

SYD LAMB

Free Press advertising praised by realtor House on road will swap land

One advertiser who is mighty happy over results from Free Press ads is realtor Syd Lamb. His firm has been selected as an affiliate of AIMS, the American Institute of Marketing Systems and a series of advertisements in the Free Press have got results that astounded the Acton realtor.

AIMS is a nation-wide association of real estate brokers offering marketing, merchandising, and referral services. As a member of AIMS, the local firm can now offer additional services and many modern real estate concepts, plus national exposure for local real estate listings. Important to the program, in which each AIMS affiliate participates, is the national award home system which allows prospective buyers who will be moving to the area, the opportunity for some armchair house-hunting. The method works in reverse for families moving to another city.

All services are free to both buyer and seller.

The AIMS affiliation puts the local office in contact with the home buyers throughout the nation. If a residential property is approved for sale, out-of-town prospects can inspect picture brochures of approved properties, along with general information on the many advantages of local residence, prior to making a trip to the city.

But the secret for selling the new program belongs to advertising, which Syd Lamb attests found exceptional results in the pages of the Free Press.

First accident several weeks

After several weeks with no accidents in town, police investigated one Saturday morning. Two cars were in collision at the corner of Church and Main Sts. and total damage was about $330.

Drivers were Frank Horton, Main St. and Robert Henry Besley, R. R. 4, Acton. There were no injuries.

House on road will swap land

Esqueuing council will send a recommendation to County Council to go along with Peel and Chinguacousy township in setting a road allowance which cuts right through the house of the Warren family on the town line between Esqueuing and Chinguacousy.

Mrs. Warren appeared before the township council Monday to ask that Esqueuing go along with Chinguacousy and Peel allowing the family to trade 33 feet of road allowance from Peel for 33 feet they can buy from the Credit Valley Conservation Authority, which goes the depth of the lot.

Mrs. Warren said the county road committee would give them a Quit Claim deed if they sold 33 foot strip to the conservation authority.

"Do you think any one of us will be around when they open up the road?" asked Reeve Currie with a grin.

"Not likely," said the deputy-reeve, "we'll all be pushin' up daisies then."

EDEN MILLS

New homes built another moved here

By Mrs. R. Wright
Campers at the Lutheran Camp in Eden Mills were from Guelph, Hamilton, Kitchener, Waterloo, Toronto, Broadhagen, Brantford and Stratford.

Paisley Memorial Church, Guelph, held their annual picnic at Edgewood Park.

Four Lutheran churches in Hamilton combined for their picnic at Edgewood Park last week, with 350 attending, from Grace Lutheran Church, Faith Lutheran Church, Holy Cross Lutheran Church and Transfiguration Lutheran Church.

Counselors held a training week recently at the camp.

Building in Eden Mills has been quite steady and several houses are being erected. An unfamiliar sight last week was a house being moved here from Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Woodhouse left Tuesday by plane for a three weeks' visit to the British Isles.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Hamer are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cole, Santiago California, also Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nyman of Blind River.

Mr. Alex McIntosh of Montreal has been visiting with Mrs. Janet McIntosh. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson were at a cottage at Apsley over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Montgomery have returned from Ottawa on holidays.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wuk Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Spinks Hamilton.

Don't waste money on insurance

It's a fact: some businesses are over-insured... with overlapping insurance policies. Others are dangerously under-insured.

Because your business involves customers and suppliers, inventory and equipment, bad debts, liability, taxes, employees, etc., etc., you need a business insurance expert.

We know how to plan your business coverage so you have just the insurance you need and no more.

Seek owners
Acton police would be pleased to hear from the owners of two items that were turned in to them this week — a transistor radio and some money. Can the persons who lost them give more details, for identification?

Pave road
The road from No. 7 highway under the subway into Crewsons Owners is being paved, under an agreement between Esqueuing and Nassagaweya townships. There have been continual problems there in the past few years due to the drainage.
