Georgetown Golden Jets blanked Acton Angels 1-0 in a Halton-Peel Minor Soccer squirt game, played last Wednesday.

Play was very even in a first half that ended in a scoreless draw.

At the 10 minute mark of the second half, Angel goalie Garth Turner stopped a Georgetown penalty kick, but on the rebound Scott Hill scored to give the visitors the 1-0 win.

Bronto scored in the last five minutes of play.

Ron Turkosz was outstanding in goal for Acton.

Acton Comets dropped a 7-1 decision to Georgetown last Tuesday.

Comets played much better than the score indicated, however. The half-time score was only 1-0.

Randy Stewart scored Comets' lone goal.

Acton Civiero atoms trounced Acton Arrows 7-1 at the park, last Tuesday night.

Scott Malcolm opened the Civiero scoring at the 11 minute mark of the first half.

Jeff Shields made it 2-0 seven minutes later and Ron Guest took a pass from Craig Somerville to score Acton's third goal, before the half ended.

Steve Van Der Eyken booted home the only Arrow goal, after four minutes of play in the second half.

Pete Luty took Mike Dawson's pass to meet Civiero's fourth goal at the 11 minute mark.

Jeff Shields set up Luty for the fifth goal three minutes later, then scored the sixth and seventh goals himself to complete the scoring.

Acton Civiero's Atoms extended their winning streak to five with a 4-1 exhibition win over Georgetown Dynamos, last Tuesday night.

Jeff Shields opened the scoring on a penalty kick, then added another on a clean-cut breakaway a minute later.

Ron Guest scored from a scramble in front of the goal to make the score 3-0 at halftime.

Craig Somerville booted home the fourth Acton goal with a clean shot in the second half.

Georgetown applied the pressure and came up with their only goal in the dying moments of the game.

Acton: B. McPhail, B. Feenstra, D. Haverly, M. Dawson, R. Guest, K. Davis, J. Shields, K. Woodman, S. Malcolm, J. Allonby, P. Luty.

Subs: C. Somerville, D. Dunst, B. Shaw, B. Harding, B. Renshaw, D. Renshaw.

At Milton last week, Acton Civiero Hawks suffered their second straight loss 4-1, to Milton pee wees.

Hawks were behind early 2-0 but came on strong and Terry Slaven narrowed the count to 2-1, before Milton scored a hotly disputed goal just before half-time.

Hawks pressed for most of the second half; however, the only other goal of the game came on a Milton breakaway.

Best players for Acton were Dave Allen, Mike Luty and Steve Brunelle. Two Acton Mosquitoes recruited for the game, Nat Fields and Jim Gentles, turned in first class performances.

Acton Hawks: Bernie Taylor, Doug McGilloway, Dave Allen, Miky Luty, Bill Gentles, Steve Brunelle, Jim Gentles, Chris Tennant, Scott Somerville, Terry Slaven, Mike Topolevec, Nat Fields.

Georgetown Golden Hawks recorded a 3-0 shutout win over Acton Arrows, last week.

Billy Johnston scored the Georgetown goal at the eight minute mark of the first half.

Pat St. Laurent made it 2-0 after three minutes of play in the second half.

Billy Johnston completed the scoring on a pass from Eric Gordon at the 20 minute mark.

Acton Flyers dumped Bronto 3-1, last Tuesday.

Ricky Holmes opened the Acton scoring on a fine pass from Jim Gentles.

Then, Jim Gentles blasted Acton's second goal into the net off a free quick kick taken by Nat Field.

In the second half, Acton missed two penalties before a neat passing play between Nat Field and Jim Gentles was headed into the net by Ricky Holmes.

Hawks play their next game tomorrow (Thursday) night at M. Z. Bennett school against Oakville.

Station Hotel combed two run pitchers for 14 hits on their way to a 14-10 win in an Acton industrial softball league game, Thursday night.

A four run eighth inning wrapped up the victory for the hotelers. Highlight of the winning rally was a home run by Gary Masales.

Besides Masales' four ply smash, John Dunn and Rick Coe collected three hits apiece and Phil McCristall and Chick Milne two apiece for Station Hotel.

