

A HUGE CANDY floss and a stuffed poodle were a handful for five year old Ann Markham of Acton.—(Staff Photo)

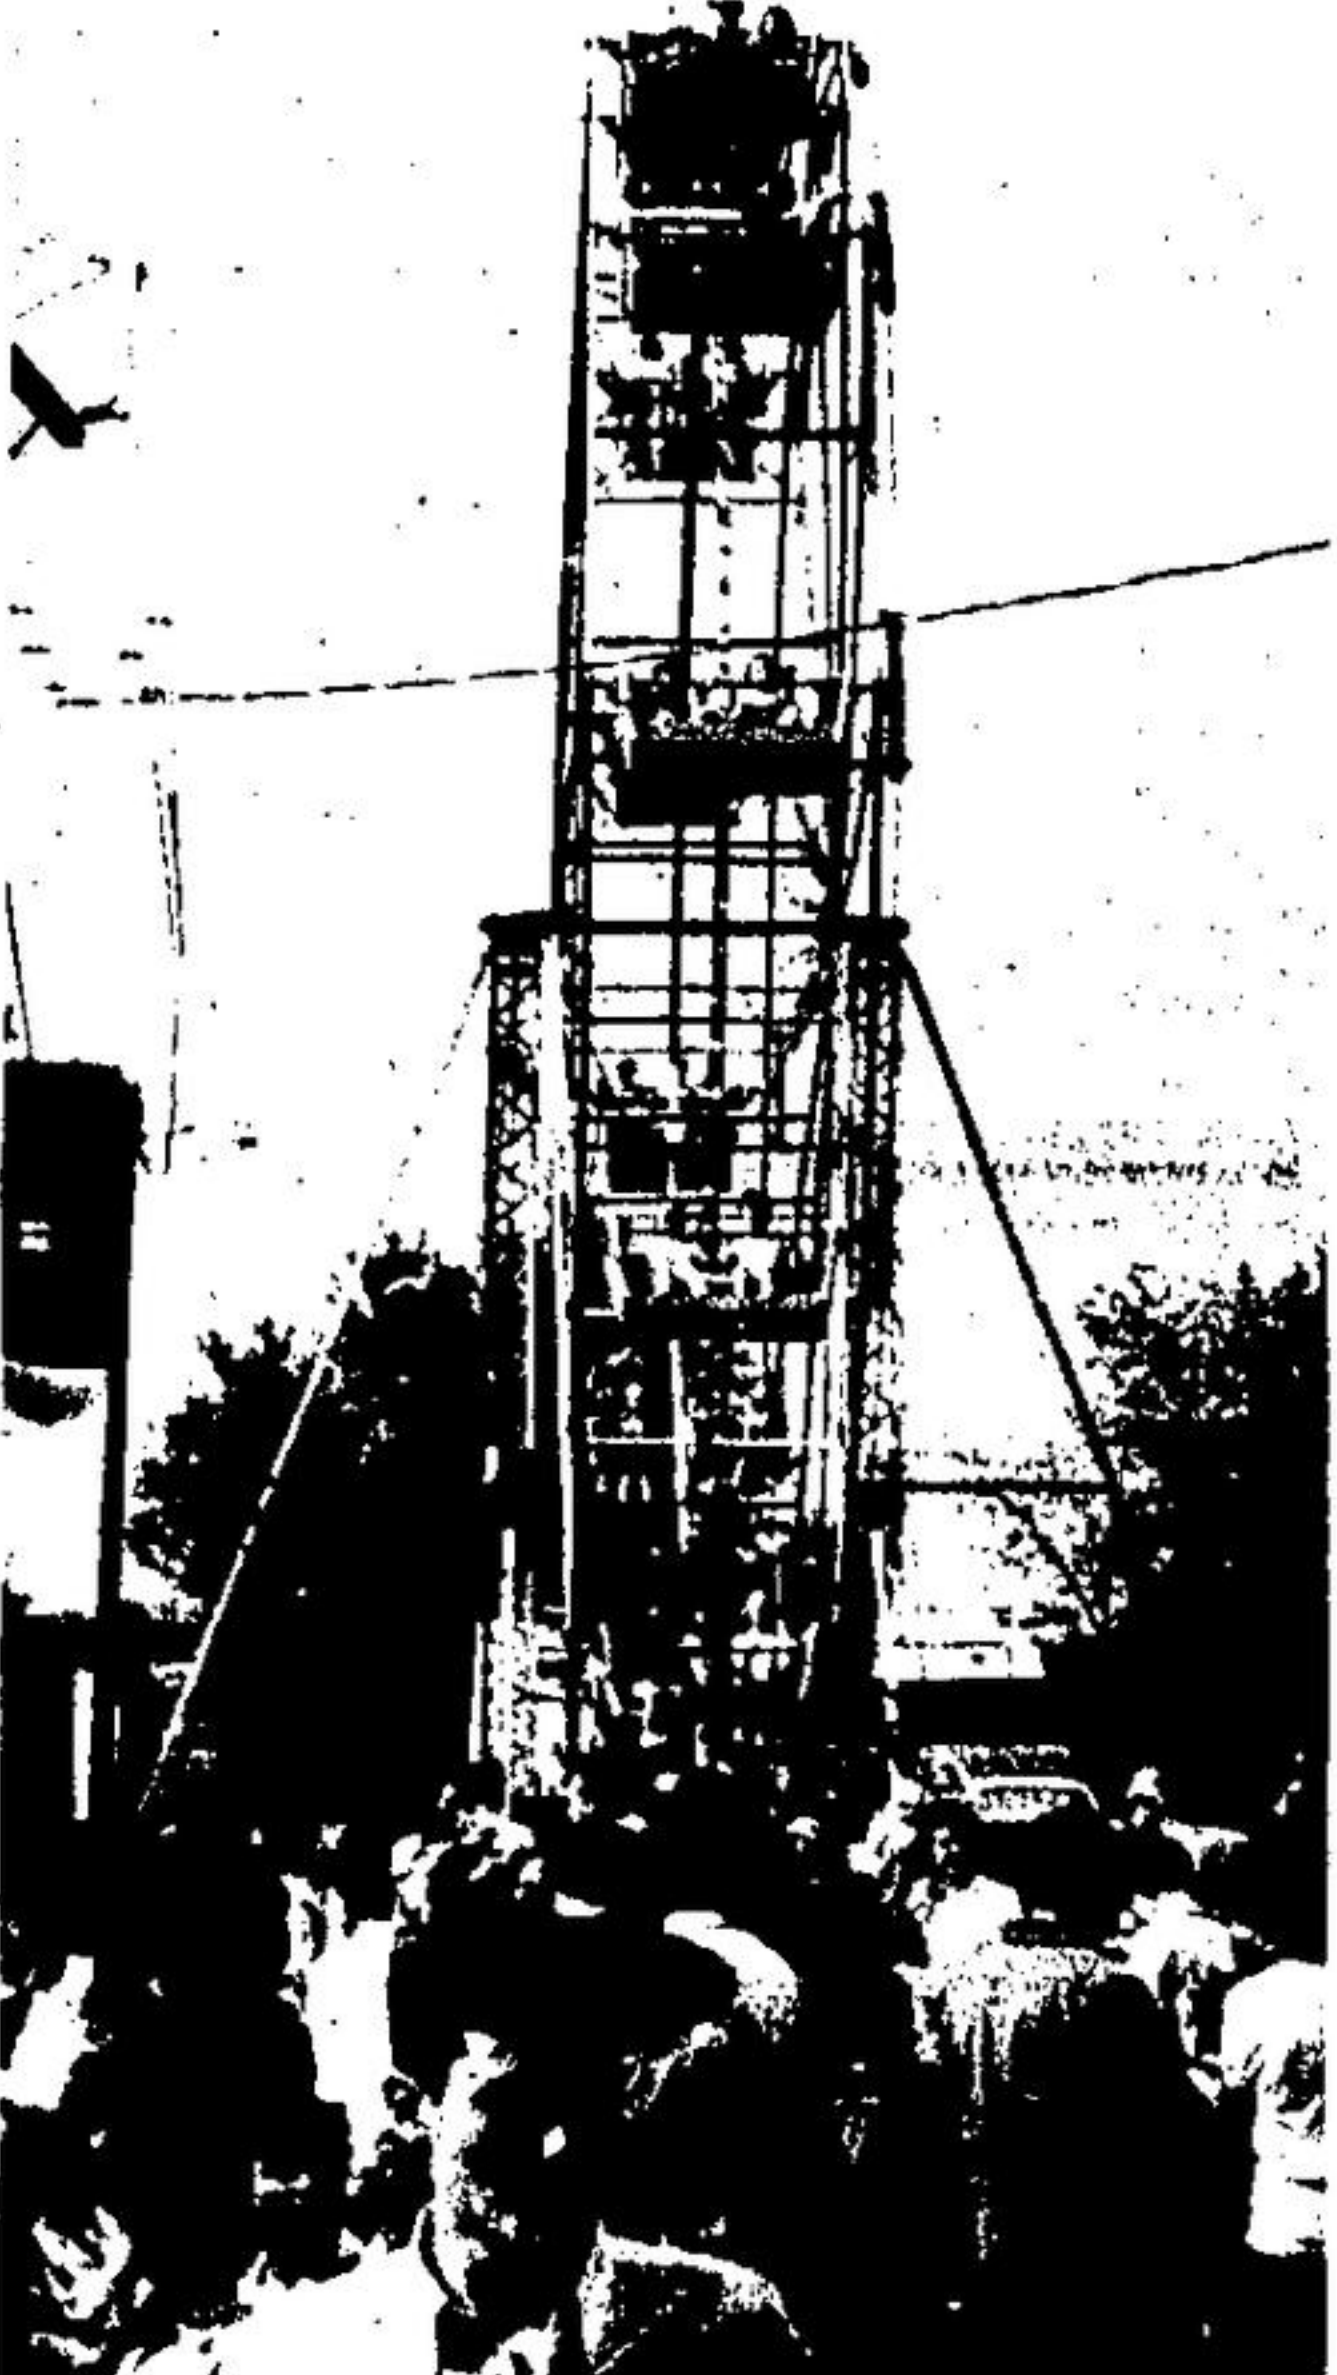

MIDWAY RIDES attracted thousands at Saturday's Fall Fair and kept going well into Saturday evening. The midway started operation Thursday, was crowded

Friday and Saturday with line-ups for the various rides. Operators were pleased with the reception.—(Photo by W. Stuckey)

VEGETABLE DISPLAY at the Fair is admired by Mayor and Mrs. Les Duby.—(Staff Photo)

