

Miss Bennett's birthday observed at I.O.D.E. tea

90th BIRTHDAY CAKE for Miss M. Z. Bennett was a highlight of the Duke of Devonshire chapter of the I.O.D.E. tea last week at the home of Mrs. Gordon Johnson. Helping Miss Bennett cut her cake is her senior by a few months, Mrs. R. M. MacDonald. Both are charter members of the town's senior chapter. — (Staff Photo)

A charter member of the Duke of Devonshire chapter of the I.O.D.E., Miss M. Z. Bennett cut her 90th birthday cake a couple of weeks early. She was honored at the chapter's 54th anniversary tea Tuesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Gordon Johnson. Her 90th birthday is actually August 4.

Former principal here, Miss Bennett now lives in Parkwood Manor, Kitchener.

Another charter member of the chapter, Mrs. R. M. MacDonald, observed her 90th birthday recently. The cake was beautifully decorated by talented chapter recent Mrs. George Young.

Members of the town's "Junior" chapter, Lakeside, were guests. There were coronas for both chapters, Miss Bennett and Mrs. MacDonald of the Duke of Devonshire and from Lakeside, Mrs. Isabel Watson, Mrs. Marguerite Taylor, Mrs. George Musselle and Mrs. R. Spielvogel. Corsages were taken to two members of the Duke of Devonshire chapter who were unable to attend, Mrs. G. A. Dilts and Mrs. Leslie.

Lakeside regent Mrs. Orr poured tea. Joe Petric, a long-time neighbor of Miss Bennett, spoke on his recent trip to Ottawa and played the accordion. As well as a special dedication for Miss Bennett he played the timely Happy Birthday.

Mrs. Ward Bruce, Mrs. Johnson's sister, gave amusing recitations.

Grade eight banquets here

Robert Little grade eight graduation banquet is being held tonight (Wednesday) and the M. Z. Bennett banquet tomorrow evening (Thursday). Both schools are having a supper, short program and dance after. This is the first year two separate programs have been held. Pictures next week.

Plan family picnic

The Nassagaweya Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. K. Knight, Guelph Line, on Wednesday evening there was a good attendance of members and several visitors. Mrs. Pyatt, the president, opened the meeting with the ode and Mary Stewart collect and the roll call was answered by naming a prominent woman in public affairs.

Mrs. De Blauw gave a full report on the District Annual held in Hillcrest Church in May. Mrs. Young reported on two meetings she had attended, one being a workshop on resolutions.

Some requests were made for institute pins and an order will be sent. Plans were made for holding of a family picnic at Hattieshake Point in July. Our Branch will have an exhibit at the Milton fall fair "The Bride's Hope Chest" and arrangements were made for this.

An announcement was read regarding a community quilting bee to be held at the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Knight as convener for the meeting introduced Miss Hilda Clark from the Halton Board of Education. Miss Clark showed slides and told how sex education is explained to the junior pupils in school. Some slides showed the devices used in the schools to teach the pupils co-ordination, skill in planning and construction and self education.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Mullen and Mrs. Roberts served refreshments and Mrs. Mullen thanked the hostess for her hospitality. Miss Clark for her instructive contribution and all others who took part in the meeting.

Health topic

Mrs. Charles Thomson, Westcott Road Acton, was hostess for the meeting of Dublin Women's Institute last Thursday evening.

The opening exercises were presided over by the president Mrs. M. M. McCullough. The roll call was responded to by 'a good health habit' and many suggestions were made as to wise methods of having good health and keeping it. Mrs. C. McIntyre the secretary, also read the correspondence.

Mental Health bags were distributed on behalf of Mrs. H. Hlyth the convener.

Final plans were announced for the annual bus trip which is scheduled for Monday, June 22. Mrs. C. Britton is convener of the committee.

Another successful booth at an auction sale at the Sales Arena was reported by Mrs. W. Britton who handed in the proceeds.

A fine report of the District Annual held at Pinecrest United Church the latter part of May was given by Mrs. M. Nellis, District Director. Later she gave a report of a District Director's meeting she had attended in Milton recently.

Mrs. B. Rennie, as health convener, played a record just in case you think you are Normal. It was an after-dinner address by Dr. Banks a leading American psychologist, who said much of a person's general health is governed by his or her mental attitude. His address was interspersed with much humor and included much food for thought. Two well chosen poems were Mrs. O. Manes' talented number for the month. These were read by Mrs. M. Hunter. A lunch of angel cake strawberries and ice-cream was served by the hostess Mrs. C. Thomson assisted by Mrs. A. Near, Mrs. M. McCullough and Mrs. J. C. Dennis. Mrs. M. Hunter was courtesy convener.
