LNH volunteers

Can you spare a few hours a week to teach someone to read?

Literacy North Halton needs volunteer tutors for its Read*Spell* Write program based in Georgetown.

Can you assist another adult with their reading, comprehension, writing, math or basic computer skills? Can you volunteer for three hours per week for a minimum of six months?

No experience necessary, training given. Register between Sept. 19 and Oct. 3. For information call 905-873-2200 or at www.literacynh.org.

That's a wrap (on summer)

The performing arts camp of the Halton Hills Summer Camps program wrapped their camp with the production of Triple Threat. Graduating students from an arts school were locked in an old museum of the arts to learn how to appreciate each other's talents, like music, singing and dance. Statues of famous masters of the arts came alive as the students encounter the various rooms. From left, Andrew Burdett (as William Shakespeare) startled student Holly Kallmeyer and both he and Karlee Zammit (as Charlie Chaplin) came alive, to explain the benefits of all the arts.
