

Spilling the Pins . . .

at ACTON BOWLING LANES

by Ken Hulford

BEARDMORE
Nov. 2: Finishers were so surprised at beating the league-leading Uppers by 5 pins in the first game that they forgot to keep going in the second and Uppers opened the count with a big win. Finishers recovered to tie however, to win the finale but were shy on the total pinfall for taking the odd point. Soles played the big part in the "Finishers" two game win. Tom Shannon 212, Earl West 224, Ron Stump 206 and Roy McDowell 228 had 'em. Top trio in Uppers' efforts were Phil Graham 55 (228), Jake Van Der Kooij 50 (215) and Jack Dunn 519 (192). The Beemers got on the win beam after dropping the first chucker to Patents by 23 pins and wound up with two and totals win. Artie White (301), Bob Woodcock 582 (218), Ches Lewandowski 527 (218) and Roberto Boyd 564 (208) sparked the win. Making with the most for Patents were Lyle Critics 613 (207), Rick Roadknight 547 (189), John Davidson 528 (188) and Russell Mathews 498 (203). Soles soaked away a three game win when they met up with Rollers. Rollers missed a win in the second game by 20 pins. Top trundling trio for Soles were Don Harris 629 (224), John Constantine 557 (214) and Robert MacDonald 524 (211). Top trio for Rollers were Phil LeSueur 634 (225), Kor Vryenhoek 509 (203) and Andre Brouillard 498 (217).

HEADPIN HITLES

Former Actonite and ex-president of the Major League, Bob Agnew was a weekend visitor. The "Dagers" trundled a few games with his old time skill and had some of the Major league captains wishing he was available for their teams — in the weekend "Beat the Champ", it was Bruce Shultis and Earle Middleton with triples of 814 and 782 in that order qualifying to challenge champion Boyce Brown. In the Championship round it was winner and new champion, Bruce Shultis with 779. Defending champion Boyce Brown bowed out with 638 when Earle Middleton rolled 722 in his bid for the title — congratulations to the teams of Annette St. Pierre, Gloria Galbraith, Audrey Blanchard, Shirley Thompson, Elaine Meecham, Cora Walters, Lonnora MacKinnon, Joyce Adams, Joan Why, Sandra McGraw of the Thursday Toppers' league. These two teams qualified to advance to the Zone Rolloffs in the Colonel Sanders Kentucky Fried Chicken Ladies' Five-Club Championships. They will be bowling Sunday, November 15, 1:30 p.m. at the Village Bowl in Port Credit. May their efforts be crowned with success that winds it up once again my friendlies, so adios, amigos, and goodnite, Concord City.

ACTON MIXED

Nov. 6: Picadilly's with a convincing three game win from Happy Gang took over the top spot. Al North 744 (298), John Gilbert 567 (215) and Bryan Billings 563 (202) were top trio in the win. Happy Gang's efforts were headed up by Andre Brouillard 614 (256), Artie White 564 (220) and Ed Browne 432 (178). The Clan won two games from Slow Pokes but took a beating in the third game. They lost out for totals which paved the way for their slip from first place. Making with the most for the Clan were Dan Porty 551 (202), "Shorty" Lowin 510 (188) and Doug Vleckery 510 (186). Best for Slow Pokes were Earl West 619 (220), Bev McIntyre 586 (258) and Ken Billings 494 (214). Nitrons routed Sizlers with a barrage of good solos

STRIKES at Youth Bowling

By Margot Matheson

November 7: Congratulations to Bantams, Karen Tremills, Sue Thompson, Brian Larsen and David Dunn. They qualified to bowl in the 7th Annual Master Bantam Tournament being held at the Sherwood Lanes in Hamilton, November 22. Sue and David will be teamed up with Master Bowler Bill Anderson while Karen and Brian will be bowling with Teaching-Master Bowler, "Frenchy" Conway.

We wish them the best of luck! In the Bantam bowling this week the Rabbits hopped over the Penguins taking both games with them. Sea Horses outran the Whales, taking two games from them. Cats tried their hardest but only managed a one game and totals win from the Octopuss. In the Second Shift the Snails put on some speed and took both games from the Kangaroos. Donkeys tried but only chalked up a one game and totals win against the Crabs. Teddy Bears rounded up the morning's bowling by taking both games from the Dogs.

The "Top Ten" for the Bantam Division are Susan Thompson 200-143 (343), Steve Blanchard 160-187 (287), Allan Edmondson 146-138 (284), Rick Van Fleet 146-128 (272), David Dunn 126-149 (215), Susan Pataky 141-128 (269), George Binden 98-163 (261), Karen Tremills 152-91 (250), Eddie Couture 142-114 (256), Delphin Roach Roach 113-134 (247).
Bowling best over their averages to win the Bantam bowling this week were Lynn Atkinson, Allan Edmondson, Karen Tremills.
Our most consistent bowler was Scott McLaren who rolled two games 75 back to back.

BIG FOUR

Nov. 6: Fireballs made sure of hanging onto first place by smothering the second place Red Wings with nary a win. Firing up the Fireballs win were Renee Voskamp 531 (185), Sonny Byrnes 527 (298), Sid Miller 523 (212) and Marg Hammond 468 (203). Top for Red Wings were Harry Barrens 548 (201), Larry Douglas 517 (186) and Bryan Hammond 493 (189). Hot Shots won the first game from Happy Gang by the narrowest of margins, one pin, then went on from there to win 'em all with "Big Jake" Van Der Kooij 753 (309), "Little Jake" Van Der Kooij 653 (242) and Web Kamminga 482 (188) setting up the win. Happy Gang's efforts were headed up by Harry Ensing 510 (176), Dolf Van Arragon 520 (228) and Archie Dukker 433 (183).
League standing: Fireballs 42, Red Wings 34, Hot Shots 34, Happy Gang 18.
