Scarboro 19-3 romp nightmare for Rams

It was just one of those nights, when everything goes wrong. To start with, Acton Rams got caught in a traffic jam and arrived late for the second game of their Junior "C" final series in Scarboro Thursday night. Then there was a further 10 minute delay, while they waited for an available dressing room. When the game finally did get underway, it was only seven minutes and 25 seconds, before Ram captain Bob Turkoz was high-sticked and suffered a broken nose, forcing him to leave the game.

From there on, Scarboro coasted to an easy 19-3 win over the locals and took a two game lead in the best of seven series. No allia In spite of all the misfortune, Ram coach Howard Dwyer offered no excuses for his team's loss. "It was one of the worst games we've played this year. I don't think we had 20 decent shots on net," he commented. Lone bright spot for Rams was the play of the Bob Roughley, Craig Weldon, Chris Sargent line. Weldon scored his first goal of the playoffs. Stu McCulloch, Roughley, Sargent and goalie

Gary Turkoz earned assists. Rod McEachern took over goaltending duties from Turkoz for the last seven minutes of the game. Hutchison nets four Doug Hutchison scored four goals for the winners. Jim Browne and Gord Baxter fired a hat trick apiece, Barry Rowswell, Dunc Farguharson and A. MacDairmid two each and Dan Keere, Colin Reid and Mike Healy one each. ## Barens nets three but Rams bow

There's no tomorrow for Acton Rams. Either they win the fourth game of their O.L.A. Junior "C" series in Scarboro tonight (Wednesday), or they pack away their gear for the season. Scarboro juniors took a 3-0 lead in games in the best of seven provincial final, humpling the locals 15-6, before a crowd of 400 here Monday night. Rams trailed only 3-2 at the end of the first period and 5-3 after two stanzas, and appeared to be making a comeback, when Bob Waller set up Fred Barens for his third goal of the game at the 49 second mark of the third period.

Penalties hurt Rams However, the visitors took advantage of a rash of Acton penalties to net 10 goals and wrap up the win. Rams served 20 of the 34 penalties in the game. Gary Turkoz turned in a creditable performance in the Acton nets, in spite of the score. Bob Andrews, Bob Gowland and Bob Waller scored the other three Acton goals. Gary Turkoz and Mike
