Georgetown gains two minor soccer titles

By Charlie Thomson
Georgetown teams walked off with two championships, while squads from Oakville and Bronte each copped one title in the Halton-Peel Minor Soccer finals, played at the Acton District High School pitch Saturday.

Georgetown Cyclones whitewashed Oakville 9-0 in the atom championship game. Georgetown Rangers blanked Bronte by a similar score to win the pee wee title. Bronte bantams nipped Oakville 1-0 in the bantam championship match.

Mosquitoes most exciting
Most exciting match of the day was the mosquito championship which ended in a 1-1 draw, but was won in overtime by Oakville United, who had two corner kicks to Georgetown's one in the 20 minute session of extra time.

All-out effort
Both teams played their hearts out in the overtime, which was played 10 minutes each way, but Oakville managed to get one more corner kick than their opponents and were awarded the win. James Lindsay was outstanding in goal for Georgetown. Georgetown Rangers built up a 6-0 halftime lead and added three more second half goals to wrap up the pee wee championship. Denis DeCosta bounced back to play a fine game in goal for Bronte, after bruising his leg early in the first half, however. Mike Deare and Charlie Knoepfl each scored two goals for the winners. Willie Stelke, John Butler, Kevin Reeks, Gary McFadyen and Doug Thompson added one apiece for the powerful Georgetown eleven.

Bantam game surprise
Although they were beaten by Bronte by high scores throughout the regular season, Oakville bantams surprised everyone by holding the same team to a scoreless draw during the first half of the bantam final. Henry Spekking scored the only goal of the game from Bronte in the second half, at the 16 minute mark on a shot that Oakville goalie Ben Bennick misjudged. Bennick was outstanding for the remainder of the game. Play moved quickly from one end of the pitch to the other and the result was in doubt right up until the final whistle.

Cyclones win easily
Georgetown Cyclones, who had ousted coach Dave Dawson's Acton Civero atom crew by closer scores, in the league semifinals, romped to an easy 9-0 win to capture the atom championship.
Bill Gentles' Acton mosquitoes were eliminated in the semifinals by the same Georgetown team that lost the heart-breaking overtime game to Oakville United.
Halton-Peel Minor Soccer president Iain Galbraith of Acton convened the finals, the first ever held here. Mayor Les Duby was on hand to help with trophy presentations.

Lawlor recovers from spin-out to capture late model feature

By Vivian Shaw
In today's late model feature, Jim Waters took over the lead on the first lap and held it for five laps, when Steve Ptocto came through and took over the lead, on the sixth lap. Chuck Lawlor spun out on the ninth lap but was able to get back in, losing only one place. On the tenth lap the red flag was thrown, when Ed Stewart spun between number one and two turns. He had to pull out with problems.
On the flying restart it was Ptocto, Nicholls and Wallace. Chuck Lawlor took the lead on the fifteenth lap and held it to take another feature with Steve Ptocto second and Murray Wallace third.

Our six cylinder feature ran off with a little excitement. On the first lap Everett Cowan spun out with Jim Ellis running into him and losing his bumper. The race had just gone one lap when there was a five car pile-up. Larry Cox got scratched, as he had spun out to start the fun. Everett Cowan was the only one to retire. He had front end problems. George Wrigglesworth took over the lead on the fifth lap and held it to take the feature with Larry Majury second and John Falka third.

The Sportsman feature saw the red flag thrown on the first lap when Byron Richardson spun and Alex Gunn ran into him. Richardson had a flat tire but had it changed in time for him to get back into his position.
On the eleventh lap the red flag was thrown again as Alex Gunn had run off the track between three and four turns and was trying to get back on again. Nick Lapceovich took over the lead on the fifth lap and held it all the way to take the 25 lap feature, with Pete Bennett pushing hard all the way. Pete had to settle for second place with Al Bowman taking third place honors.
