

Presentation, W.I., assembly in report

By Mrs. D. G. Robertson
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacDonald on the arrival of a son.

Mrs. Vera Chase of Fort Erie was a recent guest with her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Murray McLenn, Townline.

Mrs. E. Fisher spent a few days with her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. M. Swain, at Niagara Falls.

At convention
Reeve Stan Fuller and Mrs. Fuller, spent a week in Montreal where Mr. Fuller attended the Good Roads convention.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hutchinson and family of Kempville were holiday visitors with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken.

Mrs. Robert Ellis has been a patient in Guelph hospital, undergoing tests and X-rays.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Craig of London visited over Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Howard.

4-H meeting
The third meeting of the Osprige 4-H Club was held at the home of Sue Jackson. Meeting opened by repeating the 4-H Pledge. Minutes were read and approved.

The roll call was "tell one way in which the man-made fibres differ from the natural fibres". The Club is to be known as the "Osprige Swifty Sew and Sews".

Sue Jackson discussed the pattern envelope, alterations, cutting and sewing the fabric.

The junior members are making dresses and the senior girls are making a two-piece ensemble.

Grade 2 pupils of the local school and their teacher Mrs. B. McKinnon presented a Thanksgiving program at the weekly assembly.

Susan Milne was mistress of ceremonies. Billy Bradford read the scripture and a Thanksgiving hymn was sung.

A short play was well portrayed by the remainder of the class.

Cape Cod scenes
Slides showing the landing of the pilgrims and scenes from Cape Cod were shown by the principal B. Macpherson with Mrs. McKinnon as commentator to complete a pleasing program.

In his announcements Mr. Macpherson invited any interested friends and parents to these assemblies held each Friday morning at 9 o'clock with the various grades responsible for the program.

Miss Doris Fines was program convener for the meeting of the Women's Institute with the theme being Historical research and current events.

The history of the Wilfred McArthur farm 5th taken from the Tweedsmuir History Book, of which Miss Fines is curator was informative and interesting.

History book
Work on the history book is now centred around local men who have been in the services, and a biography of Ross M. Ferguson was read. Ross was a navigator with the R.C.A.F. and in 1942 was awarded the D.F.C. and bar.

With Mrs. Gordon Aitken as accompanist, all joined in singing "My Grandfather's Clock" a replica of the clock had been made by Miss Fines, with the tick and pendulum being operated by her.

Novel program
Mrs. Byron Bruce and daughter Brenda, in old time costume sang "The Mocking Bird".

The closing number on the program was a T.V. newscast from Station O.W.I. with each member contributing a current event.

Miss Fines was heartily applauded for a novel program. Mrs. E. Archibald presided and in the absence of the secretary Mrs. G. Aitken read the minutes and financial report.

Donations were voted to the Muscular Dystrophy Fund and Historical Research Society.

Mrs. G. Grundy read the scripture and roll call was answered by "A pioneer form of amusement."

The hostess, Miss Fines, was assisted in serving lunch of fruit bread and pumpkin tarts by Mrs. G. Aitken and Mrs. D. G. Robertson.

A presentation was held at the school on Saturday evening for Jim Isley and his wife Deanna.

Progressive euchre was played and a gift of money was presented to the honored guests. Lunch was served by the ladies.

Hallowe'en party, accident in news

By Mrs. R. McLean
In the absence of the minister, administering communion at Aberfoyle, Jim Chapman had charge of the service. He based his thoughts on Jeremiah 17, and Paul's epistle to Titus. At the beginning of this century, people looked for a golden era of progress. There has been a steady growth in social concern. But the mood today is one of anxiety. The feeling that our country was immune to violence was shattered by the murder of M. Laporte.

The movement is away from the physical world to the contemplation of the human soul. There will be no peace until man finds himself again. We need the hope of the gospel.

Dignity of persons
The dignity of the individual; man's unselfish love for his fellow man, the healing of the sick, all had their beginning in the gospel. The writings of the evangelists contain the joyful sense of being set free from the bondage of sin.

gospel of Jesus) was addressed to the beleaguered soul. The message of the gospel was indeed good news. Good news presupposes bad times. The gospel promised spiritual freedom. Forgiveness is an integral part of the spirit of God. Jesus' hardest task was to get people to accept forgiveness, and put it into practice. The gospel has the power to awaken with the soul the power of the spirit of God.

Overcame evil
What about the evil in the world, which Jesus called "the Devil". Jesus overcame evil by his final victory on the cross. Hope is the creation of faith, not just a lesson from the past. It is not something learned but is an instinct of life itself. The gospel introduced a new promise from the love of God. "Whoever will save his life shall lose it." The gospel makes us realize all our selfish hopes are unrewarding. We must not dwell in the past, but look to the future.

