Open house at school

By Mrs. D. G. Robertson
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerr, nee Judy Ruck, who were married recently at St. John Brebeuf Roman Catholic Church in Erin. Congratulations to Mrs. William Milton, Mrs. Don Milton and children: Mrs. R. Ellis and family who were successful exhibitors at Acton, Milton and Georgetown Fairs; and now have their hopes set on Erin Fair.

Moved away
 Mr. and Mrs. Vincent McDonnell and family, who have resided in the house on the former Ross Ferguson farm have moved back to Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Jeans, who have lived in the cottage on the George Cooke place, have moved to Alberta.

Newcomers
 We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Neil McDonald, who have come from Guelph to the cottage vacated by the Jeans.

Fred Archibald returned home safely, following a ten day trip to Belgium, Holland and Germany, by air, in connection with his work at Clarkson.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Isley and family in the passing of the former's mother, Mrs. Isley at Georgetown.

Vacation at cottage
 Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moore, Third Line have returned home following a month's vacation at their cottage in Parry Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rudder and children spent the weekend with relatives in Toronto.

Mrs. K. Klooster was a week end visitor with friends in Orangeville.

Open House
 Open House, at the school sponsored by the Home and School Association on Wednesday evening was a decided success.

A goodly number of parents availed themselves of becoming acquainted with the staff, and viewing the children's work in the various class rooms.

Coffee was served by the ladies. The Home and School Association are also selling hot dogs and rolls on Friday noon at the school; the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the pupils. Miss Jean Howard, Lisle.

Campaign response 'fabulous'

The Y's Men termed the response to their campaign for the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society "fabulous", according to chairman Patrick McGreener.

With student support from Acton district high school they were able to raise over $650 and expect to have reached their goal of $900 by the time the campaign is finished.

They expect the response from the professional, commercial, industrial and labour section of the community will put them over the top the following week.

Records now at library

Long-playing records are now available at the library, and may be borrowed just the same way as books. Some records have been sent by the South-Central Regional Library system and promptly found favor with the readers.

There are classics, popular folk singers, show records and novelties such as "sounds of nature in Algonquin park." A leaflet in the back of each record recommends how to take care of it.

Newcomers to Acton married in Toronto

In a double-ring ceremony in Holy Rosary church, Toronto, on September 12, Christine Mary Jones and Dr. Robert Samuel Joseph Steen were married.

Dr. Steen, Acton's new dentist, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Steen, Toronto, and was formerly associated with Dr. Sussman in Brantford.

The bride, who was an X-ray technician at Scarborough General hospital, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Herbert Jones, Birmingham, England and her parents came over to Canada for the wedding.

Father Mailloux officiated for the wedding and Jack Nix, father of the best man, was organist. The church was decorated with white mums and mauve glads.

Ligoda and lace
 The bride wore full-length white ligoda with full puffed sleeves, lace bodice and chapel train. The white lace short veil was held by a floral headdress. She carried six miniature orchids, pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy in a cascade.

Maid of honor was Susan Witnall, Don Mills, who came to Canada from England with the bride two and a half years ago. Bridesmaid was Miss Patricia Steen, the groom's sister, who is studying for a B.A. in nursing at the University of Toronto.

They wore full length purple crepe dresses with puffed sleeves and trimmed with mauve braiding.

They carried mauve carnations, miniature white mums with heather and mauve ribbon. The bride was given in marriage by her father and the groom's father was John Nix. Ushers were Emmitt Weatherhead and Vince Nowlan.

Reception in hall
 The reception was held in Holy Rosary parish hall; the bride's mother received wearing pale green with a large brimmed hat and orchid corsage, assisted by the groom's mother wearing pale gold coat and dress with orchid corsage.

The couple left on a tour of Kingston, Montreal and Ottawa, the bride wearing a white and purple pantsuit, with purple shoes and pink sweetheart roses corsage.

New apartment
 They are living at 20A Main St. S., in one of the new apartments. Dr. Steen's office is downstairs in the same building.

"Shower" novelty
 Mrs. Joan Nicholas, a friend at Scarborough General hospital, held a shower in June for the bride-to-be when mainly kitchen articles were received.

Another shower was given by Mrs. W. Kelly of Mississauga in September, on the day the bride's mother arrived from England, so she was able to see just what a Canadian "shower" is like!

CHRISTINE JONES and Dr. Robert Steen were married in Toronto. He has established a dental practice here.

By Wendy Thomson
 The time has come, once again, to clean out and tidy up my collection of recipes. I wish I had started to go with such one, but I haven't. Just with one or two.

Both Jim and I entered baking in the Acton Fair again this year, and I thought I'd type out the winning recipes, if any. Out of our 21 entries, 17 placed, and copying out all those would take up too much room. Besides, everybody has recipes for ten biscuits, ham and onion and such. Then, I thought I could print Beth's recipe for Macaroni and Cheese Casserole (third) and Jim's for Chocolate Fudge (first in Junior Exhibits) and third in School Exhibits).

Really, though, the macaroni was something we'd never tried before (we like plain macaroni with stewed tomatoes) and everybody here thought the casserole wasn't that good and we fed it to the cats. I mentioned this to the mother of the girl who placed first and she said glumly "Yeah, I know what you mean. We fed ours to the dogs." So much for macaroni.

Little vague
 When I went hunting for the fudge recipe, I couldn't find the darn thing anywhere, and of course Jim was a little vague about what went in it, when. The following is my version of how he might have said fudge was made. I put cocoa, sugar and milk in a pan and kept mashing at the cocoa lumps that wouldn't sink or

Expect controversy Autumn poem read to group

The September meeting of the Little School promises to be of controversial interest this year with the showing of media versus music.

There have been several very nice gifts donated as door prizes. These include a sheepskin rug, a vase, and a Christmas cake.

Meeting at workshop
 The last general meeting at the ARC workshop was attended by 30 to 40 people who found it interesting and informative, giving greater insight into needs of the mentally retarded.

The ARC workshop is in need of baby food jars, 3 to 4 inches wide length of ribbon, broken spring clothes pins, nylons and scraps of material. Anyone having any of these articles they wish to dispose of can call Mrs. J. Kulken 853-1175.

The next meeting Oct. 21 will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Conroy, 172 Elmore Dr. at 8 p.m. At this meeting members hope to complete plans for the auction sale, to be held in Milton Oct. 31.

The Ladies' Aid of Knox Presbyterian Church met on Tuesday afternoon of last week with the president, Mrs. McIntyre opening the meeting with a poem Autumn Leaves written by Miss Isabel Anderson. Hymn 494 was sung and Mrs. McIntyre led in prayer.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and a short business period followed.

The scripture lesson was read by Miss Laura Wiles, and Mrs. MacPherson led in prayer, after which the collection was taken and the president led in prayer. Mrs. MacPherson gave a reading entitled 'Eavesdropping on the Ladies' Aid, which was enjoyed by all.

Hymn 607 was sung and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. Lunch was served by the committee in charge, and everyone enjoyed a social time.

Lost watch

A local woman reported to police she has lost a gold wrist watch. Anyone who might have found her watch is asked to call the police office.

Change time

The Duke of Devonshire chapter of the I.O.D.E. has decided to hold its meetings in the afternoons rather than evening.
