Tanners fourth after two weekend losses

Fergus Flyers and Durham Huskies staged third period comebacks to score weekend wins over Acton Tanners in Central Ontario Intermediate "B" action. The losses left Tanners in sole possession of fourth place in the six team loop with a record of two wins and two defeats.

Friday night in Fergus, Tanners jumped into a 3-1 first period lead, but Flyers bounded back to even the score 4-1 in the second frame. Dave Norton's goal at 4:18 of the final chapter put Tanners back in the lead. The lead was short-lived however, as Flyers rebounded with three goals to gain the upset victory.

McCrea sparks win

Joe McCrea a thorn in Tanners' side all night paced the Fergus attack with four goals. Ossie Harper, Paul O'Sullivan and Dan Peden each scored once.

Gary Naylor continued his fine play netting Tanners' first two goals. Harold Townsley, Brian McDuffe and Dave Norton were the other Acton marksmen. McDuffe had to retire at the end of the second period after re-injuring his shoulder.

Tanners served only two minor penalties, while Flyers were assessed eight.

Grab early lead

Naylor's unassisted goal staked Tanners to an early first period lead in Durham Sunday afternoon, before the hometown Huskies rallied to tie the score. It was still 5-5 going into the third period, but Durham popped in three unanswered goals.

Couch Jim James moved Dan Arbie back to his regular wing position and the hard-working forward responded with two goals. Naylor, Jan Riddall and Phil Marzo handled the rest of the Acton scoring.

Replacing Vern Fraser in the Tanner cage, Frank Anthony was brilliant. He robbed Huskie sharpshooters on more than one occasion in the third period. Kevin Hall, Gary Naylor, Phil Marzo and Larry Gregson all played well for Acton.

Commenting on his club's improved showing coach Jim James said "If we'd have played half as well Friday night we would have whipped Fergus."

Sign college star

Rick Maloney a Brampton native, who played two seasons with University of Western Ontario Mustangs and one with University of Waterloo Warriors made his first start in a Tanners uniform playing on a line with Dan Arbie and Dave Norton.

Fred Buchanan may return to the Tanners lineup for Friday night's game against Cheltenham, but Brian McDuffe, Jack Poot, Ed Hillier and Dave Ryder will be out with assorted injuries. Buchanan has missed three weeks after suffering an eye injury against Elmira.