Manes and Lyon each hit safely twice for Erin.

Fred Archibald and Doug Lockerbie split pitching chores for the winners. The two righthanders combined to strike out four Erin batters.

Don Hall and Ken Steen hurled for Erin.

McAlpine made a fine one handed catch for Erin with the bases loaded in the bottom of the fifth.

John Dunn pulled off a fielding gem for Station Hotel in the seventh.

Rams bow to Mississauga but show improved checking

Mississauga PCO's grabbed a 7-2 first period lead, in Monday night's O.L.A. junior lacrosse tilt here, but the defending provincial junior "B" champs received all they could handle from the rejuvenated Acton Rams over the final two periods, before claiming a 19-12 victory.

Rams' checking, which had left a lot to be desired in previous outings showed a vast improvement in the final 40 minutes.

The locals who had been more like lambs than Rams, up until Monday night began to throw their weight around and the results were encouraging. PCO's top scorer Doug Chard was held to a lone goal and two assists.

Gary Turkosz in the Acton nets was brilliant in spite of the fact PCO's managed to score 19 times.

Dave Cooksley, Alan McKenzie and Chris Sargent a trio of rookies hustled right from the opening whistle and drew praise from coach Howard Dwyer.

"If the veterans played as well as those three we'd be in good shape," he commented.

Captain Bob Turkosz scored four goals and added an assist for Acton. Mike Marcoux fired a hat trick and Craig Weldon, Paul Cooper, Fred Flisnik, Bob Waller and Alan McKenzie netted one apiece.

Gary Turkosz and Bob Waller collected two assists each and Fred Flisnik, Bob Roughley, Mike Marcoux and George McPhail picked up one apiece.

For Mississauga Danny Cross scored five goals, Terry Williams four, Ramsey Fraser three, John Chandler two and Dale Patterson, Tim Denike, Doug Chard, Stew Beatty and Keith Strum one apiece.

Rams served 15 penalties and PCO's sat out 12.

Three players Fred Bares, Stu McCulloch and Mike Cooper all nursing various injuries will be missing from Rams' lineup when they travel to Flora to face the Mohawks, Saturday night.

over for the next three laps.

Hugh Eckerich in No. 13 started in 10th place, but was able to take over the lead on the 7th lap and hold it the rest of the way to take his first feature win of the season.

Chuck Lawlor was able to take second place again this week. This is the second week in a row he has played bridesmaid in the feature. Larry Bain took third place.

Miss Acton Speedway was chosen today. She is Sue Cussaboom from West St. in St. George.

The six cylinder feature was also run off very well today. Tom Nellis No. 29 spun out on the third lap, but was able to get back in without losing too much ground. Lawrence Majurey in No. 7 started in 10th position and by the 3rd lap had taken over the lead to make this his fifth feature win in a row. Tom Neil was able to capture 2nd while Larry Cowan held down third spot. Larry Cox in No. 56 was running in third place, when he blew his rad, so he had to settle for fifth.

Chuck Lawlor started in 8th place to come through and take the semi, with Larry Bain second and Richard Bentley third.

The powder puff had only a minor accident. Susie Simpson driving No. 11 cut in too quickly and ran into Bernie Majurey in No. 7. Majurey had to retire. No. 14 started in pole position and held it all the way to take the checkered flag with D. Rondeau second and Mable Barton third.

By Vivian Shaw.

Another successful day, has gone into the records at Acton Speedway.

Our eight cylinder feature was run very well today, with only one restart on the second lap, when Ron Overlandin No. 11 went over the end between No. 3 and No. 4 turns. He had to retire with difficulties.

Ed Stewart in No. 1 had wound his way up to fifth spot, when he had to retire with a flat tire.

Bob Horen in No. 40 started outside pole but was only able to hold the lead for one lap, when Larry Bain in No. 19 took

The Demo derby had its thrills and spills today with Brian Hill of Georgetown (our starter) and Ray Nellis of Acton battling it out till the bitter end. Ray Nellis finally drove his car to the starter's stand and was declared the official winner.
