

TROPHIES AND RIBBONS shown in this picture represent only a small portion of the awards Harry and Sylvia Foley's prize foxhounds have won at shows both in Canada and the United States. "Duke" and "Tally" were big favorites with visitors, especially youngsters at Sunday's Sportsmen's Show. The mother of the dogs is a former national champion.—(Staff Photo)

YOUNG DAVID LOGAN'S attention was focused on the beautifully designed radio-controlled sailboats, that were brought to town as an added attraction for Sunday's Sportsmen's Show. The boats drew a large number of spectators to the shores of Fairy Lake, at the far end of Prospect Park.—(Staff Photo)

TWO CONTESTANTS in the combat division vie for honors in the Acton HI-Flyers model airplane competition, Sunday.—(Photo by Jim Jennings)

The Acton Free Press

Ninety-Sixth Year. — No. 11

ACTON, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1970

SECOND SECTION

THE HENSHAW BROTHERS, Don (left) of Ormstown Quebec and Harold (right) of Waterloo, had one of the outstanding displays at the Antique Gun

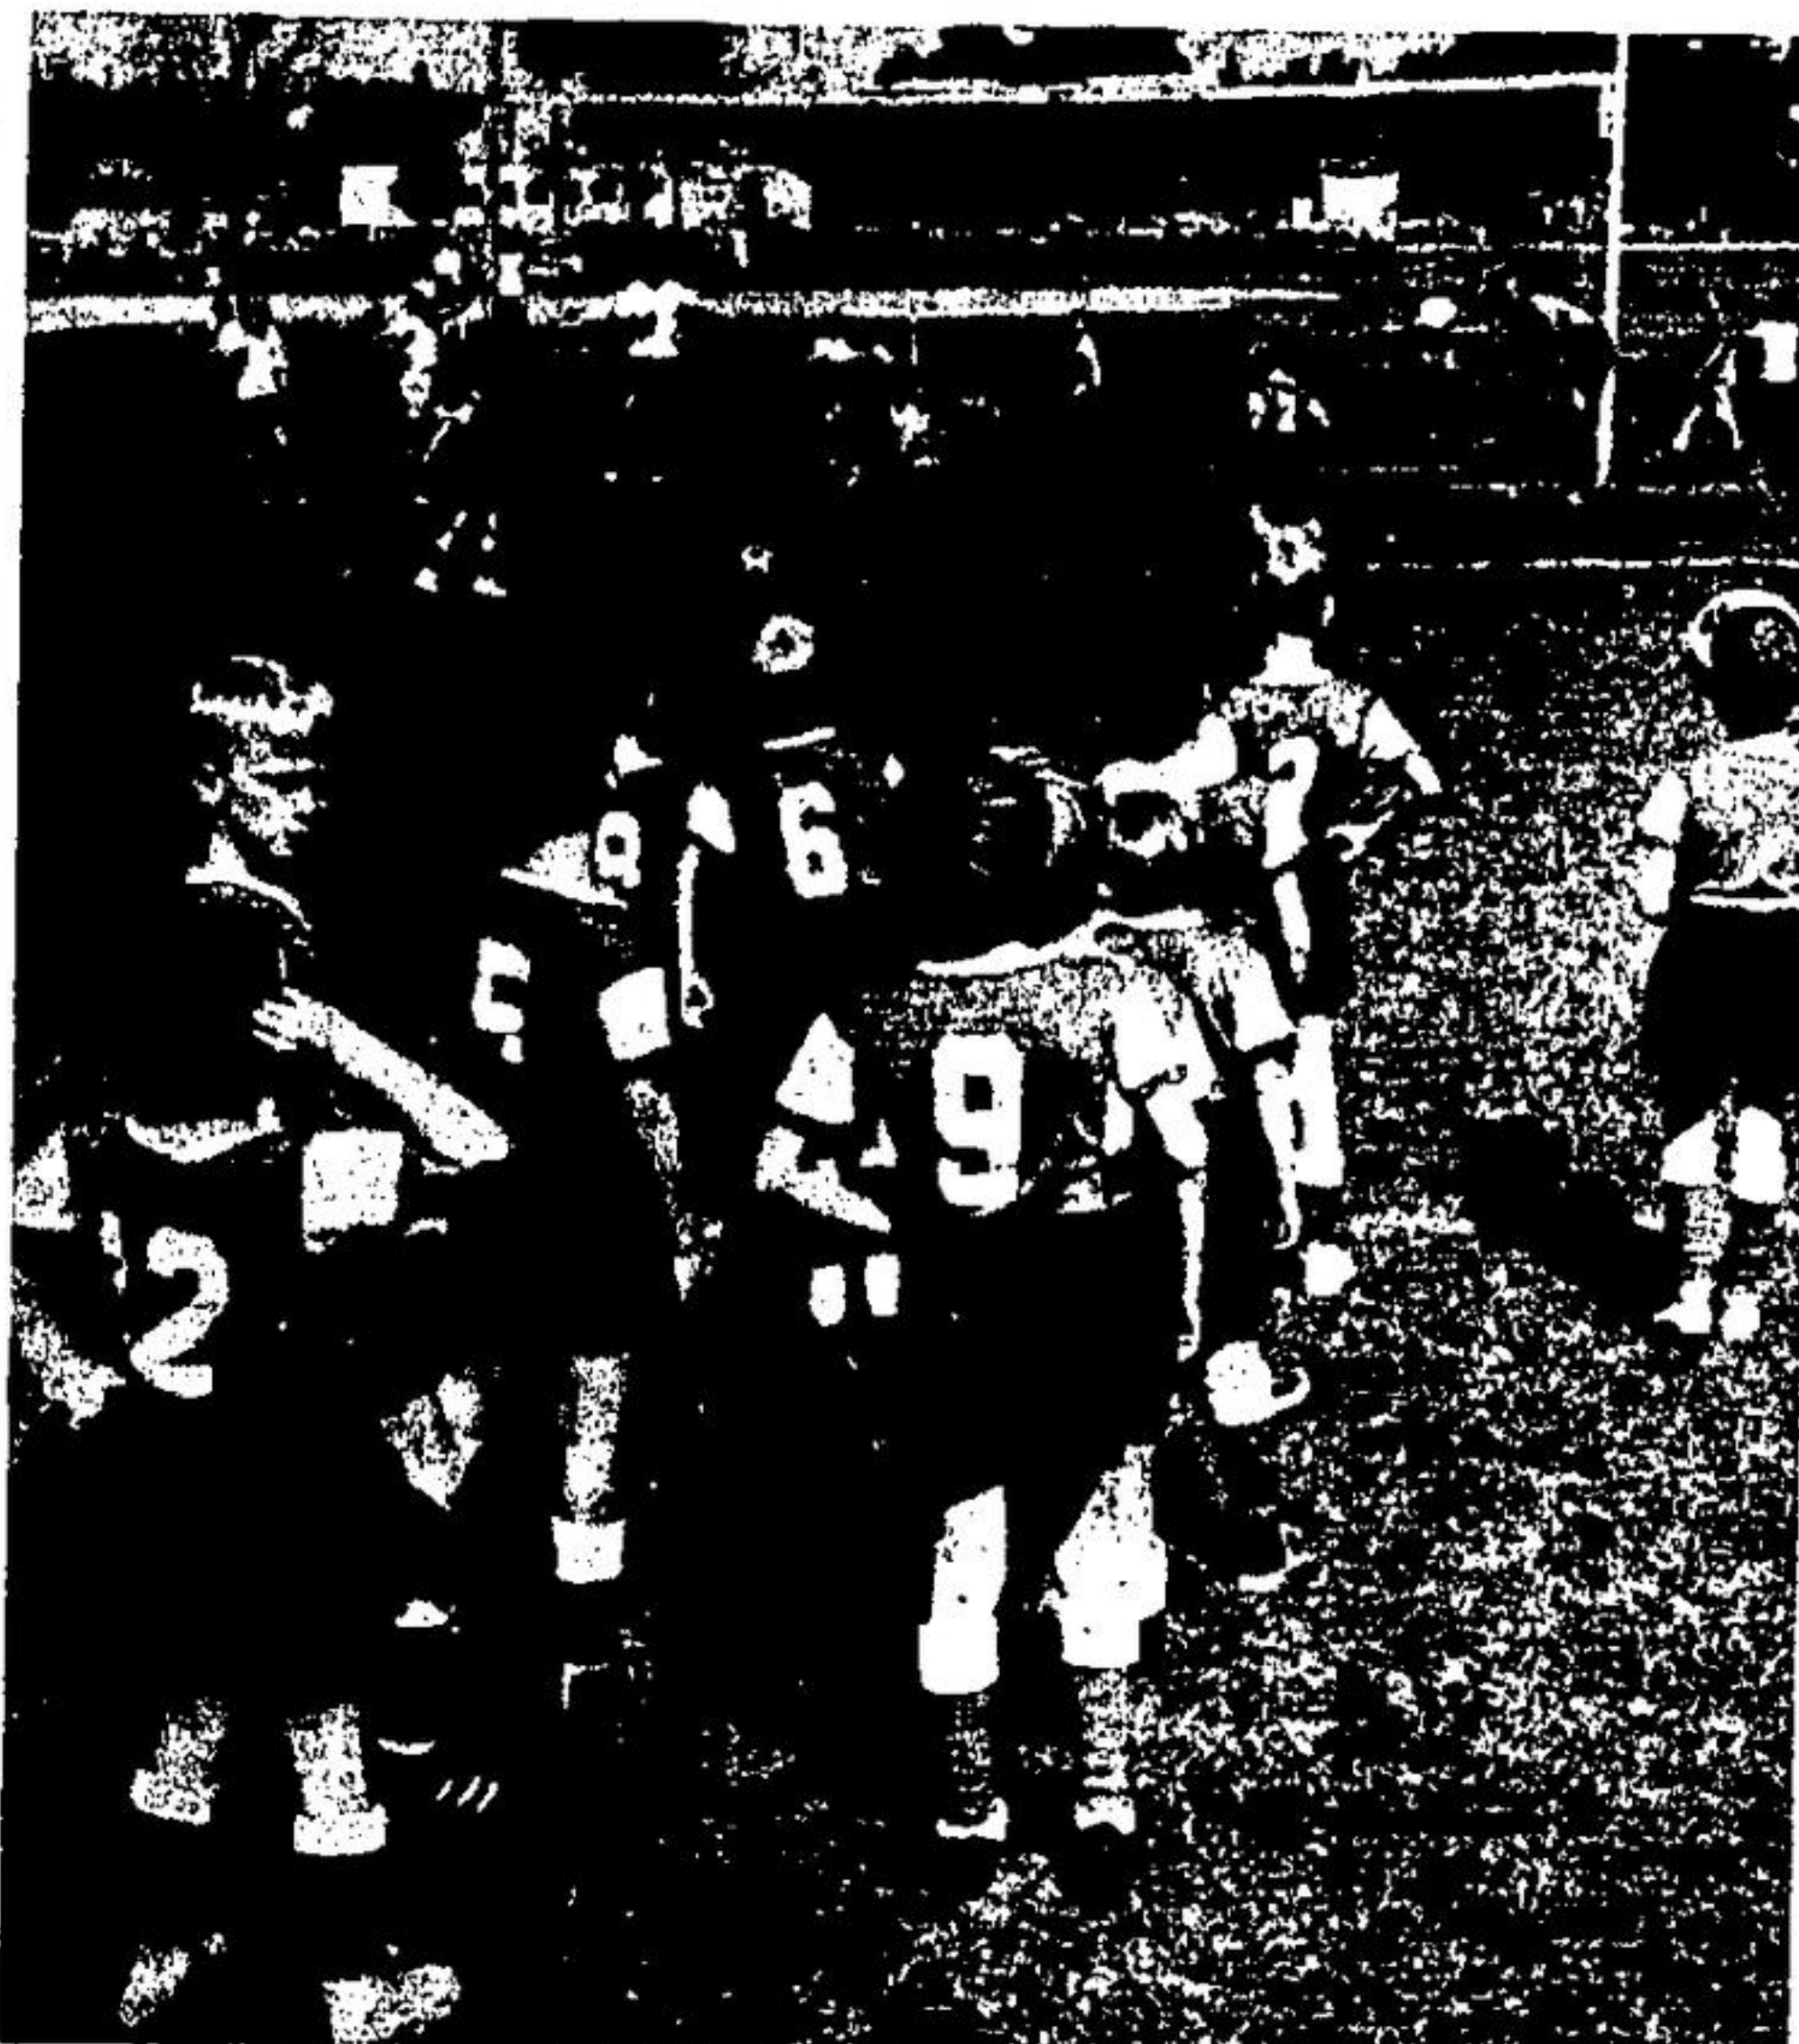

Show in the community centre, Sunday. Both are members of the Halton Antique Arms Association.—(Staff Photo)

Sportsmen's show snaps

ACTON HI-FLYERS' model airplane combat competition attracted a large portion of the crowd attending Sunday's Sportsmen's Show.—(Staff Photo)

ACTON ANGELS SQUIRTS (six to eight year olds) amazed spectators at Sunday's Sportsmen's Show with the orderly warmup routine they went through, before their game with

Georgetown. The Acton lads gave a good account of themselves, although dropping a 2-0 decision to the hand-picked Georgetown outfit.—(Staff Photo)

PRETTY GIRLS and radio-controlled sailboats drew second glances from spectators at Sunday's Sportsmen's Show. Maggie Busch, a member of K-W Metro Marine Modelers Club, was one of the many visitors in town for the show.—(Staff Photo)

PETER NELSON tees off at the Acton Meadows' sponsored driving range at Sunday's Sportsmen's Show.—(Staff Photo)

ACTON HI-FLYERS president Ron Malcolm (centre), kept records for contest director George Blisson (right) of Toronto, while Ron McKnight handled announcing chores for the model airplane combat exposition, at Sunday's successful Sportsmen's Show.—(Staff Photo)

FAIRY LAKE'S SPARKLING waters provided an ideal setting for the demonstration of the ten rater class of radio-controlled sailboats at Sunday's

Sportsmen's Show. The boats sailed around a triangular course, in a windward direction.—(Photo by Jim Jennings)