Suspect rabies, destroy dogs presentation, business in news

By Mrs. H. Shortill Miss Maggie Given is attending Sheridan College at Oakville and commuting each day with the other girls attending from here. Sandra Hancock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hancock, was in Georgetown Hospital this week for a tonsillectomy.

Dogs destroyed Some of our local canines had to be destroyed because of suspected contact with a rabid wild animal. Mr. William Smith began his business in Hillsburg this week, when he took over Duncan's Barber Shop there. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Foster were fortunate in winning several prizes at the local fairs.

Live in Germany Mr. and Mrs. Steinhausen and Becky sailed on Saturday for Hanover, Germany, where they plan to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Portello and two young children moved here last weekend to Steinhausen's former home. We welcome them to our neighborhood.

Miss Jane Watson, Acton, spent Sunday with Karen Shortill. The two girls visited Karen's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Thompson at Everton Corners, for a while on Sunday. Karen has been helping out part-time at Watson's restaurant on weekends.

New house Mr. Henry Barnett began excavation for a house on Saturday on the lot he recently bought next E. Logan.

Mr. Henry Portello is in Guelph Hospital for surgery. We wish him a safe recovery.

Dinner visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Metcalfe on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Russel Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Freuhler.

Over 300 enjoy turkey dinner W.I. meeting held at Erin home

By Mrs. A. Benton The W. I. held the first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Elberly in Erin. She served a lovely hot meal at the dinner hour, and the meeting with eight attending followed.

President Mrs. F. T. C. Brown opened with A Job for Every Woman and the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect were said in unison.

Club leaders President and secretary announced Mrs. Neil Anderson and Mrs. Bruce Lindsay would be 4-H Club leaders in the next project. Silverwood and Ballinafad would join Limehouse for a short course Choosing and Using Fabrics on Nov. 3, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Limehouse Memorial Hall. The annual W.I. convention would be held in Guelph on Oct. 19 and 20 with Mrs. Neil Anderson as delegate. A Halton District Day is being planned this fall.

Began small Mrs. A. W. Benton, convener of Citizenship and Education, took over the remainder of the meeting. Roll call was answered by naming one's first school teacher and a memory of her. Current events were read by Mrs. Elberly, and Mrs. Roughley explained the motto, Big Oaks from Little Acorns Grow. She said the W.I. began small and grew and grew, etc. She ended with In the Beginning by Wilhelmina Stitch and Conveners of standing committees each reported an item.

Kindergarten methods Mrs. Benton read paragraphs concerning kindergarten and displayed charts and work on the teaching methods all prepared by Mrs. Bert Benton.

Mrs. Mitchell extended courtesies and the meeting closed with Now the Day is Done.

Both Carolyn and Bob thanked everyone for the gift and the pleasant evening when games were played and a few contests. The ladies served a delicious lunch.

Donald Anderson celebrated his 9th birthday on Friday after school at his home with 14 guests.

arrange commitments for Achievement Day which will be Dec. 12. Demonstrations were shown-how to enlarge a picture for wall hanging and also how to do the "feather stitch". How many of us have old keep cushions or quilts whereon her dear old hands did feather stitch in the early 1900's to decorate her precious needle work? Cookie jar Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Priestman (Carolyn Spear) on Saturday night. Games and euchre were played and afterwards Harry Shortill asked the young couple to take the seats of honor and they were presented with a lovely Cookie Jar in the shape of a house. Its contents are to be used to buy something for their home. Good wishes for their happiness were expressed on behalf of those who contributed. Miss Pat Swindlehurst is attending Sheridan College, Oakville. She is boarding with her sister, Mrs. Doug Kirkwood.
