The ROCKWOOD Miller

Youth basketball program returns to Rockwood

Beginning its second season All-Starz Basketball, in conjunction with Basketball Ontario, is presenting the Steve Nash skills development and house league basketball program on Thursday evenings beginning in October at Rockwood Centennial School.

The fall session runs from Thursday, Oct. 16 to Dec. 18 2008 and the winter session runs from Jan 8 to March 12, 2009.

Boys and girls, ages 8 to 13, interested in developing their individual and team basketball skills are invited to register at Rockwood Centennial School on Thursday October 9 from 7-8pm or by mail or by picking up a form and returning it to the school. The proposed gym time schedule depends on the enrollment numbers and the age categories. The 6pm to 8:30pm time slot may be divided into a junior age group followed by a senior age group.

The cost is $95 per player per session and each participant receives a Steve Nash reversible jersey along with a durable Nike basketball.

Nick and Mark Christian head the coaching staff up with many years of coaching experience. Anyone interested in volunteering to assist as a coach is invited to submit an application
