Eden Mills

Ball team honored at banquet Saturday

By Mrs. R. Wright
Sixty ball players with their wives and friends sat down to a turkey dinner sponsored by the Eden Mills community club at the Eden Mills Presbyterian church Saturday evening. Head table guests were the senior ball team captain James Barden and his wife; manager Mansell and Joan Lowrie; coach Jack and Joan Chamberlain and assistant coach Ross Campbell and his wife; president of the community club Rodney Bell and his wife. Speeches were made by most of the officials. The captain of the B team, Bob Wright Jr., also spoke for his team.

Each player was presented with individual trophies by Rodney Bell, the president of the community club, assisted by Jack Chamberlain and Ross Campbell.

The senior team won the Eramosa-Puslinch championship trophy, also the Walter Boreham memorial trophy for placing first in the league, and also won the Eramosa cup.

They went from the church to the community hall for dancing and entertainment supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Montgomery. For the dancing the band was the Shades of Tyme. Mrs. Chamberlain who was scorekeeper for the year was presented with flowers.

Limehouse

Wedding, class, meeting of interest in district

By Mrs. A. Benton
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Payne (nee Brenda Langille) who were married in Grace United Church, Brampton, on Friday evening. The reception for 50 guests followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Langille, 4th Line. Following a short honeymoon in U.S.A. the young couple will live in Georgetown.

Mrs. F.T.C. Brown and Mrs. Goodwin held a well attended first lesson in hooked rug making in Limehouse Memorial Hall Tuesday evening last week. The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Booth on Wednesday evening, president Mrs. Mitchell in the chair. Scripture was read by Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Mills followed with prayer. The secretary had the Presbyterian Calendars for 1971 on hand. It was decided to have articles or book reviews at each meeting rather than one study book. Text word "Nation" was answered by a verse of Scripture as was roll call. Silence was followed by prayer in memory of those who gave their lives in two world wars. Each lady read a Remembrance Day item. The president closed with prayer, and the hostess served lunch afterwards.

Visitors
Dr. Arthur King, Miss Jeanette King and Miss Brenda Brown of Orillia were weekend visitors with cousins Mr. and Mrs. Bert Benton.

MRS. RICHARD Jones (formerly Dorothy McLean) has received word that she successfully passed the recent examinations for nurses' registration. Dorothy is a graduate of Acton District High School and the Mack Training School, St. Catharines General Hospital. She is working in the pediatric department of Oakville Hospital.

Silverwood

Institute tour, 4-H wedding in area news

By Mrs. H. Scott
Silverwood Limehouse 4-H "Needle nobbers" officers are president Wendy Hannah; vice president Violet Barns, secretary, Debbie Dunne, treasurer Bev. Appleyard, phone convener Karen Ashcroft, press, Anne Lindsay.

The 16th meeting of Silverwood Limehouse Needle Nobbers was held at Mrs. Anderson's with 12 members present. The president opened the meeting with the 4-H pledge. Secretary read report of last meeting. Roll call was answered with the uses of the fly stitch. The covers for the book were discussed also the display for achievement day.

The president turned the meeting over to Mrs. Anderson who introduced Home Economist Mrs. Bannister, who proceeded to give members an outline of what to expect on achievement day.

How to judge an article and how points were given. She also outlined the record books, what members should have in them and how they should be finished for achievement day. A guest at the meeting from Jamaica who is an exchange teacher to the States was visiting Canada came along with Mrs. Bannister and enjoyed the Saturday morning with the members.

Mrs. Anderson demonstrated the crewel stitch, roman stitch, and girls were divided into groups to work on their articles. Mrs. Lindsay took one group, Mrs. Anderson the other. Meeting was held at Mrs. Lindsay's.

Fabric day
Silverwood W. I. along with Ballinlad and Limehouse met at the Limehouse Hall for a day with Miss Lampman and the topic choosing and using fabrics. The day was Nov. 3 and the ladies took their lunch and Limehouse served tea. The meeting carried on till 4 p.m. It proved most interesting and informative especially to sewers. The members enjoyed it and hope for more get togethers in the future.

Tour academy
Silverwood W.I. held their November meeting on Thursday Nov. 12 at Mrs. H. Marchington's. The members met at Rockwood at the historic site, the academy for a tour by Mr. Drenters. He gave an outline of what he had done and what his hopes are for the old Academy.

In the hall hung a framed schedule of prices: 13 years and over 13 pounds for tuition and board per annum.

In one school room hung old black boards and maps, along with several desks and slates and photos of Queen Victoria etc. and quite a cupboard of old books, proved interesting to many. The members then went to the home of our president Mrs. Marchington for their meeting.

Mrs. Campbell was convener of this meeting of Historical Research and the roll call was answered by "Nationality of grand parents" followed by financial report and minutes of last meeting and other business.

Discussion about a bus trip in January to the Ice Follies was then discussed and Mrs. B. Lindsay and Mrs. Carmichael was chosen to look after this. Meeting closed with social cup of tea.

Community good wishes to Connie Bornholt and Wesley Selman who were married in Knox Presbyterian Church on Friday evening Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m.
