

Beamsville lads bounce back to sideline Y's Men peewees

After dropping the series opener 3-1, Beamsville Pee Wees bounced back to upset Acton Y's Men 5-2 here Thursday night and 5-3 in Beamsville, Sunday afternoon and eliminate the locals from the O.M.H.A. playoffs.

After a scoreless first period, in Sunday's deciding contest, Y's Men jumped into a 2-0 lead on goals by Joe Kentner and John Hansen, early in the second stanza.

Hansen beat the Beamsville goalie with a well aimed wrist shot to the upper left hand corner of the net. Steve Brunelle set up Hansen's goal.

However, the Beamsville lads fought back to tie the score on goals by Darbyson and Parker, then took a 3-2 lead on Parker's second marker at 14:29.

Acton goalie Robin Insoe, who performed brilliantly in the first period, was forced to leave the game, after the tying goal when he was shaken up in a scramble in front of the net. Mike Luty replaced him.

John Hansen rolled a shot in on a breakaway at the 4:14 mark of the final frame to knot the count once again.

The Acton defence suffered a letdown in the second half of the period and Howard fired the winning goal for Beamsville at 7:20. Christie added an insurance tally with less than four minutes remaining in the game.

Y's Men had plenty of scoring opportunities, but failed to capitalize on them.

Three quick Beamsville goals early in the third period broke up a close 2-1 game, here

Thursday night. Howard paced the Beamsville attack with three goals. Parker and Jeffrey counted one apiece.

John Hansen netted the first Acton goal from Russ Van Fleet and Gerald Haddon, then assisted on the second marker by Jeff Townsend.

The Beamsville crew deserved the series win, after bouncing back from the opening game loss on their home ice.

They now enter the O.M.H.A. quarter-finals against the winner of the Caledonia-Exeter series.

Notes and Quotes from the world of sport

Acton's last hope for a provincial hockey championship vanished, Sunday, when Acton Y's Men's Pee Wees fell by the wayside, after dropping a close 5-3 decision to Beamsville in the third and deciding game of their playoff series.

A win Sunday would have vaulted Acton into the O.M.H.A. quarter-finals against the winner of the Caledonia - Exeter series, but the spunky Beamsville crew fought back from a 2-0 deficit to snuff out that chance.

"I still think we had the better team," coach Barry Insoe commented, "but you can't win 'em all."

Pee Wees, who have already brought home one trophy, as runners-up in the Delhu pee wee tournament, will be out to collect more hardware at tournaments in Goderich and Oshawa, later in March.

Orillia tied the series up with a 3-2 victory in Georgetown, last night.

A glaring referee's error in a recent O.M.H.A. semi-final playoff game forced Peterborough midgets to travel all the way to Burlington to play one period of hockey.

With both teams serving simultaneous penalties in the third period, Burlington scored a goal.

The referees mistakenly allowed the Peterborough player to return to the ice.

Burlington protested the game, the O.M.H.A. upheld the protest and ordered the entire third period of the game replayed.

Peterborough hung on for a 4-2 win, however, to eliminate Burlington and advance to the O.M.H.A. Midget "AAA" finals.

Tickets being sold on a draw for a $50 bond will also admit the buyers to the arena, anytime during the two day event.

The two boxla enthusiasts appeared at the meeting to reserve floor time for games and practices.

The team hopes to attract crowds of close to 200 for home games.

Committee chairman Peter Marks assured Mr. Dwyer the team could have Monday nights for home games, as well as the six hours practice time in the weeks before the schedule begins.

Mr. Dwyer said the team would rather pay a flat hourly rate for floor rental, than enter into a gate split agreement with the committee.

Mr. Hall asked the committee, to consider the construction of a coach's walkway behind each player's bench, a division
