Working wife W.I. subject

Acton Women's Institute January meeting was held in the library board room with Miss Dorothy Simmons in the chair. The thought for the day was two poems, new plan on resolutions and a winter message, followed by a prayer.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and adopted, correspondence and business dealt with. A letter from the federated board regarding the 75th anniversary fund of MacDonald Institute, was to be dealt with later.

The euchar was discussed, where each member is to donate a prize for the penny sale plus groceries for the door prize.

Mrs. I. Little gave a detailed report on the Christmas shut-in gifts and received several thank you cards. Twelve gifts were sent to the Manor, three sent to the Chronic division of the St. Joseph's Hospital, two gifts to the Ontario Hospital, two gifts to the Waldie Nursing Home, two gifts delivered to the Kelly Nursing Home, one sent to the MacDonald Home plus four gifts delivered to shut-ins in town. The roll call was answered by 16 members, each member answering by "a country I would like to visit".

Mrs. I. Little, convener of home economics, was in charge of the program. She gave an excellent paper on "what is home economics". It reveals the housewife in every home, who is a very important part of married life. She works in the kitchen, preparing tasty meals for the husband and children. It used to be the husband was the breadwinner. Now the little women goes out and works as many hours as the husband, having to do many chores after hours, and many a home is neglected by the mother having to work. It is up to the woman to keep a home happy.

A contest followed, conducted by Mrs. Little.

A committee of Mrs. Pickett, Miss D. Simmons, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Wilds served a tasty lunch. The singing of God Save the Queen, brought the meeting to a close.

Rev. L. Duby induction

Sunday afternoon the Rev. Laurence Duby was inducted as rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, St. Catharines. It has become more customary for a layman to preach, and on this occasion the rector's father, Mayor Les Duby of Acton, preached the sermon.

Some from Acton attended the service and quite a few from his former parish in Welland. The church is a beautiful one, and Mr. and Mrs. Duby have an attractive subdivision home there.
