The Ladies' Legion Auxiliary to Branch 197 celebrated their 25th anniversary on Saturday evening.

A dinner was catered to by the men of the Branch followed by entertainment and a dance.

Flowers, plates

Over 60 women attended the affair, each receiving a corsage, and later they were presented with a plate with the Branch Crest on it from the men.

Guests were present from Georgetown, Oakville, Bramalea and Brampton. Guest speakers were Max Storey, Mayor Duby and Zone Commander Cmd. Ruth Finley. President Bob Angell was chairman and Cmd. Doug Mason was chief cook for the affair.

Five delegates attend convention

Fern Shultis, Lois Gordon, Phyllis Angell, Janet Rogers and Eileen Wedge attended the 34th convention of the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary in Niagara Falls for four days last week. Total money raised by the Auxiliaries in Ontario was $1,297,502.15, they learned.

Gold spoon

At their meeting last Wednesday, members of Knox church Heather Club presented member Jean Leishman with a gold tea spoon, on the occasion of the Leishmans' golden wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Mervin Nossett is a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

Rev. A. W. Pasbury is having hip surgery in Toronto Western hospital. Friends send best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Aitken of Waterloo, who were married in Ottawa earlier this month, were guests of honor last Saturday evening at a family party when the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Aitken entertained 40 relatives at their home. Guests from the Acton district, also from Toronto, Port Credit, Georgetown, Guelph and Waterloo were present to meet the newlyweds.

Mrs. Bert Mowat and Mrs. Grace Reed attended the exhibit in McLaughlin's library of Guelph's famous, well-loved artist Evan MacDonald who is to be awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree next Friday at the University of Guelph. They came away awed at the versatility and beauty of scenes and people.

Mr. Wiseman, father of Mrs. Van Gils is a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

Mr. A. Butcher of Oakawa spent Thursday in Acton and enjoyed visiting familiar areas and seeing all the changes since he and Mrs. Butcher left Acton in 1938.

W.I. bursaries

The Halton County Women's Institute have named two girls winners of their annual educational bursaries. Miss Lois McNabb of R. R. 3 Georgetown won the first prize $50 bursary. She will be attending McMaster University, General Science first year and will major in mathematics.

Miss Janet Elizabeth Nurse, R. R. 2 Georgetown, won second prize, a $40 bursary. She is taking a four year degree course at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute, in T.V. and Radio Broadcasting.

Susan Somerville 4-H president

By Ruth Kirkwood
The Barnockburn 4-H Club held their first meeting at the home of Thelma, Linda and Ruth Kirkwood on Sat., Sept. 26, with 18 members attending.

The meeting was opened with the 4-H pledge, followed by the election of officers, with results as follows:

President, Susan Somerville; vice president, Sharon Ellerby; secretary, Linda Kirkwood; treasurer, Debi Shaw; press reporter, Ruth Kirkwood; telephone committee, Kathy Fuchs and Brenda Kingsmill. Our leader is Mrs. Lois Henderson from Brampton.

Several names were suggested for the club, but we decided to leave the final decision until the next meeting. Each club member is required to do a "Learning Stitches" article as well as a free choice one. A discussion was held on the history of embroidery.

Leader, Lois Henderson showed the various colour schemes and advised about the colours, and type of fabric we should use for our learning stitches article. The next meeting will be held at the home of Jeannette Cox.