Hallowe'en party
The Sunday school is planning a Hallowe'en party next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Gordon Wild's friends will be glad to know she is home from hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron McLean and their daughter, Mrs. Richard Jones attended the funeral of Mrs. McLean's aunt, Mrs. Walker, at Niagara Falls. Within less than a month of her 93rd birthday, Mrs. Walker was the last surviving member of the family of the late Rev. and Mrs. George Clark.

Alberta accident
A promising young life was snuffed out in a construction accident in Alberta, when Alvin Locker, son of Melvin Locker, R. R. 1, Hanover, Ont. was killed in a cave-in. Sympathy is extended to his parents, his brother Brian, sisters Paddy and Diane, and other relatives.

Enjoyable trip
Mrs. Art Norrish and her sister Catherine McPhedran, of Campbellville, enjoyed a 12 day trip to the three Maritime provinces. They especially enjoyed the island, with Anne of Green Gables' house authentically furnished and elsewhere replicas of Edinburgh Castle and the Tower of London. Driving through the St. Lawrence valley, with trees on one side and river on the other, the barns and houses were painted white.

The long farms make for sociability, but Mrs. Norrish said the farmers would have a long walk for the cows. Wood piles neatly shaped like cones were everywhere. When a field is left uncultivated, spruce seems to take over. In both Boston and Quebec city, the tour members were warned not to linger long alone after dark.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Munro and family enjoyed renewing friendships on Manitoulin Island over Thanksgiving.

Among those joining the church recently were Mr. and Mrs. D. Joss, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Preston, Mrs. Bill Price, Mrs. D. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jackson, Mrs. Stanley Clok, Paula Jackson, Cynthia Jackson, Jody-Anne Jackson, Mrs. Annie Gardner, Jim Ferrier, Darlene and Ken Hewer, Norman and Shirley Moore, Mark Munro and Eleda Ward.

IT RAINED for Milton, Georgetown and Erin fairs this year. But Acton's day was perfect.

Laity Sunday speaker students, W.I. in report

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Mr. Allan Jamieson is on his working semester at Cornwall. Murray Jamieson, also Kathryn Sinclair have returned to Waterloo University.

W.I. meeting
The Women's Institute held their meeting Oct. 7 at the home of Mrs. Sclessoraitis, Eighth Lane, Mrs. Jesse McEnery in the chair. Roll call was answered by each telling what they thought the public should know about W.I. work. Minutes and treasurer's report was followed by business.

A Thank You note was received from Brisbane School Staff for the new Maple Leaf flag they donated, which will be hung in the new auditorium on its completion.

Mrs. Ada Kirkwood convener of Public Relations, then took charge. Mrs. Jamieson took the motto and Mrs. McEnery current events.

Guest speaker
Mrs. Bernice Trimble, a member of the provincial board, then gave a very interesting address on public relations.

Following this unfinished business was dealt with and plans made for a euchre and quilt draw in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaskell and daughters were able to spend the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Snow and to attend Garry's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall spent a weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Polo, Ricky and Vickie-Lee recently.

Home from Scotland
Mr. Andy Splice returned home after a three week tour of Scotland. He now has resumed his course at University of Toronto.

Laity Sunday was observed with Mrs. Elaine Sales and Mr. Harry Shortill in charge. Carol Sales and the child's story. Mr. G. McKenzie of Acton was the guest speaker. He chose as his talk the history and work of the Y.M.C.A. As we know Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie have travelled extensively as delegates of the Y organization and were able to relate first hand information which gave a realization of the splendid value of Y.W.C.A. to communities. Rev. Johnston is attending a seminar this week.

Quilting bee
A quilting bee is being held in the church this week sponsored by the U.C.W.

Brownies held their meeting Monday afternoon.

(Intended for last week)
Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Toner of Toronto were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Reg. French.

Mr. William McClucky spent Thanksgiving at the same home. Miss Ione Oakes and Miss Lillian Shortill of Mimico were with the Shortills on Sunday.

New home
Mr. and Mrs. David McEnery, Rickie, Wayne and Darlene moved to their new home, on Peacock side road on the weekend.

The church pleasantly decorated for Thanksgiving service was the scene of the sacrament of Holy Baptism on Sunday. Stephen Lloyd McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross McLean and Aimee Lynne O'Connor daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny O'Connor were baptized by Rev. K. Johnston.

At Ryerson
Mr. David Neilson, Toronto visited Danny Shortill over Thanksgiving. David who lived here at Ballinafad a few years ago now is attending Ryerson in his second year, studying Business Administration.

Congratulations, go out from Ballinafad to Mr. and Mrs. Garry Snow who were married in Brampton last Saturday. The young couple will be making their home in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Wilson were guests at the wedding of niece Dale Jean Stenhouse and Donald Bruce Stenstrum on Friday, Oct. 9 at Freelon United Church, and afterwards the reception in Marian Hall.

Friday evening the thermometer read 28 degrees at 8 p.m. and we had snow flurries. Saturday morning, ice had formed to a depth of 1-3 of an inch.
