The Old Year in Pictures — DECEMBER

Forego Gifts, Give Biafra $20 Instead

7th Georgetown Girl Guides held their annual Christmas party at St. Andrew's United Church.

Instead of a gift exchange, the girls gave their money to the Biafra relief fund, amounting to $20.

A twenty foot Christmas card was prepared for presentation to Terry Thompson who is still recovering from her accident last fall. Terry was injured in an accident while crossing the highway en route to high school one morning. A buffet supper of cold cuts, salads and desserts had been prepared by mothers of the guides.

TRUCK SNAPS PHONE POLES

Two telephone poles were snapped in a freak accident at the site of the new A & W Drive-In being constructed on Guelph Street near Mountainview Road, Monday morning.

Clifford H. Gordon of Toronto was driving the 1968 Mack truck which caught telephone wires as it backed onto the site cracking the two poles. There was no damage to the truck, but cost to replace the poles was estimated at $275.

Good Use For Broken Ornaments

A post-Christmas hint — Do not throw away those shattered Christmas tree ornaments. Mrs. Bill Hillier Sr. phoned The Herald to say she has found an excellent way of putting the brightly coloured bits of baubles to good use. Put the broken ornaments in a paper bag and with the rolling pin, roll them into a fine powder. This can be used to add a festive glitz to Christmas parcels, cards, and gift tags, etc.