AN IMPORTANT part of any Fall Fair, the ferris wheel attracted long lineups of eager customers, throughout the day, Saturday.—(Staff photo)

THERE WAS a "fair" amount of entries in Saturday's Fair jumping competitions. This mount cleared the first hurdle but balked at the remainder.—(Staff Photo)

FAIR DAYS

JODY DE VRIES of R. R. 4, Acton, enjoyed the Fair, especially the balloons.—(Staff Photo.)

THE HON. George Kerr, M.P.P. for Halton West, officially opened the 57th annual Acton Fall Fair Friday evening.—(Staff Photo.)

THREE OF THE top poultry showmen at Saturday's Fair were l. to r. Gordon Ridler of R.R. 1 Guelph, who had the champion bantam, Fred Kentner Jr.

with the champion white leghorn and Fred Kentner Sr. with the champion brown leghorn.—(Staff Photo)

WHEN TWO GIRLS get into a midway ride they hold on tight but can manage a smile for the camera.—(Staff Photo)

MUSICAL RIDE by Almar Stables, near Palermo, won a feature of the Saturday afternoon program at the

Fair. The group came gratis and thrilled spectators.—(Photo by W. Stuckey)

DI DUNCAN of Rockwood competed in Acton Fair's Saturday's horse show on her favorite mount.—(W. Stuckey Photo)