Vivacious Actonian in Georgetown soup

Playing the girl in "There's a Girl in My Soup" Acton's pert Pat Kentner joined a cast of seven to set audiences totalling 400 roaring with laughter. There was plenty of critical acclaim for the vivacious, dark-haired star, playing her first leading role with the Georgetown Little Theatre last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The comedy was staged three nights in Georgetown high school.

Mrs. Kentner had a small part before in Lysistrata and in children's plays last summer.

Goldie next

Quite a few friends and relatives went to Georgetown and enjoyed the play hugely. The comedy has appeared on Broadway and it's being made into a movie. (Goldie Hawn got Pat's part.)

They practiced six weeks in the Cedarvale community centre. With seven people on stage, there were about 20 working back stage, Pat explains.

The group will present The Mousetrab next and then The Gazebo.

Christmas plays will be presented in December for children. They have been written by Mr. McDonald, whose wife Mrs. Vera McDonald is the remedial reading teacher for north Halton public schools.

Four sisters all belong to the Georgetown Little Theatre - Pat Kentner of Acton, Lorri Ryan of Governor-General Michener the medalion of a Serving Sister in the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

"Fabulous" was Mrs. George Hargrave's description of her two days in Ottawa. Last Saturday afternoon she received from Governor-General Michener the medalion of a Serving Sister in the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

About 60 or 70 St. John members from all over Canada received awards from the Governor-General in Government House, and a delightful reception followed.

Richly deserved

Mrs. Hargrave recalls the Governor-General asked her how long she had been a member; hearing her answer 14 years, he commented "you richly deserve this honor."

He pinned her medalion to a clip on her uniform. She has ordered a certificate, which will be hand lettered in England. Photographs were taken and will be forwarded to her soon.

Mrs. Michener was lovely, she said, in a long black velvet gown.

Special events

They stayed at the Chateau Laurier, where a luncheon was held Friday noon. That evening there was a wine and cheese party at St. John house. They worked in a bus tour of the city; as their driver pointed out the various important buildings and embassies they couldn't help but notice the many soldiers. A surprise for Mrs. Hargrave, among the names of ambassadors and the owners of the lovely large homes, was the name of Galloping Gourmet Graham Kerr who has a home in Ottawa.

The Hargraves wore their St. John uniforms and had no difficulty passing the armed guards.

ONE OF THE STARS of There's a Girl in My Soup was Pat Kentner of Acton who played the female lead in the Georgetown-Little Theatre presentation. Goldie Hawn has the part in the movie.—(Staff Photo)
