

OBITUARIES

Harding Price, 82 prominent area farmer

A well-known district farmer, Thomas Harding Price of R.R. 1, Limehouse passed away at Guelph General Hospital on March 3. In failing health for three months, he was 82 years of age.

Funeral service was held at Knox Presbyterian church, Georgetown, conducted by the Rev. N. A. Young of Knox, and Rev. Kelvin Johnston of Ballinafad United church. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, Georgetown. Members of the Georgetown fair board were among the many attending the funeral.

Active pallbearers were Allan Robson, Port Credit; Don Lindsay, R.R. 1, Georgetown; Jesse McEnery, R.R. 2, Acton; Ellwood Snow, R.R. 1, Georgetown; Jim Cripps, Jarvis; Robert Shortill, Guelph; the honorary pallbearers were Frank Wilson, Art Benton, K. C. Lindsay, F. W. Shortill, Robert Miller, Wilfred Harding, A. C. Patterson and George Currie.

Flower bearers were Charlie

Thomson, Morgan Madill, Bert Benton, Kyle Bingham, Lloyd Renick, Douglas Hogarth and Fred Price.

Mr. Price was born in Esqueving township son of the late Robert Price and Mary Ann Harding. He attended Blue Mountain public school, S.S. No. 14, and at one time was a member of the Blue Mountain school board.

He and Mary Bertha Robson were married in Garafraxa township and she predeceased him. He is survived by daughter Willa (Mrs. Fred J. Shortill) R.R. 1, Limehouse; son Gordon, Islington, sister Mrs. Wilhelmina McEachern, Acton and eight grandchildren.

He had two farms in Esqueving township, living at R.R. 1, Limehouse for the past 17 years. He was an elder of Limehouse Presbyterian church for 44 years. At one time he was president of the Georgetown Agricultural Society and he was a member of Stewarttown Community Hall Board.

G. A. Beirnes, R.R. 4 medical supervisor

On Saturday, February 28 at Guelph General Hospital there passed away George Albert Beirnes of R.R. 4, Acton.

Born in Hamilton 51 years ago, he saw three and a half years of service in the Canadian armed forces, in World War II. During this period he received training as a nursing orderly and for the last 21 years has been medical supervisor at the Ontario Training Centre, Brampton.

Nearly 30 years ago, Mr. Beirnes married Melissa Harris of Acton and she and their daughter, Georgina (Mrs. Donald Franklin) also of Acton, mourn a dear husband and father.

Surviving Mr. Beirnes, also are two brothers William of Fergus and James of Hamilton, a sister Mrs. Hazel Cook of Sunland, California and a stepmother Mrs. Ethel Beirnes of Guelph.

Mr. Beirnes was a member of St. Alban's Anglican Church, where the funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon March 3. Rev. R. N. Giuliano, B.F.A., B.D., M.A. of Bramalea, was assisted by Rev. H. J. Dawson, B.A., B.Th., minister of the church. Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

Many expressions of sympathy were received by Mrs. Beirnes and Mrs. Franklin and show the esteem in which Mr. Beirnes was held. These include letter from J. M. Marsland, Superintendent of the Ontario Training Centre, Brampton; the Student Council of the O.T.C.; and from Allan Grossman, Minister of Correctional Services, Parliament Buildings, Queen's Park, Toronto.

On March 4, a memorial service was held in the Training Centre chapel and a eulogy was sent to Mrs. Beirnes and her daughter. A bronze tablet commemorating Mr. Beirnes' faithful attention to duty will be installed in the chapel.

The eulogy states that "the greatest attribute a man can possess and portray is that of service to others. Service to his fellow man ennobles the Christian character of any man. The late George Beirnes displayed these high attributes, service and a deep sense of duty and devotion. May the infirmity, the sick bay at O.T.C., Brampton, stand forever as a silent memorial to his name and memory."

The eulogy pointed out his spirit toward duty, in caring for the wounded and dying in World War II during the Dieppe raid with the 11th Field Ambulance Corps. He also organized blood donor clinics in Brampton.

Under his crisp manner was a fatherly tenderness toward the speaker, the speaker asserted.

Prepare highway permit to burn

Grubbing and clearing of the highway between Acton and Georgetown are underway prior to widening and resurfacing.

The contractors for the preparatory work found that with new anti-pollution legislation they had to have special permission to burn the cedar they cut down in swampy areas along the route.

Board budget final Thursday

The educational mill rate will be set by members of the Halton County Board of Education Thursday as they consider the Board's 1970 budget in its final consolidated form.

The meeting set for the Board's Oakville headquarters will learn the effect of the board's spending on the mill rate of the local municipalities.

The Board has been holding meetings on various sections of the budget and Thursday the consolidated budget will be presented for discussion.
