

NEWLYWEDS Brenda and David Watson stand beneath a 100-year-old ox-yoke at Paradise Valley Lodge, Memorytown, U.S.A. in the Poconos during their recent honeymoon. The bride and groom both are with the Toronto-Dominion bank and live in Downsview. Brenda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bullough, Downsview, and David is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watson, Acton.

Candlelight ceremony for Watson-Henry vows

Yellow and mauve mums decorated Knox Presbyterian church for the candlelight wedding of Brenda Lee Henry and David Thomas Watson on October 3 at seven o'clock. Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated at the double-ring ceremony and E. A. Hansen played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Bullough, Downsview, and is an employee of the Toronto-Dominion bank. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Watson, Acton, and is also with the Toronto-Dominion bank.

The bride wore an Empire style gown of peau de sole and chiffon with a lace trimmed train. A flowered headdress held her veil and she carried a cascade of stephanotis with a mauve orchid. Maid of honor was Jane Watson, Acton, sister of the groom, and the bridesmaid was Dawn Henry, Downsview, sister of the bride. They wore pale yellow chiffon over peau de sole gowns and carried nosegays of mauve carnations and yellow lace with ribbon. Their silver locket was the gift of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by Jack Bullough and the groomsmen were Neil Anderson, Acton; ushers were Bob and John Watson, brothers of the groom.

Reception in church

The reception followed in the church with dinner served in Stewart Memorial Hall. Guests were present from Acton, Niagara Falls, Guelph, Toronto, White Plains N.Y., Halifax, Dartmouth, Georgetown and Milton, including the bride's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. B. Dodds, the groom's grandparents Mrs. R. P. Watson and Mrs. L. M. Fulton.

The bride's mother wore beige lace with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore pink and silver brocade with matching accessories and white carnations.

To Poconos

The couple left for their honeymoon at Paradise Valley Lodge, in the Pocono mountains of Pennsylvania, the bride wearing forest green linen with black accessories and pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson are living in Downsview.

A shower was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Faulkner, Acton, and a dinner party at the home of Linda Giddings of Milton. Presentations were made by the staffs of the banks where the bride and groom are employed.

BOB AND DAVE Watson were both married within a month; the brothers both work in banks and so do their wives. Pictured above, Wynne Brady and Bob Watson were married September 5 in Newmarket and are living in Toronto. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Brady of Newmarket and he is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watson of Acton. Both are with the Bank of Montreal in Toronto.

Ridley-Symon vows Thanksgiving weekend

ANNE SYMON and Randy Ridley were married in Trinity United church October 10.—(Photo by Bill Stuckey)

In a candlelight ceremony on Thanksgiving weekend, Marguerite Anne Symon and Joseph Randolph (Randy) Ridley were married by the Rev. Gordon Turner.

Baskets of yellow glads with bronze mums decorated Trinity United church for the double-ring ceremony. Dr. George Elliott played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Macpherson Symon and is on the staff of the Bank of Montreal, Acton.

The groom is the son of Mr. Jack Ridley and the late Mrs. Ridley, and is associated with his father in the cartage business.

Yellow roses

The bride wore a floor length A-line Empire style gown of Igoda and French lace, the full back falling into a train. She wore a bonnet-style headdress trimmed with French lace with a veil falling from the top.

She carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis, and harvest gold yellow roses.

Four attendants

Maid of honor was Barbara Symon, the bride's sister, and the bridesmaids were Marjorie Ridley, Deep River, sister-in-law of the groom; Barbara McEachern, Acton, a friend and Jane Baker, Kitchener, a cousin of the bride.

They were dressed alike in apple green crepe gowns with moss green jumper effect. They carried colonial bouquets of bronze single mums with bronze streamers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Wayne Ridley, Deep River, was groomsman for his brother. Ushers were Steven Goy, cousin of the groom; Dougald Dick and Earl Butler, Acton.

Reception

Acton Meadows golf clubhouse was decorated with autumn colors for the dinner and reception. Mrs. Symon received the guests wearing an autumn gold dress and coat ensemble in peau de sole, with a corsage of yellow carnations and yellow lace.

Bronze mums decorated the tables and the wedding cake was topped with tiny yellow roses.

Guests

Guests were present from Acton, Toronto, Burlington, Orillia, Kitchener, and Parry Sound, and special guests were Mrs. Mabel Symon, Acton, a great-aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grittmann of Scotsdale, Arizona, cousins of the groom.

The couple left for the Pocono Mountains, Pennsylvania, the bride wearing a plum pant suit with white gardenia. They are living in the Valleyview Apts., Churchill Rd. S., Acton.

Showers, presentations
On August 29, Mrs. T. Shields and Mrs. H. Patterson held a miscellaneous shower in Guelph for the bride-to-be. On Sept. 13 Mrs. Marguerite Taylor and Mrs. H. McTaggart, aunts of the bride, held a miscellaneous shower. The staff of the Bank of Montreal made a presentation to the bride, and employees of Ridley Cartage made a presentation to the groom.

Learn to wait

"A good waitress can earn more in tips than a private secretary can earn in industry," said Frank LaFrance, Sheridan's Director of Manpower.

But there aren't enough good ones around, he says, so his Division is sponsoring a new 10 week course, starting November 2, for novice waiters and waitresses.
