BALLINAFAD

Master Cadet goes to Banff catering, reunion in report

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Mrs. Elwood Snow, Pam and Peter visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McCaskill near Cornwall last weekend.
Mr. Thomas Mack was able to return home from Guelph Hospital this week.
Gordon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith has the opportunity to spend six weeks at Cadet Camp in Banff this summer. Gordon spent four days at Ipperwash during spring vacation and received his Master Cadet standing. He is only 15 years old and deserves credit for his achievement.
The U.C.W. regular meeting was held on Tuesday, May 19, at the home of Mrs. K. Johnston in Georgetown. Miss Beatrice Hills had charge of the devotion period ending with a question and answer discussion on the discourse.

Mr. Perrot, principal of Holy Cross School, was the guest speaker. He talked of his work as teacher in an Indian school at Manitoulin giving a splendid word picture of Indian life and cultures. The social lunch hour was in charge of Mrs. Harry Shortill and Mrs. Jesse McEnery, assisted by the hostesses.
Ballinafad church ladies catered to two banquets recently. Saturday, May 16, the "Couples Group" of Dovercourt Baptist Church visited here and enjoyed a repast served by one group of the U.C.W. Then on Saturday, May 23, another party of 56 from St. Luke's Church, Islington arrived to be feasted and to end up with a party in our Community Centre.

A hot roast beef dinner was served with mashed potatoes, gravy, corn, peas, cabbage salad and the proverbial pie dessert. All of these good eatables were attacked with zest and many oh's and ah's expressions of enthusiasm. We are pleased to serve these friends from the city, who have been making this an annual excursion.
Messrs. Reg. and Delmar French, Bud Anderson, and Dick Shortill had a fishing trip north on the weekend.
Mrs. Jesse McEnery is visiting her brothers in United States, Rev's Joseph and Ross Dampier.

Ebenezer

Messengers planning variety program Friday

By Mrs. Ron McLean
Ebenezer Messengers (Mission Band) are putting on a variety program this Friday evening at 8:30. The leader, Mrs. Mervin Thomson, and the children have worked hard to prepare an interesting program. Everyone welcome.
Birthday greetings to Kathryn Gardner, Mark and Jane Munro, Rev. R. Finley's sermon told of Jesus' joy, over the power which the Holy Spirit gave to the 70 whom He appointed. (Luke 10: 1, 2, 16-24). Paul's second letter to the church at Corinth closes with the wonderful words, "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all." There are not words enough to tell what God is like. God makes Himself known in three ways: He is too big to pour into any formula. John Wesley said, "If you can tell me how three candles in a room make a general light, I'll tell you how the Trinity works. Augustine used the illustration of a child on the beach, digging a hole and pouring water into it. He said he was going to empty the ocean into the hole he had dug. We are like that child, when we try to explain the doctrine of the Trinity.

Some Arabs were left unimpressed by a visit to Paris. When they were taken to the Alps, they were amazed by the water running down the mountainside. When the guide got impatient, they said, "We're waiting for it to run out." The guide told them that the water had been running since the mountain had been there.
So it is with the Holy Spirit. It will refresh and renew people forever.

Greenland topic for new Rotarian

A new member of Acton Rotary club, Raymond Tracy showed several articles from the north Tuesday and talked on his work in Greenland with a construction consulting firm. A former American, he is now living in this area.
Colin Bunnell also talked on the construction industry to fellow members.
Club membership is now up to 29. Officers change at the end of June.
It was agreed to continue sending a student to Ottawa each year and to assist students in Acton. There will be a draw for a steer at the fall fair again, and other possible projects were discussed.

Mrs. Macpherson W.M.S. hostess

Members met at the home of Mrs. A. M. Macpherson for the May meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary, W.M.S. of Knox Church.
Miss Isabel Anderson presided and opened the meeting with a call to worship and the reading of a delightful poem, A Garden.
Mrs. Jean Graham and Mrs. R. M. MacDonald led in a service of worship and Miss R. C. Clark followed with a Meditation. In keeping with the Victoria Day observance, the members answered the roll call by replying to the question, "Why am I glad I live in Canada?" The responses showed a feeling of pride and of loyalty.
Plans were made for a June meeting at the home of Mrs. Jean Johnson.

Lucky draw winners at the local store's 45th anniversary sale were - 1st, $5 grocery voucher Mrs. Ralph Sinclair; 2nd, $3 grocery voucher James McDonald; 3rd, chocolates, Mrs. B. Poulson.

Ninety members of the Fellowship Club of Central Baptist Church, Oakville, held a car rally on Saturday evening. Twenty cars left Oakville with check points at Milton, Kelso Dam, Georgetown, Terra Cotta, Belfountain, Erin and on to Hillsburgh Baptist Church, where they were instructed to travel to the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Snyder on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Houghton were winners of the check points.
After all had viewed the glorious countryside and enjoyed the fresh country air, a bountiful lunch was served of hot dogs, sloppy joes, cookies, squares and coffee. Mr. and Mrs. W. Irwin conducted a devotional period around a huge bonfire.

After thanks were expressed for the pleasant evening, the members left for home, still marvelling in the beauty of the countryside.

PRIVATE GERALD BARNARD, son of Mrs. Jennie Barnard, R. R. 4, Acton, is congratulated by Colonel V. R. Schielderop, Deputy Commander 1 Combat Group Calgary. Private Barnard was the top candidate in his platoon on the Junior Non-Commissioned Officer's Course recently held at Sarcee Barracks, Calgary, Alberta.

Auction sale huge success

Acton Y's Men's annual auction sale, held at the rear of the Y.M.C.A. building Saturday was a huge success.

In addition to used articles up for sale, several new items donated by local businesses were auctioned off.

Jack Holmes and Harvey Tuffin handled auctioneering duties for the sale.

Y's Menettes also held a rummage sale in the gym and raised $250.
