ACTON SENIORS' RECREATION CENTRE

BY JULIE CONROY

I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and a healthy New Year, and haven't broken too many New Year's resolutions yet.

The only thing I have to report on over the holidays is the wonderful Gala Evening on December 27. We didn't have as many people attending as we had hoped due to sickness and the weather, but those who came had a very entertaining time. David Burland was M.C. and did a very professional job of keeping things running smoothly and Jim Vail kept everyone moving to the music.

Zena Wykowski taught us how to Tango and Salsa, and there was a great swaying of hips to the catchy music. Two young students, Jamie Trowbridge and Meagan Speakman, entertained with their graceful dancing, choreography by Lynda Yurkin. Lynda was also the ballroom dancing instructor. They were all members of the local dance studio T.D.I.

To lighten the evening we had Dolores Wright, Joyce Erskine and Loraine Davis dancing and miming to Yellow Polka Dot Bikini and dressed in the appropriate costumes. Nevis Bozic worked behind the scenes with costume changes. Great Fun!

Nettie Field sang several songs and her voice was still in great form; she was accompanied by Marie Anderson on the keyboard and Pat Frizzell on tub drum, (who would have thought an old washing tub, string and a stick could sound so good).

Later in the evening we enjoyed a buffet meal thanks to Dave Dodgson and Lennora McKinnon. Joyce Marrows and her daughter Alison Colter worked very hard in the kitchen making sure the hot and cold dishes were served to perfection when Lennora wasn't able to make it in due to the weather. The Gala was organized by the L.T.T.F committee plus a few members and friends who had their arms twisted to help. Thanks to Marg Bromby who was in charge of liquid refreshments, and ran a very professional bar, which added to the enjoyment. It was a very successful evening.

There were lots of wonderful prizes thanks to Dave Burland and his wife. The happy recipients were Cheryl Field, Carmen Bissonnette, Real Tetreault, Bill Krever, Mahrukh Bapooji, Marj Bartels, Margaret Dellman, Sharon McCann, Victor Bissonnette, Wendy Krever and Ida Gordon. The 50/50 was won by Real Tetreault. One person was the happy recipient of a gift certificate for "Dinner for Two" thanks to Mayor Rick Bonnette.

The carpet bowlers are back playing on Monday afternoons. There were only six players. Nevis Bozic's Brown team beat her husband Ivan's Black team 11 to 8, but the most important thing was the fun they had.

Now is the time to register for Tai Chi, as a new session starts on Monday, January 12. Line dancing also resumes that day. The Yoga Town program will also start next week, but the location will change as it was too noisy in the hall. It will still be held in Acton. If you are interested call the recreation department.

Still thinking of exercising now the weather is colder, and it is icy underfoot? Don't forget, you can walk, jog, or run on Monday, Wednesday or Friday mornings in the agriculture building in the park.

The birthday tea to celebrate everyone born in December and January will be on Tuesday, Jan. 13. You should receive a phone call inviting you if your birthday falls in these two months.

On a sad note I would like to mention that Jack MacFarlane passed away last week. Over the years he and his wife Marg have spent many hours volunteering and participating at various events at the Centre. He will be missed.

Another longtime member, Lydia Bennett, also passed away. She enjoyed the Friday lunches and would come in early to help fold the napkins ready for dinner. Our condolences to the families.

On a happier note, Betty Green was very surprised last Sunday when many friends dropped in to help celebrate her 80th birthday at St Albans Church Hall. Her family had arranged a surprise Open House. Betty is another member who has dedicated many hours of volunteering at the Centre.
