy'.

Mrs. Joyce Hutton sang a solo 'Virgin's Slumber Song', a solo in Japanese 'Sheep-Fast and Mrs. Taeko Torigal sang 'Asleep'. Her husband Fumi Torigal read the English version of the song.

Others who gave readings during the service were Julie Laidlaw, Mrs. Bill Laidlaw, Mrs. Judy Pomeroy, Heather Hyatt, Gordon Laidlaw, Betty June Laidlaw, Debbie May, John Kranendonk, Terry Laidlaw, Kevin Harrison and Shelly Laidlaw.

The teen and senior choir leader and organist Mrs. Walter Riddle and the junior choir leaders Mrs. Gordon Laidlaw, law during the social time following the service. — Mrs. Ed McLean
